MAN NOT NEEDED NOW. Home-Made Mixture is Easily Prepared, and Cures Weak Kidneys and Bladder.

There is a simple home-made mixture given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement that it will cure almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Catarrh is reached. He states that the symptoms as lame back, pain at the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Rupp Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A well-known druggist here in Ontario is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and well mixed at home by shaking in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This treatment is said to remove all blood poisons and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to system all uric acid and fowl, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescrip-

Farm Crop Experiments

The members of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union are pleased to state that for 1909 they are prepared to distribute into every township of Ontario material of high quality for experiments with fodder crops, roots, grains, clovers and fertilizers, as follows: No. Experiments Plots. 1—Three varieties of Oats..... 3 2—Three varieties of Six-rowed Barley..... 3 2b—Two varieties of Two-rowed Barley..... 2 3—Two varieties of Hullless Barley..... 2 4—Two varieties Spring Wheat..... 2 5—Two varieties Buckwheat..... 2 6—Two varieties Field Peas..... 2 7—Emmer and Spelt..... 2 8—Two varieties of Soy, Soja, or Japanese Beans..... 2 9—Three varieties Husking Corn..... 3 10—Three varieties Mangels..... 3 11—Two varieties Sugar Beets for feeding purposes..... 2 12—Three varieties of Swedish Turnips..... 3 13—Two varieties Fall Turnips..... 2 14—Two varieties Carrots..... 2 15—Three varieties of Fodder or Silage Corn..... 3 16—Three varieties of Millet..... 3 17—Two varieties of Sorghum..... 2 18—Grass Peas and two varieties of Vetches..... 3 19—Rape, Kale and Field Cabbage..... 3 20—Three varieties of Clover..... 3 21—Testing two varieties of Alfalfa (Lucerne)..... 2 22—Two varieties of Grasses..... 4 23—Three varieties Field Beans..... 3 24—Three varieties Sweet Corn..... 3 25—Fertilizers with Swedish Turnips..... 6 27—Sowing Mangels on the level and in drills..... 2 28a—Two varieties of Early potatoes..... 2 28b—Two varieties of medium ripening Potatoes..... 2 28c—Two varieties late Potatoes..... 2 24—Three grain mixtures for grain production..... 3 30—Three mixtures of Grasses & Clover, for hay..... 3 Each plot is to be two rods long by one rod wide except No. 28, which is to be one rod square. Any person in Ontario may choose any ONE of the experiments for 1909 and apply for the same. The material will be furnished in the order in which the applications are received while the supply lasts. It might be well for each applicant to make a second choice, for fear the first could not be granted. All material will be furnished entirely free of charge to each applicant, and the produce will, of course, become the property of the person who conducts the experiment. A. ZAVITZ, Director, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, March, 1909.

A STARTLING REVELATION

The Friends of Miss Mary McKenzie, of London, were astonished to hear that She Had Gone Into Consumption. This sad intelligence came as a shock to Miss McKenzie's many friends. In the early fall she contracted a heavy cold which developed rapidly into Catarrh, and finally made such rapid advances that the bronchial tubes and lungs became affected. Although the doctors said nothing short of a change of residence to the south would benefit, on the advice of a Dundas Street druggist, Miss McKenzie decided to thoroughly test Catarrhzone, which is warranted to cure all diseases of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes. Miss McKenzie says: "After my druggist had recommended Catarrhzone I spoke to my friends about it and they all said it was such a good remedy that I commenced forthwith to inhale it five or six times each day. I breathed it deeply into my lungs, and felt its beneficial action very quickly." It seemed to go where other remedies did not reach, and was so pleasant and convenient that I did not mind using it very frequently, which, probably, was the cause of it curing my obstinate case so quickly. Certainly no case of Catarrh or Bronchitis should go uncured if the sufferer can get Catarrhzone, which is a sovereign remedy, worthy of the highest recommendations." Miss McKenzie's case needs no enlargement. She was in a critical condition, apparently beyond the aid of doctor's medicines. Catarrhzone has cured her, and others in her condition should no longer experiment with uncertain, untried treatments, but should turn at once to Catarrhzone, and in it they will find relief and cure unobtainable by any other means. Remember the name, Catarrhzone. Complete outfit guaranteed to cure. Price $1.00. Small size 50 cents. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

NEEDLESS ALARM.

No sooner is the question of the relative merits of masculine and feminine teachers in our schools disposed of in one quarter than it bobs up serenely in another. Like the years of the now venerable Ann, there seems to be no solution of the problem, and the lists are always open for new entries. The latest authority to commit himself is President G. Stanley Hall of Clark University, who, according to the reports, sees the complete feminization of the male sex if something is not done immediately to inject more masculinity into the school-room. With 76 per cent of the teachers women, he fears the worst. But there is likely to be disagreement with President Hall on one point by the very class in whose interest he has spoken. While the boy in school may admit that the textbook has decayed alarmingly in the last ten years, and may have a sneaking wish that this decay might result in the early destruction of the entire brood of school books; while he may feel that boisterousness and roughness are just as much a part of the early training of the child as are chicken pox and whooping cough, he will protest long and loud against the intimation that a good cudgelling now and then would work wonders in improving the breed of the men of the next generation, and will object with equal vigor to the application of President Hall's theory that long vacations are no better than truancy, and that the school year should be extended to forty-six weeks. While no grown man will admit that the present generation of boys is quite as good as the one from which he sprang, owing, perhaps, to the different angle from which childhood is viewed in youth and in manhood, we are inclined to agree with that member of the Chicago Board of Education, who insists that in these days of fierce contests on the gridiron, with every youth in the institution which the eleven represents straining every nerve to win such a mark in his studies as will entitle him to a place on the team if he can get it, and with wildly enthusiastic crowds of from twenty-five to fifty thousand persons paying high prices for the privilege of witnessing a game of football, there is no immediate danger of the complete mollicodding of the race. We can almost agree, after observing various specimens of that ever present breed, that "the general run of boys might be called tough," and wish that in individual cases, at least, "there were a little more feminization." But President Hall may console himself with the reflection that the present generation of boys, when it reaches the professional state, will look upon the following generation with the same misgivings that he now bestows upon the boys of the present time. The human race has had a long time in which to degenerate, but on the whole we think it is a little more than holding its own.

STARTLING STATEMENT.

It's Statements Like That of H. Heyman, Kingston, Ont., that Is Making Mi-o-na World Famous for Obstinate Stomach Complaint. Mr. H. Heyman, 132 Colbourne Street, Kingston, Ont., says: "Mi-o-na is worth its weight in gold as a remedy to quickly cure all long-standing cases of dyspepsia. For years I had suffered with my stomach and could find no cure, not even relief. I could not eat anything, as it would sour and form gas on my stomach that had a pressure on the heart. Heavy pains would come around my sides and pit of my stomach. I was unable to sleep for this and there was nothing to relieve my miserable condition. I was weak and languid and would feel as tired in the morning as on going to bed and perspiration would break out all over my body. I would be so weak from vomiting that I would fall to my knees. My head would ache and spells of dizziness would leave me unable to see. Doctors had termed the trouble gastritis, but failed to benefit me. I tried Mi-o-na, which I procured at a drug store on advice of a friend, which has cured me when all else failed. I am sound and well and feel grateful to Mi-o-na for my present health." It's the known results obtained by Mi-o-na that places it far away and above all other remedies and confirms W. Turner & Co. in offering to refund the money if Mi-o-na fails to cure stomach trouble. 50 cents a box. Relief in twenty-four hours.

Your name in reference to corn has been received. I do not remember the name of any variety of Mammoth Black Early Flint Corn. This is a variety that I have not noticed in any of the Seed Catalogues. Probably it is one which has been sold by travelling agents. Yours truly, C. A. Zavitz, Guelph, Ont., Mar. 15, 1909. In reply to your inquiry of Mar. 8th, I regret that the variety of corn you mention, "Mammoth Black Early Flint," is unknown to my section of the county.
