At the close of the week night service in the Methodist church on Thursday last, Society representatives on the Official Quarterly Board were elected as follows: M. K. Richardson, R. J. Sproule, T.A. Blakely, F. G. Karstedt and Isaac Sinclair.

The inaugural meeting of the new High School Board, comprising Messrs. John Boland, D. McTavish, Thos. Henry, J. S. Wilson, John Weber and John McMillan, was held here a few days ago, at which Mr. Boland was elected Chairman, Mr. McTavish vice-chairman and Mr. W. J. Bellamy secretary. The Board enters upon their duties with much enthusiasm and are taking steps towards the erection at once of a commodious and up-to-date building, which will be thoroughly equipped.

Quarterly communion service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday, impressively conducted by the pastor. In the Presbyterian church Rev. G. S. Milligan, who preaches again next Sunday, delivered a deeply interesting sermon. A meeting is to be held on Monday afternoon next for the purpose of moderating in a call to a minister.

The news on Saturday of the sudden death of Miss Rhea, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rundle, of Dundalk, was a shock to all here who are acquainted with the family. Death followed an operation for appendicitis in Owen Sound Marine Hospital. We join in the deep sympathy felt for Mr. and Mrs. Rundle and family in their great sorrow.

Mr. A. C. Coulson, who three years ago made this his headquarters for part of the summer while engaged in piano tuning in this community, was reported last week by the Toronto papers in the toils in that city, bigamy being the charge preferred against him, and for which he was sentenced to two years in the Central prison. Mr. Coulson is reported having three wives, one in England and two in Canada. His last marriage took place in Lloydtown in June last.

The news of the death in Toronto on Thursday last of Mr. George Wardrobe, a former resident of this place, was a shock to his numerous old friends, as but few knew of his brief illness. The remains were brought here for interment in the family plot on Saturday, the funeral taking place from the residence of Mr. Andrew Bentham, where service was conducted by Rev. H. E. Wellwood, pastor of the Methodist church, with which the deceased had been connected for a number of years. Rev. J. V. Laughland also took part in the obsequies. Mr. Wardrobe, who was 65 years of age, was born in Yorkshire, England, where he was married to a daughter of the late Robert Meggott. Her death took place here about eight years ago. Mr. Wardrobe came with his family to Canada about twenty-eight years ago and farmed near this village for a number of years before settling here. Nearly three years ago he moved to Toronto, where his family now live, namely, Alfred, Arthur, Thomas and Miss Ellen, all of whom accompanied the remains of their father here.

DUNDALK

Mr. John Hargrave, of this place, who has been in poor health for some time, is improving very slowly.

The Corporation has purchased from the Corbett Foundry Co., of Owen Sound, a new steel smoke stack for the electric light power house. The price is $125, freight prepaid and erected.

A little before sunset Monday a couple of sun dogs were visible, fortelling a storm. Chief Hemphill, with an eye to business, closely scanned the horizon to see if they wore muzzles.

Mr. Chas. W. Barclay, late manager of the Cargill Woollen Mills, has moved into the village and will manage the Dundalk Woollen Mills for Mr. Sinclair. We understand the mill will be fitted up to manufacture tweeds, mackinaws, flannels, blankets and yarns.—Herald.

Do You Have

Headache

TAKE ONE OF THESE LITTLE TABLETS AND THE PAIN IS GONE.

"My first experience with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills was a sample package handed me. They relieved the pain so promptly that I have never been without them since. I have given them to many friends when they had headache and they never failed to relieve them. I have suffered with neuralgia in my head, and the first one I took relieved me. They have cured me of neuralgia. I would not be without them."

The Street Girl.

The girl who gives way to the desire to gad about the street and cultivate the acquaintance of young men, is laying the foundation of a useless life. Two to one when she is married she will develop into a slatternly gossip, if no greater misfortune befalls her. It is the girl of good, sound sense, the girl who loves her home and helps her mother who wins the model man, and becomes an ornament to womanhood. The girl who does this and devotes part of her time to reading and strives for the grace of mental culture, commands the respect and esteem of everybody, while gadding ornaments only win the admiration of those whose attention is not worth having.—Brampton Conservator.

Special Notice.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box 849 Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Contempt for the foreigner is seldom received such sublime expression as in the case of the small American boy who, when asked by his teacher: "Who was the first man?" replied without hesitation: "George Washington." "No," corrected the teacher. "Adam was the first man." "Oh, well," admitted the boy grudgingly, "if you count foreigners, I guess you're right."—London News.
