MEETING TEMPTATIONS

A Man Never Overcomes Evil Until He Learns to Loathe It

"Do not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."—Romans xii, 21. There are few who would not rather do good than evil, few who do not desire the right way of living; but our difficulty is in summing the will to do the right; the will is not that of determining the fight, but that of reaching and realizing it. He makes a great mistake who fails to credit mankind with desires for righteousness.

BABIES IN LONDON BARS

PHASE OF THE DRINK EVIL THAT GIVES ALARM IN ENGLAND.

Physicians by no means agree in regard to the action of alcohol on the human system. In the London Lancet a few weeks ago a number of the best known British physicians published a manifesto, expressing their opinion in certain circumstances, and when used with discretion, alcohol was beneficial to the human system.

NATURE IS BEST DOCTOR

LESS FAITH PUT IN DRUGS TO CURE DISEASES NOWADAYS

The increase of exact knowledge regarding diseases and their causes, together with the fact that drugs do more harm than good, years ago, all sorts of remedies were considered to be unscientific and unhygienic. The medicine is prescribed for curatives and they recover.

THE S. S. LESSON

INTERNATIONAL LESSON.

Lesson V. The Tabernacle. Golden Text: Exod. 40: 33.

Based on the text of the Revised Version. The Tabernacle was the original form of the tabernacle. It was called simply the tent of meeting, in the sense of being the place where Jehovah met with his people Israel, and where Moses, the mediator, stood between the Lord and the people.

DEADLY TORPEDOES

New Projectile Under Consideration by Germany.

The rapid service of the German navy, which is continually increasing, is about to undergo an improvement which, experts believe, will make that arm the most powerful in the world. By increasing the size of both torpedoes and the velocity of their propulsion, it will be increased by fully five feet.
