McCURDY-GILLESPIE. very interesting wedding was celebrated on Monday, March 9th, at the residence of Mr. J. N. Hion Main street, Canora, Sask., the contracting parties being Miss Mand McCurdy, formerly of Vienna Ont., and now of Canora, Sask, and Mr. John H. Gillespie, of the firm of Gillespie & Tompte, genral merchants, Buchanan, Sask. The bride was very prettily attired white and was attended by Miss Edith Nevert, of Invermay, Sask. Mr. Gillespie was supported by Mr. Tompte, his partner in business. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. R Essey, in the presence of a select number of friends. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to a restuarant where a dainty lunch had been prepared. The bride's travelling dress was a blue silk, and the wearer looked extremely pretty. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie will be at home after March 18th at their residence, Buchanan.

Mr. Gillespie is the oldest son of Mr. James Gillespie, of Berkeley, Untario.—Com.

WILEY-THOMPSON.

On Wednesday evening, March 18, under a very pretty arch of evergreens, at the home of her parents, Miss Bella, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, New Hingland, was given in marriage to Mr. Samuel Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiley. Over fifty relalives were present to watch the interesting and impressive ceremony and wish the young couple God speed on life's journey. Rev. J R. Wilkinson, Rocklyn, officiat-and Miss Ida Thompson played the wedding march. The bride who was given away by her father, was dressed in cream crepe dhene, with trimmings of aplique overlace and ribbon. The bridesmaid, Mas Mary Wiley, sister of the groom, wore pale crepe de chene, with aplique and overlace trimming. Mr. Stewart Thompson, brother of the bride was groomsman. The groom's gift to the bride, was a gold watch with dainty fob of silk | and gold, and to the bridesmaid, a gold chain and locket. The many presents given by the guests were well chosen and bespeak much kindly interest in the young home-makers. Mr. and s. Wiley will occupy the homestead from which the groom's repast was served by the ladies. parents are leaving, and in a few many friends.

.WILSON-BOYD:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J Boyd of Temple Hill, was on the evening of March 18 the scene of a very pleasant event, when their eldest daughter, Mary, was united in matrimony to Mr. J. B. Wilson, of Beaverdale. Promptly at 5.30, while the wedding march was being played by Miss Fannie Boyd, sister of the bride, the bridal party ceneunder gnet has received instructions to tered the drawing room and took the Public Africion on Lot 7, Concession 8, their positions under an arch, was prettily draped with which

Wilson, sister of the groom, while Mr. Robert Boyd, brother of the bride, ably supported the groom. The bride was daintily attired in a gown of cream crepe de chene, with trimmings of white satin and lace, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white carnations. Her attendant wore a becoming costume of pale green crepe de chene, with trimmings of white velvet and lace and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about eighty guests by the Rev. A.

Shepherd, pastor of Markdale Presbyterian church. • After the recention all were ushered into the spacious dining room, where a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of. Then followed an evening enjoyably spent in dancing and other amusements. Excellent music was provided by Messrs. Brett, Foy and Patton, with Miss Fannie Boyd as accompanist. The array of beautiful and useful gifts are a testimony to the high esteem in which the young people long and Bulls on April 24, when bride was a beautiful watch and they will offer cash prizes as fol- chain; to the bridesmaid a pearl and diamond sunburst; to the groomsman a pair of gold cuff links.
