CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY WOULD HAVE SAVED HIM $100.00

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar, of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 I believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by R. L. Stephen.

Patty Ryan Demands Her Rights; Or, The Assessor's Visit.

(Mrs. Mary J. Balch.)
"A foine mornin', sor, 'oh, yis, you're the sassor. You've come to see what the place is worth, so as to be able to say how much taxes I must pay. I'll not pay a cent, bad luck to yees."

"Yis, the place belongs to Patty Ryan, but that's mesself, and I earned ivry dollar of it over the wash tub; fed and clothed and educated me four children and mesself; for I wanted to be able to tache them and didn't want them to be ashamed of their mother and I wanted to read their laws and write to me ould father and mither in Ireland, and for these raisins I learned to read and write. I did it all sor, while—"

"Yis, Patty Ryan is the husband; we were married by the praste and no divorce law can untie the knot—we tuk each other for better or for worse."

"Yis, yis, sir, Patty's a citizen, naturalized, and all that, and has the papers, but that's mesself. You say me husband is Patrick, plain Patrick, and moine is Patty. I weiz christened wid these names, yer honor, but I oiten toimes spakes 'in tenderness of him as Patty, too, for he's clever spoken, drunk or sober. Will I explain mesself? Indade an' I will. It was the city election. The political bosses come to our house one mornin' before breakfast and told Patrick they was needin' votes mighty bad, an' if he would vote their ticket they'd git his papers and it shouldn't cost him a cent. And when they come to git Pat to sign the papers he was drunk as usual. Yis, papers is so handy, and was in no condition to sign his name, and never had done more than make his mark on paper and his mark in the police courts, bein' up many toimes in the year for plain drunks, why, the country boards him at laste three months of the year."

"And the gentleman said, Mrs. Ryan, can yez write? Sign the paper, that's a good woman, for ye's husband," and I did, sor, and I wrote me own name sure enough. And it's mesself that was naturalized, made a citizen, and it stands to rasin that it was the right to do. There is no paper, sor, that Patrick could sign that would make him natural—he's most unnatural, sor; full of bad whiskey ivry day, but ye's gits the revenoo and daren't complain."

"At first they spake of it as a joke and of me as Ryan, and complimented me for bein' a lady entirely, but when I went to the polls and demanded me right to vote and axed them to remember that my name was signed to the tax roll and not once on the police docket, while Pat's was on the police docket and minny a tax bill, and that I was a useful member of society and dacent and well behaved, and had given to the state two honest, hard-working sons and two gentale daughters, and not one of them iver disgraced the country's flag, and it was me right to vote, being taxed and expected to obey the law."

"They ordered me off for an old meddlesome woman intirely out of me place. No doubt ye's'll send me to a loonatic asylum, as that's where ye's classes wimmen. I rebel, just as ye's did when King George taxed ye widout representation, and ye's can take yerself off, sor, for I'll protect meself and me home from sich injustice, and if ye's provokes me too much ye shall have moighty little arguement left for yer side of the question. Publish it from Dan to Bershaba that Mrs. Ryan will pay no taxes unless she's allowed to vote."

Murdock--Daniel.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Daniel, Durham, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when, at one o'clock their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, became the bride of Mr. John N. Murdock, of Durham, son of Mrs. Murdock, of Markdale.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. L. Newton, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, took place on the lawn at the front of the house under an arch of evergreens, where at the appointed hour the groom took his stand. Immediately afterwards, to the strains of the Wedding March, played by Mrs. Newton, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away, emerged from the house and took her place beside the man of her choice. She was gowned in a dainty dress of blue silk, and wore a bridal wreath and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The ceremony over a few minutes were spent in extending congratulations to the newly married couple, when the couple repaired to the house and sat down to a daintily and well prepared wedding dinner, to which all did full justice.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdock left that same afternoon on the 3.52 train, amid showers of rice and the best wishes of their many friends who had gathered at the station, on a short honeymoon trip to Toronto and Hamilton.

On their return home on Monday evening a wedding reception was given for them at the home of the bride's parents, to which about one hundred of their friends were invited. The evening was most enjoyably spent in games and social intercourse, and in listening to selections by the 3rd Regimental Band, which had been engaged for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdock will make their home here and will occupy the Keeler residence on Garafra street.

Popular individually, the marriage of these two young people attracted more than passing notice, as was shown by the large number of beautiful and costly presents received by them, and the Chronicle adds its heartiest congratulations to those of their many friends in wishing them a long life and a happy one.—Durham Chronicle.

RIVERDALE

Sultry weather at present. Mr. J. Boales, of Markdale, visited this vicinity last week.

Our successful angler, Mr. Kirby, is the guest of Mr. J. Faulkner for a few days.

Mr. J. Lawson & Co., of Wodehouse, are at present engaged in building a stone foundation for Mr. James Wiley.

Mr. Will and Miss Kate Dickie, of Cherry Grove, accompanied by Miss Sadie Fletcher, the esteemed school mistress of that vicinity, were genial callers at Riverdale centre one evening recently.

A number of Wodehouseites passed through this vicinity on Friday evening last en route for Markdale. We have pleasure in congratulating the boys on their success as football players.

The garden party held at the beautifully situated home of Mr. Thos. Wright on Friday evening last was one of the most pleasant occasions of the season. The weather was perfectly delightful and the sweet, harmonious musical notes of the proficient vocalists and Markdale's up-to-date silver band were much enjoyed, while delicious libbles and a learned and eloquent address by the Rev. Thos. Laidlaw of Eugenia was immensely enjoyed by all.

A failing tiny nerve—no larger than the finest silken thread—takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The Stomach also has its hidden, or inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or falling stomach, heart or kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed straight for the cause of these ailments—these weak and faltering inside nerves. This, no doubt clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity. Druggists say that those who test the Restorative even for a few days soon become fully convinced of its wonderful merit. Any way, don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by W. Turner & Co.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

(Thornbury Reflector.)
At the Methodist Church Quarterly Board, on Monday, May 10, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Moved by Mr. George Couler, and seconded by Mr. M. Snetsinger—That this Quarterly Official Board desires to place on record our most hearty appreciation of the services of our beloved pastor, Brother Joseph Young, and the very high esteem in which he and his most excellent wife are held by us. For nearly four years they have labored among us and we have learned to esteem them highly in love, not only for their works' sake but also for their many other beautiful qualities. Their christian life and department has been an inspiration to us, so that we have been helped and blessed not only by precept but by Godly example as well. We regret that according to our itinerant system and by the fiat of Conference our very agreeable relationship as pastor and people will soon be severed and they will be called to another field of labor. We earnestly pray that the blessing of the most High God which maketh rich and addeth no sorrow, may rest upon them both in their new field as it has rested on them here, and may their pathway be ever blessed. We have learned to esteem them highly in love, not only for their works' sake but also for their many other beautiful qualities. of the remainder of life be as bright as the just, shining more and more even unto the perfect day. Witnessed on behalf of the Quarterly Board, this 10th day of May, 1909.

CATARRH!

MOTHER OF CONSUMPTION.

This dread disease may be prevented and cured. The opinions of people who have been cured by Catarrhazone.

Catarrhazone is very often spoken of as the mother of consumption, because when unchecked it extends its place of beginning to the lungs, and finally the disease becomes consumption of the lungs. The most and best remedy for Catarrh is Catarrhazone. It is inhaled to all parts of the breathing organs, kills the bacteria and drives it completely out of the system.

Mary J. Whitney, of Clay City, Topeka, Kansas, was cured of catarrh after twenty years suffering by Catarrhazone.

Give to Catarrhazone an implicit faith. It cured Catarrh of the most disagreeable kind after doctors with number had pronounced me incurable. My breath is pure, my respiratory regular, and I cough any more since using Catarrhazone. It has cured me of it.

Another case of Chronic Catarrh was cured quickly by Catarrhazone. It is that of Mr. G. I. Luce, of Navasota Street, Austin, Texas. Mr. Luce says:

"I tried for four years to get rid of my Catarrh, used salt douches, gargles, tablets, stomach medicine, etc., but they didn't do me any good."

When I tried Catarrhazone, it gave me relief in a few hours. It was in a week, so that I never had a recurrence of my former trouble.

Miss Winer, who resides on May Street, in Hartford, Conn., was cured of throat trouble by Catarrhazone, and speaks of her recovery in the following words:

"Repeated colds finally resulted in Catarrh of the condition of my throat and I suffered more or less every day and fall. Catarrhazone was the only remedy that relieved and cured me. I recommend it."

"Treatment is so good for throat affections and Bronchitis, Catarrhazone. Its success is unequalled in the history of medicine. It will cure you quickly, surely, and is well worth a try. Two months' treatment is all that is needed to cure, price $1.00; size 50c. Druggists or N. C. Turner & Co., Kingston, Ont. Buy today."

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women there is a kind remedy to help. But with that, two remedies must be combined. One is local, one is general, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
