Mercer vs. C.P.R.

Judge Hatton's duties at the June sittings of the County Court at Owen Sound were not arduous this year. When the Court opened on Tuesday afternoon there was only one case, Mercer vs. C. P. R., an action to recover damages for injuries done to a horse in an alleged rough shunt of cars at Markdale siding. The case was in the jury list, but the judge withdrew it and heard the evidence, reserving decision. George Denison, of Toronto, for the C.P.R., and I. B. Lucas, M.P.P., for the plaintiff. Nathan Mortkowitz, charged with the suit on bail, did not answer when called. Two other cases set down for a later date for adjustment.—Times.

That Flesherton Band Affair

Editor Standard:—

Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to refute some statements made by A. S. Thurston, of Flesherton, on behalf of the Flesherton band. In the first place he says that in my report to The Standard of the C. O. F. picnic that I stated that the above band did not give satisfaction. What I did say, if my memory serves me right, was that practically three-thirds of those present were disappointed in the band. Now, Mr. band Secretary, don't you think yourself they were, or do you think I am quoting false statements? Now, as regards that baseball match; you say that I reported it a tie, and so I did, and so it was, at least the umpire decided it so, and how could I report it otherwise? As regards the Kimberley-Flesherton football match, I reported it a tie, but that Kimberley was awarded first prize and Flesherton second. The reason the referee awarded Kimberley first was that he ordered the tie to be played off; but Flesherton refused—thus the referee's decision. Now, Mr. Secretary, I wish you to know and bear in mind, too, that I have yet through the public press to make any false statements. True, I may make mistakes, as any one may at times. Hoping that this short reply will clear things up. However, if not, I can if need be give more details regarding the matter. Thanking you in advance for the space in your valuable paper, I am sincerely yours,

R. R. Fawcett,
Kimberley cor. to Standard.
