KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

Most of the farmers around here have finished harvesting and putting in fall wheat is the order of the day.

Miss Esther Magee, of Toronto, is visiting with Miss Ina Magee. Miss Annie Bowles, of Markdale, is the guest of Miss Kinross Boyle. Miss M. Myles is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Myles, of "Springbrook Farm."

We earnestly hope that excessive modesty will never depopulate Kimberley and its suburbs.

Many of the Kimberley people took in the excursion to the West. Those who went were: Wilfred Walter, Clifford Camack, Charley Camack, Mr. M. Ferguson, Mr. Henry Hurd and Misses Frances and Annie Rear.

Mrs. Geo. Proctor and son Harold visited friends in Meaford during the past week.

Miss Maid Fawcett is visiting friends in Collingwood.

Mr. Ed. Hamill and Miss Maggie Thompson are visiting friends in Singhampton.

Mr. Ernest Buchanan, of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. Jasper Gilbert.

Miss Genoe, of Markdale, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stuart with family visited Mrs. Robt. Stuart during the past week.

Miss Mina Weber has gone to fill a position as school teacher, in Waterloo County. We wish her every success.

Mr. Vic Lawrence and sister, Miss Amy, are the guests of their friend, Miss Ina Magee.

Miss Emma McClung, of Flesherton, was visiting the parental home during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Toronto, are the guests of Mrs. E. Smith.

VANDELEUR

Miss Violet Waring, of Priceville, is renewing acquaintances here prior to her departure for British Columbia.

Mrs. T. M. McGill, of Warman, Sask., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Pritchard, last week.

Members of the C.O.F. and L.O. of this place attended the funeral of the late Mr. Wilfred Halbert in Markdale on Friday.

Much sympathy is expressed for the friends of the deceased, who was well and favorably known here.

BERKELEY

Harvest is about finished here. Reports of crops are good.

Joe Drinkwater met with a serious accident last Friday by losing three fingers of the right hand with a saw in Mitchell's mill. Drs. Ego and Sproule dressed the wound.

Art Stafford also met with an accident, getting his fingers crushed with a piece of wood flying from a saw.

Miss Ellie Leslie, of Owen Sound, is visiting friends here.

Miss Maggie Flynn, of Chatsworth, is visiting Miss Maggie Black for a few days.

Miss May Martin is home from Meaford on a visit.

Mr. Ed. Hannah is making quite an improvement on his house by shingling the sides.

PROTON STATION

Farmers are nearly finished harvesting in our vicinity, but are doubtful of a good yield.

Miss Edith Mitchell of Dundalk, spent Sunday at her home.

Miss Flossie Trelford, of Flesherton, and Mr. Carman King, of Markdale, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Trelford.

Miss Ida Binnie, of Flesherton, spent Sunday at home.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA CURED.

"My father has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle, of Phillippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Phillipian Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and though sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by R. J. Stephen.

STRAY CATTLE.

From my premises, lot 91, 1st range west Toronto line, Glenelg, last seen about the 8th August, white steer and red and white heifer, 2 year-old. Information that will lead to their recovery will be thankfully received. W. J. Aitken. 52-3

SHEEP STRAYED.

Were last seen about the middle of August, two sheep and two lambs, marked with round O on side. Information that will lead to their recovery will be thankfully received. John Risk, Epping.

IN SEASON.

I say, my boy," he remarked, "there's anything to shoot down the hill." The boy looked around for a moment, and then answered, with a grin: "Ay, there's the skulder comin' over the hill."
