One of the old pioneers of this part passed away last Friday morning in the person of John Crawford. He received a kick from a horse a few days previous, breaking his jaw and hurting his breast. Deceased came to this country when settlers were few and the country all bush, he hewed out a home for himself where he resided till his death. He was a life long conservative, voting at the last General Election. He was a staunch member of the English church. He leaves a wife and one son, Robert, to mourn his loss. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Crawford in her bereavement as she is indisposed with a broken foot caused by a fall. Interment took place on Sunday in the English church cemetery here.

the whole community. the sorrowing husband, and leaves two children, Violet and a little infant daughter. The funeral took place on Saturday a.m. to the Methodist cemetery here. Services were conducted by Revs. Kemp and B.A. The following friends and sister attended the funeral: Mrs. Loney, of Parry Sound; Mrs. Vasey, and Chas. McGeoghegan, Ill. The deepest sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved mother and friends in their bereavement. Friday afternoon, Martha, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. Robt. Howey, passed away at her home on the tenth of Holland, after a severe illness while death was not expected. It came very suddenly, and a happy release to her soul. Interment took place Monday in McEwen's cemetery and was largely attended, services conducted by Rev. Dr. McEwen of Temple Hill, and Rev. Edmund, of St. Catharines. Mr. Howey and family have never felt sympathy of the community in the loss of their daughter. Mrs. Shepherd and little of Markdale, were the guests of Mrs. Lemon at the home on Monday. Folger, of Dundalk, who purchased the Queen's Hotel at Arthur Street, of weeks ago, sold it back to the former owner last week, receiving $500 in advance of the price.
