KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

March came in like a lion, so thus, according to the old saying, will go out like a lamb.

Mrs. John Randle, of Meaford, is the guest of her brother, Mr. George Proctor.

Miss Gertrude Caesar, of Markdale, is the guest of her friend, Miss Edith Hammond.

In the absence of the pastor on Sunday night last the pulpit in the Methodist church was filled by Mr. Wm. Favcett, of Epping.

Mr and Mrs. John Proctor and baby of Redwing, were recent visitors at Mrs. P. parental home, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wallace, 'Riverside'

Mr. W. T. Ellis, who was elected reeve of Euphrasia at the last municipal election and who was reported to have a majority of 35, has since found out that his majority was 86. In the returns from what is known as the Cherry Grove Polling Sub-division, Mr. Ellis was credited with 12 votes and Mr. Miller 37, which was found out to be the reverse, Ellis 37, Miller 12, thus the increase in Mr. Ellis' majority. The mistake of the D.R.O. was unintentional.

Miss Nellie Wickens, who has spent a few weeks with Flesherton friends, returned home this week.

Mr. Geo. Hutchinson and daughter, Miss Rachel, visited Proton friends during the past week.

Mrs. F. Harris and daughter Eva, of Wodehouse, visited friends here during the past week and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harris.

A hockey team from Meaford accompanied by a number of rotors played a game with the locals here Friday night last which resulted in victory for the lakeside boys. Score 6-1.

Mr. Gerald Wallace visited Redwing friends recently. Success Gerald.

Mr. Ernest Proctor visited Meaford friends last week.

Mr. Jasier Gilbert and Miss Sadie Favcett visited Duncan friends recently.

BEAVERDALE

Fine weather and good sleighing. Sledging is the order of the day.
