KIMBERLEY HAPPENINGS

The first genuine thaw of the season came on Saturday and Sunday last.
Mr. Ernest Morgan, of Eugenia, is the guest of his friend, Mr. Ern.
Proctor.
James Duggan, of Schomberg, is visiting friends in this vicinity and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
James Stuart.
Practically all of the material, that is, the brick, sand and gravel, is now on the grounds for the new school house that is to be built this summer.
R. R. Fawcett visited Dundalk friends last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Plewes, of Kirkville, spent Saturday and Sunday last, the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Plewes.

Mr. Fred Wickens, of Moosejaw, Sask., who has spent the winter at his parental home here, returned to his western home on Tuesday of this week, together with his sister, Miss Etta. We wish them a pleasant trip.
Mr. Walter Loucks, of Flesherton, Mr. Lewis Pedlar and sister, Miss Nelle, spent Sunday last at Mr.
Rufus Wickens'.

On Sunday morning, Feb. 20, the pulpit in the Methodist church was ably filled by the Rev. Mr. Jordan, of St. Vincent, who delivered an excellent missionary address.
Mr. Bert Graham, of Eugenia, visited friends in our burg recently.

Mr. David Weber delivered to Ceyon one day last week an elm log ten feet long which contained over 800 feet. No log is too big for Days to tackle.

On Thursday afternoon of last week the regular monthly meeting of the local branch of the O.W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. A. E.
Mykes. The meeting was well attended, a goodly number being present from the Vandeleur branch, who, by the way, furnished the greater part of the program, and needless to say, it was very instructive and helpful to all present.

Mr. John Wickens, one of our enterprising young agriculturists, is getting material on the ground for the erection of a new house the coming summer. Now for double bliss, John.

The late George Cornfield, sr., who recently passed away, was born in the County of Mayo, Ireland, in 1832, and was consequently 78 years of age. He came to Canada when quite young, and settled in Euphrasia when it was a howling wilderness, together with the other early pioneers, who have now nearly all passed to the great beyond. He helped clear the virgin forest, in fact the late Mr. Cornfield had helped to clear more land than perhaps any other man in the County of Grey. Until late years he was very seldom sick, and hard work was as play to him on account of his robust physique. Mr.
Cornfield had many friends. He leaves to mourn his loss eight children—three sons and five daughters. His wife predeceased him some twelve years ago. We extend to the many sorrowing friends our sincere sympathy.

Reeve W. T. Ellis and Messrs. W.
S. Bishop and Mr. Peter McAuslan composed a deputation who recently interviewed the Provincial Minister of Public Works regarding a grant toward the lowering of the Beaver River for drainage purposes, got the assurance of a grant of $1,500, provided those interested would raise a like sum.
Miss Vera Gaudin, of Heathcote, visited friends here last week.
Mr. Victor Ellis, of Meaford, spent Saturday and Sunday at his parental home here.
We are pleased to report that Mr. Neil Boyle, who has been on the sick list, is now recovering.

Chatsworth; E. W. Hunt, Travers-ton; Andrew Schenk, Warden, ager, Markdale. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

E. W. Hunt, Chairman of House of Refuge Committee.

others getting shot. Pity the dogs.
