LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Holstein will have a new skating rink.

Monday was Shelburne's civic holiday. When a man brags about himself it's a sign that others merely tolerate him.

About thirty thousand square feet of cement sidewalk has been laid in Shelburne this season.

The concrete work on the new bridge on Garafraxa street, Durham, was completed last week.

Seventeen charges of selling intoxicating liquors have been made against Owen Sound hotel keepers.

R. Hodgins of Dundalk has a citron which measures 35 inches in circumference. One of the vines is 15 feet long.

'Rounding up the harvesters' promises to become as necessary as 'Bringing in the sheaves' in the far West.

Harry Ketchum, of Ottawa, formerly of Orangeville, acted as chauffeur to the Prince of Wales during his recent visit to Quebec.

Police Magistrate Cranford, of Brampton, has given a decision to the effect that a reasonable hour at which a gramophone should cease talking is 10 a.m.

A $150,000 fire destroyed the West Toronto stock yard on Tuesday night. Seven families were rendered homeless. The blaze covered an area of sixteen acres.

A Chatsworth girl captured the medals offered by the Hon. A. G. Mackay and Dr. Middlebro for the pupil taking the highest number of marks at the Entrance examination at Owen Sound.

Roy Stanley Hall, 13 years of age, and Donald McDonald, aged 11, two bright Owen Sound boys, were drowned in the Svedenham River, on the outskirts of the town, on Tuesday, while bathing.

Two Orangeville girls dressed up in boys clothes and paraded the streets one night last week. The Sun says the citizens are indignant over the matter, and next time such an exhibition takes place police court proceedings will follow.

The death of Mr. Henry Farr, on the 2nd concession of Glenelg, on August 15, removes another pioneer from that township. He was 80 years of age, and came to Canada in 1837. He has been a resident of Glenelg township for 64 years.

Intending to move to Holland township in the near future, Mr. John Quinn recently purchased a horse from Mr. Dunsford in upper town and left it there. It broke loose in the stable and more than satisfied its appetite with the feed it had access to, and died from over-eating.—Durham Review.

A dozen or more farmers near Creemore took stock to the extent of $20 each in the Durham Supply Company which failed some time ago. The notes became the property of the Standard Bank, and though the farmers received no value whatever for them, they are now threatened with suit unless they cash up at once.

Passengers on the Orangeville C. P. R. train, says a daily paper, may henceforth rest assured of a hot meal there. Superintendent Thomson, of the C.P.R., has ordered conductors to go through the trains and find out how many passengers want a hot dinner. The conductor telephones ahead, and when the train arrives the steaming lunches are ready.

LIBBY PRISON DIARRHOEA RELIEVED.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Company, Chicago, writes: "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quirk, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old Libby Prison Diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many of our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except Libby Prison diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by R. L. Stephens.

WALTERS FALLS

The weather continues very cool. Rev. and Mrs. Wellwood, of Chatsworth, were in the village on Monday.

Mr. Fred Hipwell returned to his home in Alliston on Wednesday last.

The ice cream social given by the Mission Band on the parsonage grounds last Tuesday evening was quite successful.

The cement walk has been extended a few rods farther this week, and next year we hope to have it reach the Methodist church.

Mr. A. L. Atton, of Massie, was a caller in the village Monday evening.

The People and the Roads.

Editor Standard: It is interesting to notice the different expressions on the faces of the people as they come into town. The people coming from the north of Glenelg have an expression of disgust written on their otherwise honest faces. The roads are all dry except at Barrhead Mills, and they get their nice clean buggies all mud there, and their faces betray an expression of disgust that even the prospect of a free trip to Toronto cannot remove.

The Berkeley people and those who come that way look as if they were suffering from nervous prostration. They strike the floating bridge after a toilsome ascent and descent, and it shakes and rattles as if the whole ramshackle were going to collapse. It is a strong argument for a Providence that no one gets into difficulty there. But their difficulties are only beginning; the roads are made of rocks and boulders—large gravel—and the buggy shakes and nearly drives you sea-sick. It is all the same up-hill and down hill—stones everywhere, wearing rigs and harness and livery horses.

It is like driving into a quarry, and when the good people down from the North and West get into town they are utterly unfit to strike a bargain, and when the two hustlers at the corner rush out at them with smiles a yard long, the poor women collapse and have to be assisted out of the rig.

Even the people from Euphrasia—stolid and staid—who try not to smile when the corner men rush out after them, have a scared look—their horses shy at these old post holes at the cemetery.

The country gentry from Flesher-ton way come with a self-satisfied air and when they see the new road at the Wyvill block they think they have struck a modern town.

Now to business. The road from Markdale to Berkeley for two and a half miles is a disgrace to civilization, and the council responsible for such a state of affairs should have it repaired—especially the floating bridge—immediately. It surely would not take much to put the road in shape opposite Barr-head Mills.

O. S. LIQUOR MEN GO TO JAIL.

Three Men Sentenced as Their Second Offence Against the Liquor License Act—Go To Prison for Four Months.

Owen Sound, Aug. 23.—The inhabitants of Owen Sound are greatly excited over the results of the trials of the hotelkeepers charged with breaches of the Liquor License Act. In all there were seventeen charges, implicating nine hotels. Four of the cases have still to be heard, and two of the parties concerned have disappeared. The interest of the public has been intensified by the fact that three of the accused who were found guilty were sentenced to four months' imprisonment each. Their names are: William Leach, City Hotel; Joshua Warrlow, Royal Hotel; and And. Fogarty, Albion Hotel. Each of the accused had been previously convicted, and Magistrate Creasor, while remarking that he was sorry for them, said that he was forced by statute to send them to prison. Fines ranging from $60 to $100 were imposed upon the other guilty parties. The round-up was made by four detectives from Toronto, and from the point of view of the license authorities has been the most successful ever instituted in this locality.
