One often sees a person stop his carriage on the crossing to enable an occupant to get out and leave the carriage on the spot and so force pedestrians to walk around in the mud. No one does this of malice aforethought. It is just a case of unconscious selfishness.

The wisdom of the action of the Government in continuing May 24 as a national holiday was again demonstrated to the fullest extent last Monday when Markdale citizens generally—those who did not leave town by train—spent the day fishing, picnicking, or indulging in other outdoor recreation.
Coming as it does just when the summer season is about to open, and generally following a period of disagreeable weather, Victoria Day occurs at a peculiarly opportune time for an outing, as people in general are in a mood to appreciate it. The fates have almost always been propitious in regard to climatic conditions, and Monday was an exception to the rule only in the fact that the weather was entirely beyond criticism. A delightful breeze prevailed all day, and served to render outside recreation as enjoyable as it possibly could be.

of Judging Others." In the evening and the Devil's instrument." All are welcome.

If a couple of our respected citizens are not recognized by their friends this week they must not think it is an intentional slight.
The loss of their hirsute appendages has worked such a wonderful transformation in the appearance of their physiognomy that they must not be surprised if old, tried and true friends pass by without speaking.

lar train till Monday, June 1, or by special leaving Toronto at 7 p.m. Monday, June 1st.

Mrs. Wilson Benson died at her home, Main street, on Tuesday, at the age of seventy-one years. Mrs.
Benson was among those who lived in the days of candles and cord-uroys, and saw the world emerge from that state into the present day of light and gladness. Many in town and elsewhere mourn the passing of so amiable a spirit.
Next week we will publish an obituary.

GREY COUNTY'S FIRST CITIZEN.

Mr. R. J. Ball, of Hanover, Warden of Grey County, was born in the township of Bentinck on 15th January, 1857, moving to "Ball's Corners," Normanby township in 1859, where he lived on the farm and went to school as boys did—to school in the winter. In 1875 worked in the summer and went to Owen Sound and took a teacher's course at the Public school, subsequently teaching in Sydenham, and at No. 7, Normanby. In January, 1879, he went to Colling-wood and took one and a half years after which he attended the Normal School in Ottawa, under Principal McCabe. He then took charge of the Allan Park school, where he remained six and a half years, and married while here.

In 1887 he moved to Hanover and for the first five years had charge years he spent in McNally & Adams' bank, during which time he wrote life insurance, having a Twelve years ago he entered the manufacturing business in chairs, and to-day finds the Ball Chair Co.

Death of C. W. Littlejohns.

After a nine-day struggle with that prevalent disease pneumonia, in which medical aid and domestic attention were rendered unavailingly, Wes. Littlejohns, of the suburbs, passed to the great majority on Monday last, aged 40 years. Just 20 days before this his brother George died from the same cause, which intensifies the sadness of the bereavement. Deceased had not recently been in possession of vigorous health, which fact lessened from the beginning his chances for recovery. Born, brought up and died on the same farm, was truly a native of this part. Was united in marriage eight years ago to his now grief-stricken widow, who with three sons, aged seven, five and three respectively, have the deep sympathy of the community in their distressing grief. The frail condition of his aged father adds sadness to the affliction.
Burial took place this Wednesday at Markdale public cemetery, Sargeant Lodge No. 327 I.O.O.F., which deceased was a member superintending the obsequies. Rev.
J. S. I. Wilson conducted services at the home and the grave. The funeral was a very large one.
The beautiful wreath from the I.O.O.F. adorned the casket.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Turner's garden seeds are reliable and true to name. They are sold for 5 cents.

Mr. Mark Williams, of Corbetton, is advertising his splendid farm for sale. This is a snap for the right buyer. See adv. on page 8.

Mount Forest, May 26—Last night while Mrs. Hawke and a party of friends were returning home from Pike Lake, a summer resort about four miles from here, they had an experience that they will not soon forget. A severe summer storm accompanied by sharp lightning was the cause, and a complete wreck of the carriage, the occupants being thrown out, but fortunately all escaped serious injury except Mrs. Hawke, who had her arm broken.

The rest of the party were stim-bled for a few minutes, but did not sustain any serious injury. Dr.
Chas. Jones was called and attended to their injuries, and all are now doing nicely.

Funeral of Mr. Maidment.

The funeral of the late Frank W.
Maidment took place on Thursday and was largely attended, a respectable representation of the C.O.O.F. and I.O.F. superintending the obsequies. An appropriate service was held in St. Paul's Church on the way. Rev.
Robinson officiating. Deceased had been a consistent member of the English church, and was a member of the C.O.O.F. and I.O.F., both of which manifested in a practical manner throughout his fraternal spirit. The floral offerings from the family and the brethren were beautiful. Messrs.
Ballard, John Caesar, W. R.
Maidment, W. J. Howarth, H. Mercer and J. G. Matthews were pallbearers. The following were present from outside: Mrs. Wm.
Maidment, Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. R.
Douglas, Durham; Miss H.
Douglas, Miss M. Douglas and Miss Denison, Toronto; Mr. John Denison, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Dundak; Mr. S.
Fossett, Orangeville; Mr. T. Lackey, Shelburne; Mr. Neely, Flesherton; Mr. Tansley, Orangeville; Mr.
Eds. Gawley, Berkeley. On returning to Society hall a resolution of sympathy and condolence was passed by the united lodges of Mrs. Maidment in her bereavement.
