Councillor Wilson has purchased from Mr. Geo. A. Gough the McBride farm in the suburbs. Mr. Gough is moving onto his old homestead, opposite the Dodds' farm. Our draymen will now be in a position to grow his horse feed and vegetables.

The Presbyterian ladies of a town near Ottawa have decided by resolution that if the managers of their church will go on with the remodelling of the building and the erection of a school-room, 10 wear their last year's hats and do without a pair of gloves for this season and give the price of the new hat and gloves to the building fund, to help on with the work.

Mr. David Madill, of Ceylon, who is agent for the Peter Hamilton farm implements, has opened a branch in Markdale, in the Bush blacksmith shop where he will keep goods and repairs, and hereby solicits a share of public patronage. He has already opened this branch, and has a man located here to look after the wants of customers. Second hand drills for sale cheap.

Special Easter services will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday next. The pastor will preach in the morning on "The Resurrection—a Fact and a Necessity." Appropriate music will be furnished by the choir. In the evening the meeting will be in the interests of the Woman's Missionary Society. Rev. J. C. Wilson will give the address and a special choir of ladies will conduct the musical part of the service. The Carey Bros., who give their splendid entertainment on Monday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League, will sing both morning and evening on Sunday.

Niagara Falls Journal:—Miss Esther Douglass, of Vandeleur, Ont., was last week the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. D. Morrell, of this city. Miss Douglass sailed last Friday for San Nicholas, Argenting Republic, South America, to engage in missionary labors under the direction of a Presbyterian church of Oakland, Cal. Miss Douglass belongs to an old New York family. Through her grandfather, the late Hon. H. Walter De Puy, she is a direct descendant of the Clintons, the De Witts and Barnetts, who were actively engaged in making history in this country more than a century ago. Through her great grandfather, Capt. John Gilbert, she is eligible to membership in the D. A. R. Richard Douglass accompanied his daughter to New York, and then returned to this city. Mr. Douglass and Mrs. Morrell were the guests over Sunday of Mrs. O. P. Scovell, of Lewiston. Mr. Douglas left this morning for his home near Georgian Bay, Canada. Old residents will remember Miss Douglass' mother, as Miss Theodosia De Puy, of Lewiston.

R. G. and W. Noble have erected and fitted up an up-to-date machine shop in connection with their carriage and paint shop. Such machines as are necessary for the repairing of all kinds of machines as lathes, drills, etc., have been installed. This machine repair shop should prove a boon to users of machinery, as considerable delay has been caused heretofore by the sending of broken machinery to outside points. Messrs. Noble have also placed planers and saws in their shop. A 15 h.p. International gasoline engine supplies the power. Taken in all, the proprietors are to be congratulated on their enterprise in fitting up such an excellent machine works.

An entrance fee of $1.00 will be charged, besides being a member of Society for 1908. Those wishing to apply should do so at once, as the number is limited to 25. Fred Wickham, Secretary.

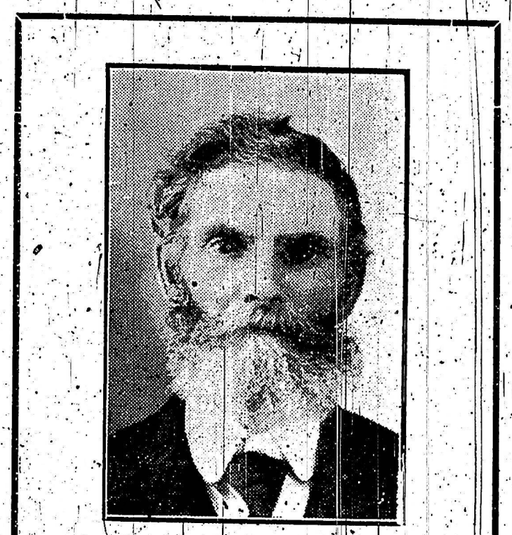
THE PERFECTION OF WOMANHOOD.

Who does not envy and admire a lovely woman? The secret of loveliness, of her perfection, is health. She sleeps well, eats well digests well—intricate functions are vigorous and regular. Of all woman's remedies, Ferrozone is the best; it vitalixes the functions upon which health depends—makes the purest, richest blood, gives perfect complexion and lots of vigor. Every girl and woman who seeks health, vitality, looks—let her get Ferrozone to-day. Fifty cent boxes at all dealers.

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP LOSES HIGHLY RESPECTED RESIDENT.

Mr. Andrew Walker, sr., Passed Unexpectedly Away Last Saturday Morning.—Came to the Township in 1852, Where He Has Since Resided.

Another of those grave shocks which now and then come to shake a community and effectively remind us that "all men are mortal," came on Saturday last when the announcement was made that Mr. Andrew Walker, sr., of Mount Pleasant, was dead. On Tuesday he was in town on his return home from a few days' visit with his son James, at Peterboro. At his home he went about his duties as usual, but on Friday night it was evident that his heart was causing him considerable trouble, his breath coming in quick gasps and other signs of distress being evident. Early in the morning hours Robert was hastily dispatched for the doctor, but about three o'clock, before Robert's return, the final struggle came and conquered. He retained his clear mind until the last moment and crossed the bar in perfect serenity.



THE LATE ANDREW WALKER, SR.

Mr. Walker was possessed of many fine qualities, had temperate habits, was of a quiet, unassuming nature, and was strictly conscientious in his dealings with his fellow men. Four years ago he fell off a stable on which he was working and sustained a shock, from which he never fully recovered.

Born in the County of Donegal, Ireland, nearly seventy years ago, he came to Canada with his parents in 1856, settling in the township of Holland. Later they bought the farm formerly owned by the late John Allan, being lot 78, 1st west Toronto and Sydenham Road, where the family have since resided. In 1866 Mr. Walker was married to Miss Mary Jane Gillespie, sister of Mr. James Gillespie, of Berkeley, and the union was blessed with a family of eleven children, eight sons and three daughters, one daughter, Miss Hattie, dying in 1902, and two boys in infancy. The remainder of the family, who were all present at the funeral, are: James, of Peterborough; Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Dundalk; George, John and William of Holland township, and Andrew, Robert and Miss Lizzie at home. Six sisters and one brother also survive.

Mr. Walker was for fifty years an Oran[illegible], and a Past Master of Berk[illegible] O. L. No. 176. He never [illegible]ected the Twelfth, Glor[illegible]d Immortal, and the celeb[illegible] was his one great annual [illegible]. He was a strong Conserv[illegible] politics and a member of th[illegible]odist church.

The [illegible]eral took place on Tuesday [illegible] the Markdale Public Cemetery, [illegible] Orange Order having charg[illegible] the obsequies, and the servi[illegible] the grave being conducted [illegible] the Rev. Mr. Richards, of [illegible] Centre. The pall bearers were [illegible]ssrs. James Gillespie, And[illegible] Gillespie, John McFadden, Rob[illegible], George Ritchey and And[illegible] Ritchey.

Am[illegible]ose from a distance who [illegible]d the funeral were: Mrs [illegible] Walker, Mr. Samuel Dins[illegible]rs. James Agnew, of Tho[illegible] Mrs. John Calvert, Owen[illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rob[illegible] James and Robert Rob[illegible]ndalk; Robert Wilson, Sund[illegible] Robert Ritchie, Peterboro; Wm. Wiggins, Owen Sou[illegible] and Mrs. David Jackson, [illegible]orth.

NOTICE.

A meeting of the License Commissioners of Centre Grey will be held in the Markdale House at Markdale, Thursday, 23rd April, 1908, for the purpose of considering the applications for licenses for 1908-9. Those concerned will govern themselves accordingly.

S. J. Halbert, Inspector.
