TRAVERTON

The school flag got a chance to flap in the breeze this week, Empire Day and Victoria Day.

Miss M. Cook, of Tara, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Edwards.

Mrs. F. Haley is spending a fortnight in Toronto with her niece, Miss D. Anderson, who is ill.

Mrs. P. O'Neil and Mrs. T. McClocklin are visiting friends in King township.

Mrs. A. Wright and Mrs. T. McNally spent part of last week with Owen Sound relatives.

Spring crops and meadows have improved in the past few days.

The following farmers have had lightning rods placed on their barns during the past few days: Messrs Geo. Pert, M. Burke, J. McVicker and B. Edwards. They yielded to the persuasive arguments of J. W. Murdoch who is putting up a good job.

Mrs. Will McNally has been very ill, since the birth of her baby girl but is some better.

John McKenzie is suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson and family spent Saturday with the Nelson families of Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden, of Egremont, spent Sunday at the latter's old home and took part in Zion S. S. work in the afternoon.

At break of day you can hear the trot of Councillor McNally's sorrel as he hies away to distant points in his ward where he has the road grader at work. Frank Haley makes an A 1 operator while Jim Banks with others supplying plenty of horse power. A Councillor's reward is long hours, hard work, poor pay and any amount of growing from ill-natured kickers.

Mrs. J. McArthur, of the 10th con., and her family moved on Monday to Aberdeen where she will keep house for Mr. Jas. Even, her son-in-law, who recently lost his young wife. Marion was born and grew into young womanhood in the happy home, there, but a few years ago was wedded to Mr. Even and to them was born one child, now eight months old. The loss of his wife has been a heavy blow to the husband and a deep grief to her mother who but a short time before lost her husband. Mrs. McArthur has been a splendid neighbour and the neighbourhood regrets losing her.
