LIFE SAVED.

Our baby was old, had a bad case of dysentery. We thought both of them would die. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured him, and saved his life.—Mrs. Carbon Hill, Ont. We doubt but this is the lives of many babies. Give it with according to the plain and a cure is sure. For sale by R. L. Stephen.

TAKE A VACATION.

When it is the time to take a vacation get out into the woods, fields mountains and visit the seashore but do not forget to take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained on railroad trains or steamships. It is too much of a risk for anyone to leave home on a journey without it. For sale by R. L. Stephen.

A cackling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by W. Turner & Co.

A FAREWELL GATHERING

The Methodist church Epworth League meeting last Monday evening developed into a farewell for the pastor, Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, and family, who move this week to their new charge at Huntsville. The Missionary Forward Movement was the topic and Rev. J. R. Wilkinson, of Rocklyn, gave an excellent and much appreciated address on the importance of a definite aim, and a practical effort to secure results. During the progress of the meeting a couple of quartettes were given by Messrs. Chas. Pickell, J. C. Kentner, J. A. Erskine and A. Littlejohns, the second by former three and Rev. Mr. Wilson, both of which were well rendered Miss McKee presiding at the instrument. At the conclusion of the program a decidedly social hour was spent by the large assembly which filled the spacious lecture room. The company was quite representative and included a fair sprinkling from sister churches. The splendid gathering was most spontaneous as no announcement had been made for such. During the progress of the free and easy, sociable time the audience was called to order by M. Armstrong, Esq., who stated the object of the gathering, after which three-minute impromptu speeches were given by Messrs. Wilkinson, H. D. McLoughry, Dr. Sproule, M.P., John Chard, W. L. Young and C. W. Rutledge, all briefly reviewing the four-year term now closing and highly complimentary to the retiring pastor and his estimable wife and tendering good wishes for their future. Mr. Wilson replied feelingly in a most grateful and appreciative manner, and thus the eventful but harmonious pastoral term was auspiciously and pleasantly terminated, the company singing heartily "God be with you, etc." the choir leading.

IN TROUBLE.

Bert Sells, a gipsy, charged with abusing his wife, who is in a delicate condition, was brought before Police Magistrate Rutherford at Shelburne on Monday. The court took a lenient view of the squabble and let Sells out on the condition that he made arrangements for the care of his wife. He was to appear on Tuesday at 1 o'clock and report what he had done. Instead of waiting and doing what he was ordered he cleared out on Monday night and was arrested again in Orangeville on Tuesday. Constable Laverty brought him to Shelburne on Tuesday evening and as the constable was opening the lock-up door the handcuffed prisoner made a break for liberty but was caught at the Berwick elevator. He did not take his wife with him when he left on Monday night. On Wednesday he was fined $10.00 for contempt of court and this with the other fine and costs amount to $23.00. If not paid, Sells will spend a month in the Orangeville jail.—Shelburne Free Press.

TO STOP A CRYING BABY.

It may be cramps, perhaps colic pain or gas on the stomach—but, in any case a few drops of Nerviline soothes the pain and allows the child to sleep peacefully. Nerviline cures minor ills such as colds, headache, internal and external pains as well as any doctor—safe to use because a small dose is required. Mothers, you will find Nerviline an invaluable aid in preventing and curing sickness. Keep a bottle right at hand; some day you will need it badly. Sold everywhere at 25c.
