KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS
March certainly came in like a lion.
Good weather for the ice, harvest and quite a number have already secured a supply for the summer months.
Mr. Geo. Cornfield, Jr., delivered at the saw mill here one day during the past week two logs, each of which contained over 800 feet log measure. No, he did not draw the two in one load, as his sleigh bunks were not quite wide enough.
Mr. Louis Proctor, of Yorkton, Man., spent a few days during the past week the guest of his brother, Mr. George Proctor.
Mr. Lyness Erwoett visited a friend at Markdale during the past week.
Miss May Wickens, of Flesherton, spent Sunday last at the parental home here.
Mr and Mrs. Warren Longeeed, late of B. C., visited friends here recently and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
R. D. Caruthers.
A number of gentlemen who aided in keeping the ripk flooded and swept off, were entertained by a number of the lady skaters to a social evening at the home of Mr and Mrs. Geo. Proctor on Friday evening last.
We are sorry to report Mr. Hugh R.
Hammond on the sick list, but hope to hear of his speedy recovery.
Mrs. Edward Baker, of Vandeleur, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm.
E. Fawcett, during the past week.
Mr. Will Lawrence visited friends in Parry Sound District recently.
It is expected that oil drilling operations will resume next week.
The Kimberley Branch of the G. W.
L. met at the home of Mrs. A. E.
Myles on Thursday afternoon of last week. The subject "Sewing and Exchange of Patterns" was discussed by most of those present. It was decided to buy material out of the funds of the Institute to make clothing to send to the destitute children in Toronto. Altogether a very enjoyable as well as profitable time was spent by all present. The next meeting will be held on March 26th at the home of Mrs.
John Fleves.

W.C.T.U. COLUMN
THE SISTERS ON STRIKE.
There's a cloud on the church at Mill-ville.
There's a frown on the deacon's face; There's a cyclone a fitting around the pews
And filling with gloom the place.
For the parson had read a notice
For the W. O. T. U.
That a woman would speak in the church that night,
And added he hoped every pew
Would be filled, for a treat so rare Had seldom come to the people, there.
Then up rose the deacon at once And said, growing red in the face:
"There order something be done to keep The wimmen inter their place.
This dreadful pervertin' of Scripture,
This strainin' over the land,
This makin' the sestern oneasy like—This tryin' to speak like a man—I tell ye they're gettin' to upish, Bein' as they're only a rib;
Their place is at home with the children,
A cookin', and joggin' the crib.
There was a blank o'er the church in Millville,
As an army of ribs arose, Marched down the aisle, out the church door,
Like women in Sunday clothes, Leaving behind in mute surprise Just seventeen pairs of masculine eyes.
"Prayer meeting as usual on Wednesday night,
A cordial welcome to all,
And each man thought of the crowd of men
That responded to such a call (?).
"The Sabbath school right after church For young and old alike,
And there in the church sat seventeen
men
With only one teacher in sight.
A smile quivered over the parson
As he glanced at Deacon Rose And announced, "The Ladies Aid will meet At the house of"—no one knows.
"The Y. P. S. C. E., to-night At six o'clock will meet,
And be led by Miss"—the speaker paused,
And the deacon blinked at his feet.
"The Woman's Home Mission Society Will pack its barrels"—but no;
The women had struck, the society's gone,
And the barrels would have to go,
"Well, open the service by number six,
And he glanced at the choir around;
But for choir, and organist, leader and all,
Only one bass singer was found.
Then up rose the deacon again,
"I never afore seed the like;
I never afore heerd a sermon through Without a woman in sight,
And if that air woman wants ter speak, I move we hear her to-night."
There's a smile on the church at Mill-
ville,
There's a gleam on the deacon's face, There's a cyclone of woman's prayer and songs Filling with joy the place.

VANDELEUR
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Weber and Miss Leona, of Kimberley, were guests at Mr. F. R. Boland's on Sunday.
Mrs. Ed. Baker spent a couple of days with her mother, Mrs. Stafford, of Kimberley, last week.
Mrs. John Boland visited with her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Taylor, the past week.
Quite a number from this line attended the party at Mr. D. L. Weber's, Kimberley, on Tuesday of last week.
During the evening an address was read to Mr. John Weber jr. and a shaving set presented to him ere his return to the West. Mr. Weber replied in a few well chosen words.
Mr. John Boland disposed of his three-year-old mare to Mr. Alex. Wilson last week for the handsome sum of two hundred and twenty five dollars.

Children Enjoy It
"I have used Coltsfoot's Expectant with the greatest satisfaction with my children. It is a wonderful cure for colds and sore throat. I believe it saved the life of my little son, who was very sick from a protracted cold on his lungs."
MRS. ANNIE BRAMBLER, Orangeville, March 15, 1907.
"I am greatly pleased with the good results we get from Coltsfoot's Expectant. I get great comfort with it for my children."
MRS. WALTER HAMMOND, 171 Argyle St., Toronto.
Coltsfoot's Expectant is the greatest home prescription for all throat and chest troubles in the world. No home should be one hour without it. You can have free sample by sending name
