KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

Beautiful spring weather. The Beaver River is now on its annual rampage.

Mr. W. H. Stuart, of Powassan, is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wyvil, of Markdale, visited friends here during the past week.

Mr. Frank Hutchinson, of Meaford, spent Sunday and Monday at his parental home here.

Mr. Geo. Proctor and son, Earnest, who are working at their trade in Meaford, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at their home here.

Miss Alma Camack, who for the past nine years has been the faithful and efficient organist in the Methodist church, has tendered her resignation and leaves for Markdale this week, where she will take up dressmaking.

Mr. John Camack and son launched their fine new row boat on the Beaver River during the past week.

Drilling for oil continues. The well is at time of writing (Monday) some 500 feet in depth.

We are sorry to report the death of Margaret Alfreda, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson, aged three months and ten days, which occurred on Saturday morning last.

Safe in the arms of Jesus. Safe on his gentle breast. There by His love overshadowed. Sweetly the little one's soul shall rest.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Mr. John Murray, which sad event took place at his residence on Wednesday last.

Deceased was in his 61st year, and leaves five sons and four daughters to mourn the loss of a loving and kind father.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. Lemon, B.A., assisted by Rev. Mr. Kemp and Mr. Atton.

A severe thunder storm passed over here on the night of the 7th, and several barns and other outbuildings were damaged more or less by the heavy wind at the time.

Mr. John McCrae, blacksmith, is very ill at this week.

Dr. J. A. McLeod, who has been practicing during the past fall and winter at Blind River, is visiting his mother for a few days.

The common, though peculiar inquiry around town last week was: 'Did you get a kiss?'

Holland Council.

The Council met in Township Hall on Tuesday, March 10th, for transaction of general business.

A petition was received from S. Madill and 8 others asking for improvements on sideroad 15, con 11.

Communications from Lucas, Wright & McArdle stating that John Bell had completed transfer of land for deviation.

On motion the Council then adjourned till Monday, April 13th.
