Laidlaw--Williams.

"The Maples," the fine old home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Williams, Holland Centre, was the scene of a most interesting event at noon on Wednesday, when their eldest daughter, Elizabeth M. (Beck) became the wife of the Rev. Thos. Laidlaw, M.A., of Inglewood, Ont.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Miss Jessie Williams, the bride took her place beside the bridegroom under a floral bell suspended from an arch of the climbing white clematis, the alcove immediately behind being banked with handsome potted ferns and fragrant cut flowers artistically arranged.

The fair bride, who is one of the community's sweetest and most talented young ladies, wore a beautiful gown of white silk mull with trimmings of ribbed chiffon and seed pearls and carried a shower bouquet of roses, orchids and asparagus fern. The long tulle veil was caught up by a coronet of orange blossoms and lily of the valley. The only attendants were two charming little flower girls, little Kathleen Williams, of Toronto, niece of the bride, in dainty pink mull and carrying a cunning little basket of pink and white sweet peas with maiden hair fern, and Jean, little daughter of Dr. Williams, of Rocklyn, wearing an embroidered white lawn frock and carrying a similar basket of the fragrant blossoms.

After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. R. Wilkinson, a particular friend of the groom, and the customary congratulations Miss Hazel Hathaway, of Toronto, cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love." The guests then repaired to the dining room which was tastefully decorated where a dainty luncheon was served the table decorations being of wood ferns and daintily tinted sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw left amid the good wishes of their many friends to spend a short honeymoon trip at Brantford, Toronto and other points, the bride travelling in a smart tailored-suit with becoming hat to match.

Among the beautiful gifts received by the bride was a handsome piano from the groom.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Laidlaw and Mr. John Laidlaw, of Orangeville; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Laidlaw, Brantford; Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Banard, and the Misses Taylor, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Acheson, Proton; Mrs. (Dr.) Brown and Mrs. Emmis, Markdale; Mr. and Mrs. B. Howey, Massie, Mr. and Mrs. B. Williams, Miss Hathaway, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Williams, Meaford; Mr. and Mrs. Carey, Corbeton, Dr. and Mrs. Williams, Rocklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Fee, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, of Holland Centre.

A Good-Bye Party.

A large gathering of neighbors, upwards of ninety, held a good-bye party at the home of Mr. John Abercrombie, Ephrasia, one night last week, on the eve of his departure for British Columbia, where he and Mrs. A. purpose spending the evening of life. A most sociable time was spent, and the following address presented:

Mr. and Mrs. Abercrombie and Joe: We, your friends and neighbors have gathered this evening to try and express to you our sorrow at having to part with you. You have been in our community as long as most of us can remember. We have been in and out around your home and have learned to love you and your family. You were always kind to those in trouble and had a cheerful word for everyone. We will miss the hospitality of your home, for nowhere would you get a heartier welcome. You will be missed in the church and social circles, but we know our loss is some other gain. May you have health and happiness in the new home you are going to as long as God sees fit. We do not meet again on earth, may we meet around the Throne on high. I wish you a pleasant and speedy journey across the plains and oceans, and we will be pleased if you will accept these gifts as a remembrance from your many friends in old Ontario.

Signed on behalf of the committee: James Howey, Alwyn Fairweather.

Memorial Services.

Last Sunday, August 15, a very large congregation met in the Church, 10th con., Holland Centre, to attend the Memorial Services for the deceased Mrs. McKay, widow of Mr. J. McKay, of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Howey, Springhill, Holland, Dr. McLaren, took for his text "Rev. and in the course of his remarks to the loss sustained by the family and the church in the death of these two who had been neighbors and had died within weeks of each other.

Mrs. McKay mother of Mr. McKay, had been ailing for some time and so her departure was no surprise. Mrs. McKay was a native of the Scottish highlands and could speak nothing but Gaelic language, but what she said on this account to attend the funeral service she was a good woman and of a very religious disposition. In the absence of the pastor, Dr. McLaren, the Rev. Mr. Lemon, of Walters Falls conducted the funeral service.

Mrs. Howey was present at the funeral but she too was stricken down and passed away about a week after. La grippe, causing much to her neighbors, had not been ailing for some time, but it was expected that a trip to Walters Falls would restore her health.

When Your Horse Is Harnessed

In a set of harness, you hardly know him for the same animal. He will seem to know that at last he has a harness on that fits and looks as if it should. Suppose you get a set now. Your horse needs one anyway, so why not get him a good one. It will not cost any more.

This year there are many teachers in the Province of Ontario. This rate of supply, if kept up for a couple of more years, it is thought to remedy the shortage of the influx to the west. It is urged strongly the necessity of raising salaries of qualified teachers if they are to be kept in Ontario.
