

Flesherton Happenings

Mr. Andy Wilson has invested in a neat driving outfit.

Miss Katie LeGard is home from Toronto visiting her parents.

Miss McAuley, nurse, is home from Toronto visiting her parents.

Miss Maggie Snell, of Holstein, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Snell.

Mrs. M. K. Richardson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. B. Lucas, at Markdale.

Mrs. W. N. Southgate, of Seaforth, is visiting her brother, Mr. George Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bingham, of Shelburne, visited over Sunday with Mr. A. Munshaw and family.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell and Rev. J. W. Tribble, of Corbetton, are to exchange pulpits next Sunday.

Mr. Leslie Morris is this week going into business for himself, opening a new barber shop at Cevlon.

Mr. Joseph Cornfield has been at Milton the past two weeks with his brother, Robert, who is ill and very low.

Mr. H. Radley and sister, Mrs. T. J. Stinson, attended the funeral of the late George Radley at Markdale on Friday last.

Messrs. Victor and Mabel Riley, of Alliston, were visitors the past week with their aunt, Mrs. W. J. Caswell, and other relatives.

Mr. Ed. Richardson, of Iron River, Wisconsin, is on an extended holiday, visiting his mother, Mrs. Henry Richardson, here.

Mrs. T. E. Aikenhead and daughter Ruby, of Toronto, paid the former's mother, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, a short visit last week.

Mrs. W. J. Boyd gave a thimble party to about thirty of her lady friends on Saturday afternoon last. A very enjoyable time was reported.

Mrs. (Dr.) Murray returned on Saturday from Toronto where she was under treatment for a few weeks, which has somewhat benefited her.

Mr. Charles Wickens arrived here on Saturday from Winnipeg and was a visitor at Mr. John Thistlewait's. Mr. Wickens has been in the West since August.

A number of neighbors and friends were entertained at a few summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood on Monday evening when an enjoyable time was spent.

The Flesherton Advance has promised its readers a pleasing surprise this week. This we believe will be the paper in enlarged form and chock full of interesting news.

The Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday Schools are now preparing for their anniversary entertainments on Christmas and New Year's evenings respectively. The Baptist School is also preparing for date not yet fixed.

At the close of the service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon Rev. G. C. Little, Mr. Frank Chard and Mr. Andrew Gilchrist were appointed delegates to the Laymen's Missionary Convention to be held at Orangeville on December 15.

Miss Wolfe, who recently visited her cousin, Mrs. Runstadler, left a few days ago for Hamilton to accept the position of soloist in the Carey choir which will tour for the season in Canada and the United States. The choir consists of twenty members.

Mr. Norman E. Raham, a beautiful cornet player, who for the present is assisting Mr. Sproule with an agency here, assisted the Methodist choir with his instrument on Sunday evening. Mr. Raham will play at the Band entertainments next week.

While coming to the village on Friday last, a horse driven by Mr. George Cairns, of Ceylon, took the liberty of a skip, upturned the cart and landed the driver on the roadside. The horse reached town with the cart intact, and George escaped with an abrasion over the eye.

Mr. James McMullen, J.P., had occasion to again occupy the bench on Saturday last to deal with another violator of the County by-law with respect to peddling without a license. In this instance Charles James was the offender, and was fined $12.00 with costs, $2.25.

Mr. Wilson McMullen, west bank line, moved last week into his handsome new residence which has taken the place of the old one destroyed by fire in March last. The building, which is of red brick, laid in dark mortar, presents a fine appearance. It is finished throughout in good style and the heating is by furnace.

Word was received last week by Mrs. (Dr.) Carter of severe injuries sustained by her mother, Mrs. P. R. Fulton, Woodstock, whether she had recently gone on a visit. Mrs. P. R.'s friends here are sorry to learn of her misfortune, but hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. Sangster Hemphill, of Ceylon, has also erected a handsome new residence, into which he is moving his family this week. The building, which is of cement block, is modern in style and the workmanship throughout, much of which was done by Mr. Hemphill himself, is of the best. The new structure is an ornament to our sister village.

Mr. John Brown, of this place, received the sad news on Saturday of the death at Palmerston of his brother-in-law, Mr. Andrew Caswell, who has frequently visited Mr. Brown and family. Mr. Caswell was one of the very highly respected pioneers of Minto township, but retired from the farm about six years ago to reside in Palmerston. Mr. Caswell was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and served in the office of elder forty years. He assisted in building the first Presbyterian church—a log building—in Palmerston nearly fifty years ago.

The annual band meeting was held in the town hall on Friday evening last at which there was a good attendance and much interest manifested in the local organization, which had a successful year. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mark Wilson; Vice-Pres., T. A. Blakeley; Manager, John Runstadler; Sec.-Treas., C. H. Munshaw; Bandmaster, Fred Tucker; Auditors, W. H. Thurston, W. J. Bellamy. Mr. Bert Green's moving picture show, which is reported very fine, will exhibit under the auspices of the band in the town hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Repeat it—"Shiloh's Cure" will always cure my coughs and colds."

A woman should never marry a man to reform him until she can make a satisfactory omelet out of bad eggs.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell preached a splendid temperance sermon to a large congregation here Sunday afternoon. Members of Sons of Temperance and Loyal Crusaders of this place attended in a body.

Mr. Herb Baker, of Collingwood, is visiting his brother, Ed., here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buchanan took a trip to Clarksburg last week.

Mrs. Harris and Miss Eva, of Wodehouse, visited over Sunday at Mr. Wm. Buchanan's.

(By another correspondent.) Miss Boland visited in Markdale over Sunday and was the guest of Miss Smith.

We are sorry to report Mrs. M. Beard on the sick list again, but hope for her early recovery.

The Vandeur school concert will be held Dec. 21. A good program is being prepared.

Temperance Division met on Friday evening last with a large attendance. Five new members were initiated. They have decided to have an open meeting on Friday, Dec. 11. A splendid program is under preparation. Particulars next week.

The young people of the neighborhood were invited to the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Waring for tea on Wednesday evening of last week. The table was tastefully decorated with ferns and fairly groaned with good things, in Squire Stuart returned home from Parry Sound District recently and will spend the winter here.

We are informed that Mr. J. M. Davis will be a candidate for the Deputy Reeve'ship, and we would not be surprised to see J. M. occupy a seat in the 1909 council.

Mrs. Lightfoot, of Toronto, visited friends here recently, and was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Plewes.

One of the best temperance sermons ever delivered in Kimberley was that delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. R. Wilkinson, in the Methodist church on Sunday morning last.

Mr. Joseph Young, a travelling salesman, met with a rather painful accident on Saturday afternoon last. It appears that Mr. Young had just opened the gate leading into Mr. Joseph Ferris' and while picking up the lines to drive his team and vehicle through, by mistake pulled the wrong line, thus turning the horses suddenly sideways; which caused the heavy rig to pass over one of Mr. Young's legs, breaking one of the bones between the ankle and knee.

Dr. Brown, of Markdale, reduced the fracture and the old gentleman is getting along as well as can be expected at the home of Mr. J. Ferris, where he will receive the very best of care.

Messrs. Merwyn Haskett and Elmer Tuck, of Markdale, last week put in a furnace in the basement of Mr. F. J. Weber's store. They certainly did a good job and anyone wanting a furnace installed will certainly make no mistake in securing the services of the above young men.

TRAVERTON

The farmers did a deal of plowing last week and it turned smoothly. The soaking showers of Monday will prove a great boon to many, as wells were very low and many creeks quite dry.

Miss Bessie Weir, student, of Durham, was the guest of Miss Olive Cook from Saturday till Monday.

Mr. John McNally, of the 6th con., received word from his brother, Will, in Saskatchewan, that he had purchased an 800-acre farm there for $10,000. Will was able to bank $2000 this year on a rented farm.

Herbie Peters, who went to Manitoba on the harvest excursion, has recently hunted up his uncle, Mr. Norman Martin, in North Dakota. The latter owns 1400 acres there of fine land, has over 20 horses and is what Genselgers would term "a man of wealth."

A group from here took in the soiree at Glenelg Centre Baptist church on Friday evening and report having a most enjoyable time. Zion's wood is obtained quite free. Some bring a load; but the majority went to a wood-bench in Mr. W. L. Falkingham's woods on Saturday afternoon and cut, split and piled about ten cords. W. L. gave the timber gratis and received a most hearty vote of thanks for his generosity.

A goodly company gathered in Zion on Saturday night and made arrangements for the annual Xmas. Tree concert to be held on Xmas. Eve. The programme is already well under way.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Items of General Interest From The Standard of Dec. 6, 1883.

Wm. Condy has gone to Kimberley to run a hotel.

Mrs. Thomas, of Dundalk, a rather weak-minded woman, poisoned herself on Friday evening.

Mr. Hanna, of Flesherton, has purchased the Durham and Flesherton stage line, and has employed Mr. W. J. Strain as driver.

Mr. Wilson Benson, of the Belfast House (wholesale liquor and grocery establishment) has sold his business together with stand and buildings for $3000 cash to Mr. Thos. McNea, who has taken possession.

A scheme to extend the G. B. & W. Ry. to the Georgian Bay by a line from Durham to Meaford via Markdale was talked of at the Meaford council meeting by Mr. McMullen, M.P. No definite action was taken.

The gymnasium club, which was organized in Markdale months ago, is now in a flourishing condition, and we are pleased to see that the young men of Markdale can find something profitable to engage themselves in in the evening.

The storm last Wednesday night did more damage than was at first known, the most serious loss in this neighborhood occurring in Glenelg, when Mr. Henry Lawrence had his fine barn, which was only erected this summer, blown down.

Mr. Joe T. Clark left Durham on Tuesday last, after serving an apprenticeship of nearly four years in the Review office. His presence will be missed among the boys and young men of the town with whom he was a general favorite.—Grey Review.

In honor of Master Elmer's birthday. After all had finished tea, Miss T. Buchanan proposed a toast to Master Elmer, and she hoped his birthdays would be as golden milestones. Then Miss E. C. Boland proposed one to Mr. and Mrs. Waring, who were entertaining the young people so beautifully, and Miss M. Verney then proposed one to Mr. Dunlop of Toronto, who was visiting at Mr. Waring's. Mr. Dunlop replied in a few well chosen words. After each toast the chorus, "For they are jolly good fellows" was taken up by all present. Several toasts were then proposed to the young ladies and gentlemen, after which the evening was spent in games, and all went home after having a genuine good time.

ARK YOUR JOINTS LAME? Haven't you a weak spot, a place where cold and inflammation always settles? Whether it is in the neck, joints or limbs—the cure is simple—a good rub with Nerviline and then apply Nerviline Porous Plaster. These great rubefacients invariably cure strain, swelling, weakness and muscular pain. There is no mystery about this. Nerviline is the most penetrating liniment known—consequently it gets where the trouble really is. Nerviline Porous Plasters are great healers and draw out congestion. Be sure you get the genuine, substitutes can't do the work.
