FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

The Flesherton - Rockvale Baptist church held its quarterly business meeting in the church here on Monday afternoon of last week. The report of the Treasurer, the best the church has received in years, showed that for the quarter ending Sept. 30th the following amounts have been received: For building purposes, $120.50; for Missions $43.50; on Minister's Salary, $42.25: Sabbath collections, $37.68. Total, $243.93. All accounts were settled and a small balance left with the treasurer. Arrangements are being made to reduce the amount received from the Home Mission Board for the work here.

The services in the churches here on Sunday were deeply interesting. . In and in the course of his excellent week. sermon drew very helpful lessons therefrom. Miss Brown, of Durham, assisted the choir and rendered an appropriate solo. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion. In the Presbyterian church Rev. G. C. Little's theme was "Casting Bread Upon the Waters," and in the course of his thoughtful sermon showed clearly the Christian's privilege and duty in giving liberally of the best he possessed to the Lord. The question sometimes asked, "Why all this waste sending the Gospel to the Heathen?" was effectively answered by the speaker, who in part instanced a McKay to Formosa, a Carey to India, and a Paton in the New Hebrides, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Blackburn sang an appropriate duet. At the evening service in the Methodist church, Rev. J. C. Wilson, of Markdale, occupied the pulpit and in the course of his able sermon, based on I. Chron. 21: 26, 27, showed that upon the setting up of an altar by David blessing came upon Israel, so upon the establishing of and observance of worship in all lands does God manifest himself in blessing. Music was rendered by a full choir. At the morning service Mrs. Nicholson assisted the pastor, who is yet unable to preach. .

The Idaho fever continues to work among the farmers; in the vicinity of Rockvale. Mr. Thos. White held an auction sale last week preparatory to leaving for Idaho. Twas only last week that we learned of the arrival home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson after spending since last March with different members of their family in Montana and Wyoming. Though there are more chances to accumulate wealth there, yet their hearts are happier in the hills and dales of old Glenelg.

When Mr. Colin McArthur is around a fellow's place, there's a double shuffle on. During the past week he has been head boss in cementing our stables and has had a gang of able assistants in the persons of Councillor Black, Jim Banks, John McNally and Joe Firth. Colin is not only quick, but kens what to do and is tasty and neat in doing it.

Mr. Joe McNally is doing good work threshing along the 8th con., while Mr. Will Bartley is cleaning out barn after barn on the 6th.
