Heat prostrates the nerves. In summer one needs a tonic to offset the customary hot weather.
Nerve and Strength depression.
You will feel better within 48 hours after beginning to take such a remedy as Dr. Shoop's Restorative.
Its prompt action in restoring the weakened nerves is surprising.
Of course you won't get entirely strong in a few days, but each day you can actually feel the improvement. That tired, lifeless, spiritless feeling will quickly depart
when using the Restorative. Dr.
Shoop's Restorative will sharpen a failing appetite; it aids digestion;
it will strengthen the weakened kidneys and heart by simply rebuilding the worn-out nerves that these organs depend upon. Test it a few days and be convinced.

THE JUNE BRIDE

The June bride is a rare delight,
The women rave about her now;
They think she is a lovely sight,
The orange blossoms round her brow.

They look and eye her up and down;

They give her many a searching look;

But men—the brutes, on whom we frown—

Just wonder if she's learned to cook.

The women rave about her dress,
They know at once how it is made;

They chat about her loveliness

And laces, satins and brocade.

They wonder if she's nervous, too,

But worldly man contrives to shock

By wondering when this is through

If she'll know how to darn a sock.

The June bride at the altar stands,

And every woman's eye is turned.

To see just how she holds her hands;

Or if her cheeks with fire are burned.

They note her actions; just to see

If she is solemn-faced or sunny;

Man wonders just how soon 'twill be.

When she will ask him for his money.

A woman sees a bride so fair

And notes the fashion of her dress;

She sees just how she's dressed her hair,

No detail does she leave to guess.

But many more commonplace and trite,

Whose mission is it seems to scoff, he Thinks she is a charming sight,

But wants to bet she makes bum coffee.

TRAIN TOPPLED OVER EMBANKMENT

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON C.P.R.
NEAR TOTTENHAM—25 INJURED, NONE KILLED.

Tottenham, Ont., June 28.—The C. P. R. train for Winnipeg, which left here on Saturday night, carrying two hundred passengers, was derailed about two miles north of Tottenham at 11:40 p.m. Five coaches were thrown down an embankment between fifteen and twenty feet, four turning completely over. The tender and baggage and mail cars remained on the track. There were none killed, but two elderly women are seriously injured. In all about twenty-five were injured, some very slightly. The rolling stock and roadbed appeared to be in good order, and the train was running about the usual speed.

The passengers were taken to Tottenham early this (Sunday) morning, where they were given every comfort possible, and at one o'clock this afternoon were conveyed back to the scene of the wreck and passengers and baggage transferred to a special, which took them on their journey. Four of the more seriously hurt and some who did not desire to continue on their journey were taken to Toronto. Although the track will be passable, the cars being thrown free of the road-bed, it will be days before the coaches will be extricated from the ditch.

Mr. R. R. Gamey, M.P.P., was a passenger on the wrecked train, but escaped injury.

"Why is it you don't see so many men chewing tobacco as you used to?" said an oldtimer. "I don't know, but it is true, and I took the trouble to prove it by talking it over with my tobacconist. He says that there has undoubtedly been a big falling off in plug tobacco sales, not nearly so many men chewing nowadays as fifteen and twenty years ago, and those who do chew nowadays are mostly oldtimers." The cigarette, my dealer believes, is responsible for the decrease in chewing, as most young men with the tobacco habit nowadays smoke cigarettes. Cigarettes are really a new form of a smoke, and I am sorry to see them gaining in favor. In my youth, forty or more years ago, a young man smoked a cigar or pipe and chew, but no one except Spaniards and Mexicans smoked cigarettes, and it was considered effeminate. But the cigarette has evidently done up the game.
