EIGHTY MEN DROWNED

End of New Quebec Bridge Collapsed.

Locomotive and Three Cars of Iron on Structure at Time of the Catastrophe.

A despatch from Quebec says: The main and Approximent by all departments of the new $10,000,000 steel bridge ment officials. This is an increase of which is in course of construction $10,000,000 over the estimates made for across the St. Lawrence River at Levis the current year. [illegible] miles above the City of Quebec, collapsed [illegible] Thursday afternoon, carrying [illegible] 86 workmen, mostly Stee[illegible] Workers and carpenters.

The collapse of the immense structure [illegible] was the greatest [illegible] ever witnessed in Canada. [illegible] Only a few of the [illegible] were killed outright by the falling [illegible] Bridge, which is [illegible] Phoenixville Bridge Company, [illegible] Philadelphia, was [illegible] and was erected [illegible] the Bridge was [illegible] with a view [illegible] The [illegible] Bridge, which