"Have you a plain cook?" "You bet she is. My wife would not have any other kind in the house."

Run 'Er Up.

(Owen Sound Sun.) And what about that stub train on the Walkerton branch of the C. P. R.? That four-hour wait at Saugeen Junction could be cut out, and Owen Sound's connection with the south of the County improved if the company would let that train run up to Owen Sound, instead of having it sit on the siding waiting for the next train from Toronto. Can the C.P.R. not be induced to consider it?

HON. A. G. MacKAY HOME FROM WEST

Opposition Leader Speaks Highly of That Country—Thinks Next Session Will Be Short

(Toronto Telegram)

"There's no reason why the business of the House should not be completed by Easter," said Hon. A. G. MacKay, leader of the Opposition, Monday morning. "They are starting early and they should finish early and it won't be my fault if they don't. Matters have not dragged owing to the Opposition in the past and they will do as long as I'm leader."

SESSION LIGHT.

"By the forecast I'm of the opinion that there'll be a very light session, in fact I cannot see anything of paramount importance on the list. What might take up considerable time though, is the question of providing an adequate system of taxation for corporations operating public utilities. That will have to be thoroughly dealt with."
