LOGIC?

A feler was here trying to raise munny to put a fence around the graveyard, but Me and the leading citizens refused to put up a cent for such a useless expense. Them that is buried there can't get out, and us fellows what is out don't want to get in. So whyfere is a fence needed?—Oregon Optimist.

MRS. NATION, Social Reformer Not the Freak She's Painted.

Concluded from former issue.) During a large part of Mrs. Nation's residence in Guthrie, Okla., she published "The Hatchet," a paper and associate editor. Mr. C. T. Turner was her financial manager and his family dwelt in the house with Mrs. Nation, and during this time business and social relations the Missouri newspaper she possessed exceptional facilities for observation.

My health had not been very good for some time, and I was contemplating the climate of Oklahoma as a possible benefit, when the proposition came from Mrs. Nation to assist her in her work," said Turner. "I had read so much concerning her eccentricities that I was a little apprehensive at first. I was most agreeably surprised. The association was most delightful from the start.

Mrs. Nation has a splendid education and has read much deeper than many who criticize her. She speaks in a blunt, homely style, never attempting figures of speech or fancy lights. She has no ambition to make what is called a "beautiful talk," but does like to have people know she has spoken the truth. Speechmaking is a part of her natural endowment. When a girl of 15 was down on her father's plantation in Kentucky she would assemble the slaves at their quarters and deliver what was virtually a sermon based upon a text from the Bible, which she always carried with her. During her troublous times since then her Bible has been her closest companion and whenever newspaper photographers ask to take her picture while in jail she always stipulates that it must be with her Bible in hand.

Mrs. Nation is the most unselfish of mortals. When her first husband, Dr. Gloyd, died she went to live with his mother and supported her in splendid style until the old lady died at the age of ninety. She cleared a large debt that was hanging

BLANTYRE

(Intended for last week.) Our genial and obliging mail carrier, Mr. J. Armstrong, finished his contract the first of the month. We hope his successor, Mr. J. T. Walters, will give us as good service.

Quite a number from here attended the Exhibition at Toronto last week. Born—Aug. 29th, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. T. Knight, a son. Mr. and Mrs. J. McCaddie, of Grand Rapids, Mich., were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. Douglas, and the latter's brothers, Messrs. W. and G. Story, last week.

Miss Maggie Barrie, of Meaford, who has spent a fortnight with her uncle, Mr. J. W. Murray, has returned home. Miss Pearl Paterson, who has been in the city for some time, is spending a month with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Brady, of Glasgow, visited the latter's parental home recently. Born—Sept. 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Free, a daughter. Messrs. A. and J. Jackson, of Normandy, were in this neighborhood last week buying cattle to feed.

Mr. J. Adams and W. Ellis, of Holland, were callers on our line one day last week. As George Kinsley, of Amaranth, was putting a bridle on his horse the animal threw up its head suddenly, throwing Mr. Kinsley against a pile of logs and breaking three ribs.

NEW TEXT BOOKS.

Seven new text books will be used in the public schools this coming term. There have been authorized a new arithmetic, geography, grammar, hygiene, composition, history of England and history of Canada. The latter two books are not ready, but the publishers have promised that they will be out in a very short time. The only new high-school text book is the geometry prepared under the editorship of D. J. Goggin.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS

High Court Meeting, Central Ontario.—Growing Membership, Increasing Surplus.

Through the courtesy of Brother T. F. Wilson, one of our local Foresters, we are enabled to give our readers a brief summary of the proceedings of the High Court of Foresters held last week in Port Hope, Ed.

Port Hope, Aug. 25, 1910. The picturesque town of Port Hope is in holiday attire. The banners are hung on the "outer walls" and "the latch string is out" to the 300 representatives of the 277 subordinate Courts of Central Ontario. Bro. John T. Scott, H. C. R., presided.

Mayor Mulholland, accompanied by Reeve Long, Deputy Reeve Patterson, Councillors Powers and Fullford, presented an address of welcome and extended the freedom of the town to the delegates. In his annual address the High Chief Ranger spoke glowingly of the strength, growth and benefits of the order that has now a membership of over 234,000, an accumulation of funds amounting to $15,724,000, after paying, in its history that covers a generation, $20,000,000. 364 orphans are the wards of the Order and over 1000 members receive the annual old age annuity.

The growth of the Order in Ontario, with its four High Courts, has been gratifying. The membership now in the Province is 60,000. Of this fine total 18,000 are in Central Ontario. During the year 2,967 applications for membership were received in this jurisdiction largely through the splendid work of Bro. Geo. Mitchell, Superintendent of Organizations. The Supreme Secretary, Bro. R. Matheson, gave a capital address on the finances and investments of the Order, and received the thanks of the High Court.

The report of the Finance Committee showed a surplus in the High Court Treasury of $2,296.52. One hundred dollars were unanimously voted to the Forestic Relief Fund to aid brethren who suffered in Campbellton, N. B., through the destruction of the town by fire. The Supreme Chief Ranger, Hon. E. G. Stevenson, was present at the evening session of the first day. He received a rousing welcome and gave an inspiring address on the fraternal work of the Order. 564 applicants are being cared for and the Sanatorium for Consumptives has twelve patients. There will be accommodation for fifty in a few weeks. The invested funds of the Order now earn three quarters of a million dollars annually.

A resolution of thanks was rendered to the Chief. By a unanimous standing vote members of the High Court pledged themselves to bring in at least one new member before next June, and so qualify for membership in the "Quarter Million Club," that aims to bring the membership up to over 250,000 in the next few months. Thursday morning, August 25th, the High Court were the guests of the town, and under the guidance of Mayor Mulholland were given a drive through the town and some of the beautiful private grounds.

In the afternoon an open air meeting, presided over by H.V.C.R. Snider, B. A., Principal of the Port Hope High School, and attended by a great company, was held. Addresses were given by the H. C. R., Bro. Scott, H.V.C.R. Bro. Bell and Bro. J. D. Clarke, of Dayton, Ohio, Supreme Vice Chief Ranger, who gave a splendid address on fraternity that was received with great enthusiasm.

Bro. Rev. Alex. MacGillivray, P. H.C.R., Toronto, who has attended every meeting of the High Court for twenty-two years, and is the Dean of the High Court, was presented with an address and a purse of gold, for long and valuable service. The brother made a feeling reply. Bro. J. T. Scott, P.H.C.R., and Bro. Atkin were recommended for the Grand Cross of Merit for distinguished services.

The following are the Representatives to the Supreme Court that meets in Toronto next June: W. J. Ard, Clarence Bell, S. Charles, Alex Cowan, Atwell Fleming, Rev. W. H. French, H. Fore-

Fleming-Tipper.

A wedding was solemnized on Thursday afternoon at 4.30, at New St. Paul's Church, Woodstock, when Miss Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tipper, London, England, was united in marriage to Mr. Atwell Fleming, Editor of the Woodstock Sun. Rev. T. G. Wallace, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a blue travelling suit with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left for the West bound G.T.R. train for Port Hope where they will take the steamer for lake trip. The Standard extends congratulations to our esteemed confrere. Brother Fleming and his wife.

A TWO-YEAR-OLD STEEPLEJACK.

If Toronto Exhibition had as thrilling an act on its programme as that performed by the two-year-old Albert Hibbert last week those who like sensational features would be more than satisfied with the performance. It was certainly a "thriller" for those who saw it. The observation tower completed last week by the Dominion Government on Mr. Hibbert's farm in Melancton, a couple of miles from Dumlak, was the scene of a steeplejack performance by the two-year-old who had early ambitions for climbing high in life. The tower is ascended by 12 foot ladders each with a small platform base. The young steeplejack was on the 5th ladder about 50 feet from the ground when he observed by his mother to engage his attention and the mother was frantic with fear. She was not in deciding to run the fields for the father who was on the spot. These were a few minutes, but it did not take long to make the ascent and the young lad was enjoying the danger unknown to his parents as he was safely effecting performance by the two-year-old who had early ambitions for climbing high in life. The tower is ascended by 12 foot ladders each with a small platform base. The Toronto Herald.
