Dropsy—
Given up by Doctor

"I had dropsy, and was told by my family physician that there was no chance for me. My family also gave me up. My limbs and body were swollen one-third larger than natural, water collected around my heart and I had to be propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy until I was entirely cured. This was in 1902, and I am now able to do any kind of work on my farm. My cure was certainly marvelous."

L. TURLEY CURD,
Wilmore, Ky.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been wonderfully successful in relieving heart trouble. Its tonic effect [redacted] the heart nerves and muscles [redacted] factor in assisting [redacted] overcome heart weakness.

Miller—Bellamy.—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon of last week when their daughter, Frances M., was joined in marriage with Rev. John W. Miller, ordained to the ministry at the recent meeting of Toronto Methodist Conference. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. E. Coulter, of Trout River, a college comrade of the groom. Miss Gertrude Bellamy, sister of the bride, played the Wedding March. The handsome bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and wore a very pretty gown of cream liberty satin trimmed with overlace and ruching. She wore a tulle veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and fern. Her little niece, Miss Laurs Dunsmore, was a very pretty flower girl dresses in white silk and carrying a basket of daisies. After the marriage and hearty congratulations to the young couple from the guests, about sixty in number, a choice wedding breakfast was served, the table and dining-room decorations being very pretty. Later the company was photographed on the lawn by Artist Hawken. Rev. and Mrs. Miller were escorted to the depot and left on the evening train for a short trip to Toronto, Buffalo and other points, the bride travelling in a handsome suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth with hat to match. After returning the young couple will leave for their home at Banff, Mr. Miller's new field of labor. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and fob, and to the flower girl a locket and chain. Guests from a distance were — Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, the groom's parents, Jessopville; Mr, and Mrs. Ben Miller, Jessopville; Mr. and Mrs. Blair, Tarbert; Mr. and Mrs. McVanel, Shelburne; Mr. F. Meredith and Miss Georgina Hastie, Manitoulin; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. N. Dunsmore, Owen Sound; and Mrs. (Rev.) Coulter, Trout River. The bride's brother, Mr. E. E. Bellamy, Saskatoon, Sask., telegraphed congratulations.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN

CHILD CULTURE ON VITAL MATTERS.

Dr. Amelia Youmans, in dealing with this subject, says: "How mothers are to teach and the method that has to be taken is principally this: Answer questions. The questions will come, and your treatment of them whatever it may be, is teaching. If you say nothing, your silence carries its message, a different one perhaps to different children, but a lesson nevertheless, and not the right kind of one, for God has made that child a veritable 'question box,' and that fact shows us that the questions are to be answered and answered 'truly.' Be judicious, but 'let your communications be yea yea and nay nay. Trickiness and shame-facedness and evasion and all replies whose root is scepticism as to the holiness and purity of God's work in the human being or anywhere else, 'comes of evil.' There comes a time in the history of every child when he or she asks mother, 'How did I get into this world?' and you mothers are to answer and tell nothing but the 'truth.' If there is on earth anything to be sacred enough to be the type of the holiest mystery of Christianity, the Trinity in Unity, it is the father, the mother, and the child—the Trinity of Humanity. God is Holiness. All His works are holy. He has made human birth the type and illustration of the New Birth when the natural becomes the spiritual, and the human being is admitted into the household of God.'

HOW ONE MOTHER SOLVED A PROBLEM.

(By a mother.)

Once a little child asked 'Mamma, did you get me out of a rose-bush? Nurse said you did.'

Do you think that mother looked into those clear, trusting eyes and told a falsehood, as her mother before her had done?

She did not, for we are wiser in our generation. Yet in order to gain time the mother asked: Would you like to have me tell you about the baby roses?

Then a series of lessons in nature was begun. The mother taught the child about the baby flowers swinging in their little green cradles, and the baby birds in their soft nests, all watched over by the kind All-Father.

When the question was again asked, the mother felt that the little mind was prepared, so, taking the child into her lap, she looked into the sweet face, confiding eyes and told the wonderful story of the human flower.

The little one listened wonderingly. It was a very beautiful story to him. When it was ended, he looked up with tears, and said: 'Dear mamma, I love you more than ever, 'cause you have done so much for me.'

Thus perfect confidence was established.

Do you think that evil can enter into that little heart, so lovingly prepared for God's great truths.—Montreal Witness.
