POMONA

The picnic which took place on Wednesday, June 3rd, was a success in every sense of the word. The weather was beautiful, the attendance large and the programme well carried out.
In the foot ball match between Pomona and Flesherton the latter came out victorious.

Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton, will visit St. John's church on Friday, June 12th, to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to a large number of children.

Mr. Dennis Sweeney's funeral took place on Monday, June 1st, to St.
John's Cemetery and was very largely attended. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Father Savage.

Miss Annie Dunbar is home from Toronto.

WAUDBY

Dominion Day passed off quietly.
Fishing was the only sport.

Mrs. Joseph McNally and baby girl, Irene, are spending a week with the former's mother, Mrs. Sandy Livingstone, of Priceville.

Miss Violet Dunn arrived home on Saturday, after spending the winter in Toronto.

Miss Annie Young left on Monday for Toronto accompanied by Miss Franks, of Toronto, who has been spending a month here.

Mr. Ellis, of Meaford spent Dominion Day at Mr. Joseph Young's.

Miss Annie Livingstone, of Toronto, spent Dominion Day with her parents here.

Mr. William McArthur, of Edge Hill, spent Sunday with his mother here.

ROCKLYN.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCullough spent Sunday with friends at Thornbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Devitt have returned from a fortnights visit with friends in Millland.

Ref. J. Wilkinson left this morning to attend conference. We hope our stationing committee think it wise to return Mr. Wilkinson to our circuit.

Mr. D. C. Day, of Shallow Lake, accompanied by her sons, Mr. W. E.
C. Day and Mr. Arthur M. Day, who have recently completed their college year at Toronto University, visited her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Williams for a few days last week.

Mr. Robert Erskine is confined to the house with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. Alfreo Neely came up Monday from Meaford, to show his interest in the Provincial elections.

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. of Victoria church was held at the parsonage on Thursday last. An invitation was extended to the society recently organized at Epping to join the Rocklyn branch at this meeting and was accepted by many. Mr., Mrs. and Miss Jordan, of Meaford, were also present and added to the interesting meeting by contributing papers on Mission Work. Mrs. H. McKenzie gave Pt. one of the report of the conference recently held in Toronto. The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

Entered March 14, 1908, at the Post-Office at Detroit, Mich., as second class matter under Act of March 3, 1879.

KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

The elections are over and the candidates who received the most votes are elected.

Mr. Peter Boyle and daughter, Miss Sarah, of Thornbury, and a Mr.
Johnston, of Wallaceburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Boyle during the past week.

The Misses Kinross Boyle, Ina Mc-Gee, Etta Wickens, Elsie Plewes and Maud Fawcett, members of the local Ladies Pedestrian Club, walked over to Woodhouse on Wednesday afternoon of last week where they attended a Sunday School picnic and report a good time.

Mr. W. S. Fawcett, of Epping, visited friends here on Saturday and Sunday last.

Mr. Taylor Abercrombie, one of our enterprising young farmers, has purchased Mr. Wm. Scott's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brooks, of Clarkburg, were the guests of the latter's parents on Sunday last.

Mr. Thos. Harness, Supt. of House of Refuge, will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church here on Sunday morning the 14th.

Miss Etta Wickens is visiting friends at Flesherton this week.

Mrs. Downs, of Brampton, visited friends here during the past week and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex.
Fawcett.

Mr. Geo. Cornfield, jr, has greatly added to the improvement of his farm by having a new Page wire fence erected across the entire front. Nothing is too good for George. Mr. Geo.
Curry was the builder.

Court Kimberley No. 555 C. O. F. have recently added some 15 new members and expect to add more in the near future.

EUGENIA

A heavy thunder storm passed over this neighborhood on Monday evening accompanied by high winds and a drenching rain. Except leveling fences we have not heard of any damage done. The rain was very much needed for the growing crops which look fine around here.

Miss Rebecca Turner, of Toronto, is home at present visiting her parents.

Mr. Laidlaw, the popular young pastor of the Methodist church, is gone to conference. All are in hopes he will be returned to this circuit as he has gained the good will and friendship of all the people in this community during his year among the people here and also at his other appointments.

Miss Alice Gordon, of Toronto, is visiting friends around here at present.

Mrs. Gilliland has the framers erecting a fine frame barn. Mr. Macdonald has the contract.

Miss Beecroft has the carpenters at her new residence. Messrs. Walker, of Creemore, and Sloan, of Kimberley, have the contract.

Mr. Willie Wilson, the Misses Alice Gordon and Milly Wilson visited Singhampton friends over Sunday.

Miss Maggie Wilson is the guest of Rock Mills friends this week.

Miss Ella Pedlar, of Summer Hill, spent the past week visiting friends at Singhampton.

Some of our gardens here have peas in bloom and potatoes coming out in blossom. Woodburn's is one of the early gardens, it shows the salubrity of our climate at Eugenia.

Mrs. Large has changed the "Merry Widow" hats for a new style called the "Kiss Me Quick." The boys are delighted. She cannot fill the orders fast enough.

Our farmers are feeling good over the prospects of bumper crops this year.

Our young men are sporting a new style of hats which they call the "Bachelor's Pride." They look very tony.

Our young folks are preparing to get up some picnics before road work and hayng commences.

Fruit promises to be an abundant crop this year.

Weak women should try Dr.
Shoop's Night Cure. These healing soothing antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses. My "Book No. 4 For Women" contains many valuable hints to women, and it is free.
Ask Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., to mail it. Ask the doctor in strictest confidence, any questions you wish answered. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is sold by W. Turner & Co.

New Trotting Stallion.

Mr. J. A. Crowston, of this town, has purchased from Mr. R. J.
Stone, of Collingwood, the Standard bred stallion AB. BRINO (20,810) American Trotting Register. He has proved himself a great sire; his stock are good lookers, with lots of speed and always sell for big money. This is a good opportunity for the people of this vicinity to improve their road horses. Have a look at him.

June Offerings for the Wool Season.

We are big buyers of Wool and can handle any quantity for which we are prepared to offer the highest market price in Cash or Trade. We are the only department store in Markdale carrying a full line of everything including hardware for which we accept all kinds of products in exchange for, we don't say to you if you want hardware we will get it for you, but we have to pay hardware merchants 10 per cent to supply your requirements in these lines.
Remember, when trading at this store you get hardware just the same as we sell you anything else at the closest prices. So bring your wool and get what you want without having to go elsewhere for it.
