KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

Mr. Wm. Walter left this week for Toronto where he has accepted a position at the Parliament Buildings during the present session.

Messrs. Harold Saul, of Toronto, Roy Fawcett and Clarence Cruickshanks, of Heathcote, were the guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fawcett, on Monday night of this week.

If you want to see the best masquerade carnival of the season come to Kimberley on Friday night of this week.

We are pleased to report that Miss Olive Gilbert, who has been on the sick list, is now recovering.

License Inspector Halbert, of Markdale, was a caller in our burg on Monday of this week.

Quite a large number of people hereabouts appear quite indignant to think that Markdale did not carry Local Option. The same people think that it would be only right to stop trading there. We think not; but we do think that the temperance people should only patronize those business men that supported Local Option.

Mr. Jasper Stuart left last week for Elk Lake to look after his real estate interests in that town. Jasper will also visit other important centres in the silver country.

Mr. Edward Fawcett, of Heathcote, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning last.

As practically all of last year's hockey team are out of town or out of the game, we will not have a hockey team this season.

While aiding in the felling of a tree last week, Mr. Leslie Lawrence was struck on the body with a flying limb. Fortunately Les was not badly hurt and was able to resume his work in the course of a few days.

The members of the Local Court C.D.F. together with their wives and sweethearts, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Myles (Springbrook) one evening recently to spend a social hour with Mr. and Mrs. Myles, and presented them with a handsome rocking chair accompanied by the following address:

Kimberley, Jan. 7, 1910. Dear Mr. and Mrs. Myles, We, your brother Foresters, have with our families, gathered at your home to-night for the purpose of spending a social evening together. We certainly appreciate your kindness in allowing us to take possession of your large and cheery home. Feeling that we cannot depart without expressing our appreciation not only on this occasion but many others, and also to help you remember this pleasant evening spent together we ask you to accept this rocking chair and trust you will enjoy many hours of solid comfort therein.

Signed on behalf of the C.O.F. Court Kimberley. Wilfred A. Walter. Recd. Sec.

ROCKLYN Skating and hockey matches are the order of the day.

The best game of the season was played on Monday, the 17th on our rink between Markdale and Rocklyn. At half time it was a tie, and when time was called the score stood 7-6 in favor of Markdale.

Mrs. Thornton, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned home.

A sleighload from Wodehouse attended the rink on Tuesday evening. We hope to see them again in the near future.

Miss Maud Hubbard is visiting her cousin, Miss Freda Crabtree. We are pleased to see such a goodly number out to Bible Class, Thursday evening. We hope that many others will come, as Mr. Wilkinson makes the lessons very interesting.

Mrs. Riddell is visiting her niece, Mrs. (Dr.) Williams.

PROTON STATION Mr. and Mrs. James Ryder, of Toronto, are visiting at Mr. J. C. Wright's.

Miss Ida Binnie, Flesherston, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Maud Stevens spent Sunday at Victoria Corners.

Mr. Thomas Ryder, Toronto, is visiting Proton friends.

Mr. R. A. Neilson is visiting at his home in Toronto.

The young people of Proton had a ball in Mr. English's Hall Friday evening. A good time was spent by all.

Mrs. Jas. Quinn, Bethel, visited her sister, Mrs. C. Lyons, on Friday.

Miss Hannah Lyons gave a party to a few of her friends on Friday evening. All enjoyed themselves immensely.

Robert McMaster, a respected farmer near Cookstown, was struck and instantly killed by a falling tree.
