GLADSTONE'S FACE Who can ever forget that unforgettable face of Gladstone—the beaked strong and yet perfectly proportioned nose, giving with its slight aquilineness an impression of strength of domination of scorn; the face white as ivory and yet not fragile; the large, sinuous mouth, that seemed to be as quick to express every emotion as though it were an Acolian harp; the strong, square chin; the eyes, brilliant and shining, and as pure black as a piece of coal shining in the darkness; and, lastly, the melodious voice that could give every tone, every half-tone, every semi-quaver of a long gamut of perfect elecution?

And then the wondrous vitality of the man! I would give a word of counsel to young orators, which is that their effectiveness in speech, as in every other pursuit of life, is largely dependent on their state of health. I have seen very fine speakers quite ineffective, below their ordinary eve, simply because they were tired and their vitality was exhausted. To be able to vitalize others you must be vital yourself; and a part at least, of the enormous power of Gladstone as a speaker was that inexhaustible strength of lung and limb and nerve which lay behind that strangely palld and white skin.—T. P. O'Connor, in T. P's. Weekly.

Three Officials of the Home Bank on Trial at Lindsay.

Nitnesses Say Accused Made State ments Injuring Bank's Credit.

The Three Men Charged Were For merly With Farmers' Bank.

Lindsay, Ont., despatch: The charges laid by the Farmers' Bank against A. B. McGill, manager of the local branch of the Home Bank; J. J. Fleury, clerk in the same bank, and J. L. Coulter, manager of the Nestleton branch, were heard here to-day before Magistrate

The charges that they "did unlawfully and wickedly conspire, confederate and agree with one another, and each with the other by deceit and falsehood and other fraudulent means, to defraud the Farmers' Bank of Canada, and to injuriously affect the credit and standing of the Farmers'

Until last June McGill was manager of the Farmers' Bank here, Fleury a clerk under him, and Coulter manager of the Farmers' branch at Nestleton. In that month the Home Bank opened a branch here, next door to the Farmers', and the three who are charged went over to the employ of the newcomers into the town banking field ... At this stage, it is now alleged, staff of the Home Bank circulated jurious reports as ' to the financial standing of the Farmers', and caused a large number of withdrawals of funds-to be made, which were immediately deposited in the Home. This alleged interference led to General Manager Travers, of the Farmers', instituting the actions. McGill has been at liberty on $2,000 bail, and the others on $500 each.

J. G. Fitzgibbon, chief inspector of the Farmers' Bank, was called first.

He said that the bank's stock had never to his knowledge sold as low as 11. Cross-examined, he said he did not know anything about the price of the stock. There were no records in his office. The stock was never listed on any exchange. The first $500,000 of stock had been put out at par, $100 a share; the second half million issued after the bank opened for business, on Jan. 2, 1907, was put out at 125. It had all been subscribed for, but not all called. He knew it was said to have gone away down. The cheapest he had known of was 25, but 67 that was by an estate. He had not heard of its selling at 15. Not 100 shares had changed hands in the past four months. Brokers had circularized their stockholders, offering the stock at 45. Mr. Gordon Dickson, manager the Farmers' Bank, since Mr. McGill's resignation, said Mr. McGill told him there had been a run. He said there must be some reason, but Mr. McGill denied having aid a word against the Farmers' Bank anyone. He told Dickson he had botter take a good lot of money with him to Janetville, as he expected several people would withdrawing. Diekson took down $1,250 with him. Some words had passed betteen them at Janetville. Fleury had brought in between eight and twelve cheques signed by Farmers' Bank customers, to get cashed in three or four days, he being then an employee of the Home

Bank. "Between June 24 and the time the information was laid, $55,000 was withdrawn from the Farmers' Bank at Lindsay and branches under it. Of this, $44,000 went to the Home Bank. Some has come back to us," said . Mr.

"Did you tell McGill to look out or he would get into trouble?" asked Mr. Stewart. "I told him to be careful or he might," was the reply. "McGill led me to believe the. Farmers' Bank was not in good standing, and that it was a matter of a very short time until it went up. He advised me to retire," said Mr. Evans, now manager of the Farmers' at Nestleton, who went to the Lindsay branch on May 29. "I noticed we were holding more gash than we should for the business we were doing. I asked McGill about it and he said we would need it; that the people were alarmed, and he was afraid of a run," said Mr. Evans. "McGill told me," said Evans, "that Mr. Travers was not a fit man to manage the bank; that he believed they were in Cobalt stocks, and that the other branches were not paying -that the Toronto branch didn't pay. I told him the Toronto branch was doing better than he estimated. He said he would advise me, being a young man, to get into another institution. The bank was holding over $40,000 cash when $15,000 would have been enough."

R. Haddon came to the Farmers' Bank here from Detroit on July 19. "I saw McGill and Coulter the same day," he said, "I asked McGill why he left, and he said things weren't going well, and he thought he had better get out as the stock was only selling at $11. He said business with the Home Bank was fine. We will have all their deposits," he "Later I saw Coulter and asked why they left the Farmers'. He said they were all scared. He said he and McGill had been driving around the country soliciting business."

line the cry is still for more men.

The 2,500 employees of J. R. Booth's mills who were temporarily thrown out of employment for a week through the Grand Trunk strike, have, through the generosity of Canada's millionaire lumber king, been paid in full for the time they were idle. This practically means a gift of $12,000 by Mr. Booth to his employees. The men met at noon to-day and publicly ten-dered to him their thanks.

BIG WAGES BILL.

Census Shows 11,092 Employees of C. P. R. Living in Montreal.

Montreal, Aug. 8.-The Pacific Railway has just completed census of its employees resident in Montreal. The total number of the company's employees in Montreal is 11,092. A large number of these are unmarried, and so the usual census calculation of five people per family would be excessive, but a fair average of those dependent upon each wageearner would probably be in the neighborhood of three, making the total number of persons dependent upon the C. P. R. pay-rolls between 30,000 and 35,000. On the usual basis of calculation, about seven thousand people butchers, bakers, shopkeepers, physicians, teachers, etc.-make a living by attending to the wants of these people, so that it may fairly be computed that upwards of 40,000 people live in Montreal because of the Canadian Pacinc's existence.

It is estimated that the average is in the neighborhood of $3 per day, making the daily distributen $33,000, year.

GAIN IN DEAL.

Canadians Moving to the States and Americans Coming Here.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Emigration from and emigration to Canada is the subject of a statement just issued by the United States Immigration Bureau. During the twelve months ended March 3; last there were 74,012 arrivals of aliens and citizens from Canada for permanent residence in the United States, against 61,517 during the previous twelve months. In the same period there were 103,739 departures of aliens and citizens from the United States into Canada for perminent residence, against 50,-$32 the previous twelve months. Citizens arriving were not counted during the whole of 1900, and it is estimated that 15.000 arrived during the wear. That number has been included in making up the total of 11,577 arivals.

HOW IT WAS SETTLED

The o feet of the G. T. R. strike settlement is a compromise. Whereas the company was willing that the standard rates should go into force in 1913, they have agreed that they shall go into force in 1912. Also, the rules which have gone into force on the C. P. R. have been agreed upon. They are particularly favorable to the men. The terms of the settlement of the difficulties are as follows.

I. The company will put back as soon as possible the men, other than those who have been, or may be found, guilty of acts of violence or disorderly children, the understanding being that there is to be no coercion or intimidation used towards the new men. 2. The company will put into effect, from May 1, 1910, the rates named in schedule of rates dated July 18, 1910, those rates to be embodied in the present schedules new in effect on this line, it being understood that those rates shall in no instance effect a reduction in any existing rate. 3. The company will, on January 1, 1912, make effective in thain and Tard service on the G. T. R. the rates of pay and the rules contained in the schedule or agreement on that date in effect on the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway east of Fort William. The three above propositions shall apply also to the Central Vermont Railroad Co. the said sailroad to be substituted for the Grand Trunk Railway and the Recland Railroad to be substitued for the Canadian Pacific Railway, wherever the same are used or understood in the above. In the case of the Central Vermont, by the "schedule of rates dated July 18, 1910," is meant the schedule issued by the management of that company since July 1. Signed by * Charles M. Hays, President of G. T. R. Sytsem. Attested: A. B. Garretson, president O. R. C.; W. G. Lee, president
