KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent)

Grain threshing and Fall wheat seeding is engaging the attention of the farming public these days.

One of the most severe electric storms that has passed over this vicinity for a number of years passed over early Monday morning of this week.

Quite a large number from here attended the camp-meeting at Clarksburg on Sunday last.

Mr. D. R. Ellis, of British Columbia, a former resident of Wodehouse, and favourably known in this vicinity, who is on an extended visit with friends in Ontario.

Mr. Robert Zimmerman, of Oil Springs and Edward Lee, of Owen Sound, were recently the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferris.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of United States, are spending a few weeks with friends in Ontario and were last week the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Henry Thompson, East Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buchanan, of Oxmead, are renewing old acquaintances in this neighborhood.

Markdale Beaten at Last.

Defeated in Orangeville on Saturday by Toronto Junction. Score, 8-4.

The Markdale lacrosse players can now hang up their sticks and take a long rest. On Saturday last their chances for the championship were spoiled, when they were defeated by the Toronto Junction team on Idylwild Park, Orangeville, by the score of 8 to 4.

In the first stages of the game, before the strain began to tell, Markdale had a decided advantage. The first goal went to the Aberdeens, Joe Kelly carrying the ball from centre and scoring in twenty seconds.
