Among those who visited friends in the city last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Mrs. Jos. Blackburn, Mrs. Mark Wilson, Mrs. R. H. Wright, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Blackburn attended the Mendelssohn concert and enjoyed the rich musical treat.

Artemesia Council met on Monday and the auditors on the accounts of 1909 presented their report, the abstract of which is as follows: Receipts—Cash on hand, Jan. 1, 1908, $2,714.16; fines $25.00; debentures $1388.54; loans $2000; miscellaneous $149; total $23,622.90. Total, $23,622.90. The receipts for the year were $2402 less than the former year and the expenditure $1879 less. The receipts of Flesherton Police Village were $1015.02, and expenditure $1004.82, of which $200.67 was paid as village's proportion of township expenses. Pricieville's receipts were $437.70, and expenditures $209.25, of which $66.30 went to township expenditure. The new trustees to be appointed by the council for the Continuation School here were appointed as follows: D. McTavish, one year; John McMillan, two years; John Boland, three years. Those appointed by County Council are John Weber, one year; J. S. Wilson, two years; Thos. Henry, three years.

The annual meeting of Chalmers Church was held on Thursday afternoon last, and considering the inclement weather the attendance was very good. The meeting was harmonious and notwithstanding the lack of a settled pastor for seven months the work of the congregation was shown to have been kept well up and the spirit of hopefulness prevailed. Mr. J. F. Chard opened the meeting with devotional exercises, after which Mr. J. L. McMullen, chairman of the Board, presented the report, which showed seven new members received during the year and a like number removed, leaving 128 on the roll as formerly. Special reference was made to the removal of two by death, namely, Mrs. McKee sr., and Mr. J. M. Duncan. The auditors' report, presented by Mr. Charles Stewart, and adopted, showed the congregation to have had a successful year. After meeting all liabilities a substantial balance remained on hand in each department. The receipts on general account were $693.99; on building account $54.99; Ladies Aid $255.68; Sabbath School $85.64; the Guild $31.81; making a total of $1124.40, an increase of $21.00 over the former year. The Ladies Aid were shown to have on hand in addition to a good balance on general account, $183.00 on Organ fund. The question of higher stipend was discussed and it was resolved that in order to make the stipend of the charge in future $850.00 or more, Chalmers Church increase $50.00, provided the associated congregations contribute as formerly, and an increase hoped for. Mr. J. L. McMullen was re-elected chairman of the Managing Board and Messrs. W. L. Wright, Malcolm Ferguson and Price Teeter, retiring members of the Board, were re-elected, as were also the auditors, Messrs. Chas. Stewart and G. H. Cairns; the Secretary-Treasurer Mr. Jos. Blackburn and the Organist, Mrs. Blackburn.

"Every Man For His Own Country."

Ladner, B.C. Feb. 7, 1910.
 Editor Standard:
 Preceding publications, extolling the merits of Grey county, call forth a few notes of comparison from a former resident of that county, but now of B. C. I was born and raised near Markdale, and while I am proud of my birthplace, I would like to tell you something of the advantages of this country over that.

For the next two months, while we have warm sunshine, green fields and singing birds, you have deep snow and severe weather, plowing the roads to make them passable, while we plow our fields and prepare for seeding. We have not had two inches of snow this winter, and I do not expect any more. To-day the same bees were out in large numbers around their hives.

In Ontario the tendency is for people to leave the farms for the cities and towns; but here it is the reverse. The lot of the farmer is envied by the business men in town, and even the ministers. The Delta here had become a wonderful country since I was here fourteen years ago. The soil is very productive, yielding from 108 to 125 bushels of oats per acre, and from four to five tons of hay. Past achievements prove that the people of the Delta municipality are progressive and bound to keep abreast with the times. The whole waterfront has been thoroughly dyked to protect the land from the ocean and swelling freshets of the Fraser River, making adequate drainage for the soil.

The beautiful country residences and lawns would compare with any in the cities. The markets are always in advance of Ontario markets. The "hello apparatus" is used in many country homes, also electric lights, and a by-law has already passed to raise $135,000 to install waterworks, and within twelve months we expect to have the pure spring water from East Delta Springs ready and convenient in all the houses of Delta municipality. There are no less than fifteen former residents of Euphrasia here at present, besides several young folks, all doing well. Several of them bought from 75 to 100 acres when land sold at $100 per acre, and could now sell at $225 per acre. Now, all these men are comparatively young and can live without a hard day's work.

Enclosed find $1.00 for renewal. We appreciate your valuable paper very much. Wishing you all a happy Easter and joyous springtime.

Charles Dowding.

"TRICKED HER."

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 2.—There was an unusual scene in Judge Phelan's Court in Detroit yesterday when the case of Thos. Kelly, charged with desertion, was called. The evidence was conclusive, and the judge was about to sentence Kelly to a term at the works, when he astonished even the pllegmatic court attaches by calmly announcing that the woman, who claimed to be Mrs. Kelly, was not his wife at all, but that he had tricked her into a "fake marriage" fifteen years ago, when she fell desperately in love with him, while living at home in Ottawa. A legal looking document, which he induced her to sign, was the only excuse for a wedding ceremony which had ever taken place between the two. He had lived with her ever since in Detroit, and she had borne him three children. Turning to the woman Judge Phelan asked her if Kelly was telling the truth about the alleged marriage. Trembling violently with emotion, she told the whole story. When only 20 years old, as Grace Healey, the only daughter of respectable people, she fell in love with Kelly who was fifteen years her senior, and was easily persuaded to marry him. She believed confidently that she had been regularly married to him, and had done her duty as a wife, and mother for the fifteen years they lived together in Detroit. Judge Phelan immediately declared that Kelly would then and there marry the woman or remain in jail till he did. A marriage license was hurriedly sent for, and, laying aside his judicial robes, the judge, with the couple standing before him, went through the wedding ceremony, at the conclusion of which declared them "well and truly married." Kelly left the courtroom with his bride as though he felt greatly bored.

While working at the portable sawmill on the Crombie farm, at the north end of Shelburne Tuesday forenoon, Alfred Partridge had the misfortune to "in some way" get his right arm caught between the wrist and elbow by a saw and very badly cut, the saw penetrating right into the bone. Amputation may yet have to be resorted to if signs of blood poisoning set in, but Dr. Thompson, who is in attendance, has hopes that the arm will be saved in fair condition. Mr. Partridge, who is a hard-working, steady young man, is having a run of bad luck, for it was only last week that he had his left arm broken while threshing.—Econmist.

STOMACH AGONY.

Abolish the Cause, and Misery and Distress of Indigestion Will Vanish.

Can indigestion be cured? Hundreds of thousands of people who suffer from belching of gas, biliousness, sour stomach, fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, bad taste in mouth, foul breath, nervousness, and other distressing symptoms, are asking themselves the question daily.

And if these same doubtful dyspeptics could only read the thousands of sincere letters from people who once suffered as badly as they do now, but who have been quickly and permanently cured by the use of Mi-o-na, the mighty dyspepsia remedy that cures by removing the cause, they would go to W. Turner & Co.'s this very day and get a large box of Mi-o-na tablets, and start themselves on the right road to health at once.

The price of Mi-o-na tablets is only 50 cents, and W. Turner & Co. guarantee them to cure indigestion, or money back.

Thin or lean or scrawny people will find in Mi-o-na a maker of flesh and blood, because it causes the stomach to extract more nutritious matter from the food, which quickly enriches the blood.

While working at the portable sawmill on the Crombie farm, at the north end of Shelburne Tuesday forenoon, Alfred Partridge had the misfortune to "in some way" get his right arm caught between the wrist and elbow by a saw and very badly cut, the saw penetrating right into the bone. To the Horse.

In the midst of the present extravaganza of automobile aeroplane racing, it is refreshing to take notice, occasionally, of the horse. Witness the feat of an Illinois horse who belongs to a mail carrier. He has travelled 26 miles a day for 22 months, or a total of over 17,000 miles. It is impressive to note that in all this distance this horse did not puncture a tire, lose a bolt, wear out a bearing, foul a spark plug or run out of gasoline ten miles from home. Moreover, he did not once exceed a speed limit, run over a hog or skid on a corner. His chauffeur never killed his engine on a hill, nor did he have to get out after an hour or two and crank him in front. The horse climbed every hill, and pulled through every mudhole, and at the end of the 17,000 miles his owner did not find that it would cost about $100 to replace his bearings, rebuild his magneto, and take the carbon out of his cylinders. Truly, the horse may be humble, but there is much comfort in him.

THE 3-5 CLAUSE TO BE RETAINED

Premier Whitney Tells Large Temperance Deputation That It Will Not Be Repealed.

This question is big enough and broad enough, and I know it is serious enough, but I firmly believe that it has been kept back through narrowness and bigotry. I believe that this is almost all gone, and I believe that in a shorter time than you imagine you will have local option throughout rural Ontario on a firm and sure foundation.

Sir James Whitney used above words in his reply to a large and unexpected deputation of temperance people who waited for him last Wednesday morning at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto. Every member of the deputation present represented a municipality where local option had been defeated by the operation of the three-fifths clause, and it was the repeal of this clause which formed their request.

After several speakers had expressed their views, Sir James Whitney replied at some length. He said: "I do not think any of you would be served by my discussing the old arguments for and against the three-fifths clause." The Premier said: "I am however, deeply interested in what you have said about the retention of that three-fifths clause to a smaller proportion, and I am also interested in your arguments in favor of allowing another vote in less than three years. These will receive my most serious consideration indeed."

"I do not wish to preach or lecture, but I do not wish you to be on this as 'im beaten and I want a majority vote.' Men are beaten every day of their lives at elections and a man beaten by one vote is just as legally beaten as by one thousand. He does not go around complaining. Some of you have said with refreshing candor that you were beaten in your own constituency. That shows that you had not given the matter the careful consideration that was due it. What object would this government have, save a public one, in main-
