GORING

Wedding bells are ringing.

Mrs. James Burgess, of Wiarton, is visiting friends here, the guest of Mrs. P. Sparling.

Willie Miller, of Beaverdale, is engaged with Mr. John Breadner for the summer.

Mr. John Bartley has completed his contract of sawlogging to Holland Centre. John is a hustler.

Mr. Alfred was a caller in our bury recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bradley are now settled on the Thomas Yeadell farm. We welcome them.

Mr. A. Gowat, of Hillsburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Manarey.

UNEQUALLED AS A CURE FOR CROUP

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a cure for croup," says Harry Wilson, of Waynetown, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by R. L. Stephen.

MANY DOWN WITH PLEURISY.

Doctors say the country is full of it. First comes a chill, then cold develops—the inflammation grows—you can't draw a long breath—lungs and sides get sore, and pleurisy sets in.

Miss E. Best left for Dromore on Thursday, where she will spend a few days.

Mr. G. Ludlow is canvassing for the cheese factory.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Montgomery, of Dundalk, Sundayed at Mr. Gallagher's.

UNDALK

A hustle at the last moment had to be made in the churches for the old dusty smoky strong smelling coal oil lamps. There wasn't much light on the sermons.

Mrs. Malcolm McIntyre of Dundalk, had a narrow escape from a bad runaway accident a short time ago.

While driving home from Dundalk with the McIntyre man, a runaway horse overtook her and ran into her cutter upsetting it. Very luckily, she was able to miss being trampled by the furious beast.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Edgerton entered the scene of a very happy and pleasant wedding on Monday, Mar.

when their third daughter, Grace, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Donald, a prosperous young far mer of Conn. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. Jas. Buchanan.

The bride assisted by Rev. H.

Stull, of Conn, in the presence of many guests.

The complaint of some neighbors about noise in James Fachnie, a far mer who at times is of unsound mind. It appears that Fachnie is living under the delusion that the grits and tories are preparing for war, and when in this state

he carries a gun in order for his readiness. He has never been shot, but people have reason to be afraid.

An examination was held by

Police Magistrate McGreevy

on Monday. The both local docto rs gave evidence as to his mental condition.

Application is being made for his admission to the asylum.

In the meantime Fachnie is held in custody here.

He is to be tried on March 28th.
