BEAVERDALE

Mr. Minnis, of Markdale, must be getting his saw mill yard filled up, as the sawlogs are still going out from here.

Mr. Ed. Fothergill is able to be around again after a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fothergill returned home last Friday after spending a couple of weeks with the latter's father in Proton.

Mr. Hugh Johnston, of Clarksburg, was visiting friends here last week. He and his son, John, went to Durham and spent a couple of days visiting friends.

Mr. Thos. Brett put in a very painful week with inflammation of the shoulder, but glad to say he is on the mend.

Miss Esther Brett happened with a painful accident. Two weeks ago she slipped and sprained her ankle, and is not yet able to stand on her foot.

Mrs. R. Mathers also fell and hurt her ankle which laid her up for a few days, but glad to hear she is able to be around again.

Mr. Wm. Wright was laid up for a few days with inflammation but we think he is on the mend.

A number from here took in the hockey match at Rocklyn on Monday night.

Mr. John Henning is also under the weather, he being a bachelor it must go hard with him.

Messrs. C. Underwood and S. Miller and Miss Mabel Johnston went to Clarksburg on Saturday last.

RIVERDALE.

Mr. Will Walker had a bee hauling logs on Thursday.

Our school teacher, Miss Briscoe, made a few professional calls in North Riverdale on Saturday last.

Miss Minnie Cutting, formerly of Warton, has accepted a lucrative position with Mr. and Mrs. G. Dundas, Markdale.

A number from this vicinity attended the tea meeting, held under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, Markdale, on Friday evening.

What has occurred to our genial mail carrier from Rocklyn vicinity? We haven't seen him in our burg for several weeks. My—My!

Miss Euphemia Stephenson pleasantly entertained a number of her friends to a delightful birthday party on Friday evening.

Mrs. W. Dillon and Master Clarence, of Rocklyn, visited the parental home here last week.

We regret to learn that Mr. R. Henning is somewhat indisposed at present owing to an attack of the grippe.

On Saturday last, February 11, 1911, Mrs. A. Thompson and Mrs. S. Ward presented their liege lords with a bouncing baby boy each.

Hearty congratulations to the parents and all best wishes to the new boys.

Mrs. J. Noble, (nee Miss Mabel McCutcheon) of Manitoba, renewed former acquaintances in this vicinity last week.

A wild and woolly bunch of hoodlums from some outside point conferred a genuine piece of indecency on this community while passing through one evening recently by howling songs of a low immoral nature, which were about as appropriate to adults as "Willie get the hammer there's a fly on baby's nose" would be at a sacred choral recital.

Generally speaking, an idea is prevalent among some people that an Agricultural School in this county would be superfluous. This, however, is surely a dogmatical misconception. We must associate ourselves with the fact that this is an age of science, exploration and investigation. Whether we approve of it or not we cannot obviate it; it has run into every avenue open to the powers of man's perceptive genius.

The strata of the earth, the deep hidden caverns of the Atlantic, and Pacific, the frigid regions of the north and the jungles of darkest Africa have been compelled to divulge their long retained secrets to man.

The intricacies of anatomy, the remains of antiquity, the wonders of astronomy and aerial navigation have submitted to the assiduousness of great men who are even endeavoring to press on the deepest recesses and the highest altitude, with "Excelsior" as their motto, nor has the eminent success attained in the fields of science and research been restricted to geology, pathology and meteorology; but also along agricultural lines of vital interest to the farmer.

At the present time when farming, the hub of industry, is such a lucrative occupation in comparison to what it was some ten years ago and the problems of living have changed the townsman, who formerly sneered at the good old farmer, to an eager student of farming methods and profits.

Many farms that were years ago abandoned in a number of the Eastern States, owing to the infertility of the soil and unskilled laborers, are recently being re-located by young men, who have had the advantage of an Agricultural College course and are now adept in scientific farming, and are successful where their predecessors failed owing to their not having a knowledge of the scientific mode of farming or the chemical composition of the soil.

Inferring from the provincial public school statistics more than fifty per cent of the pupils who attend rural schools relinquish their studies between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years and the remainder of their lives to agricultural pursuits, the great natural resources at home or elsewhere, consequently it behooves the up-to-date tillers of the soil to boost the project of farming on scientific principles by the establishing of Agricultural Schools.

In regards to a suitable site for such an institution we suggest Riverdale or Wodehouse. What are your sentiments on this important problem, Wodehouse cor.?

Markdale and Wodehouse have their new and magnificent continuation schools, therefore we will be satisfied with the new Agricultural School.

Should the Flesherstonians be victorious in their solicitation for the school to be situated in that vicinity we anticipate a possible repetition of the dear old armory maladministration. How awful to think of it.

Increase the supply of eggs by feeding the hens Oyster Shells, Grit and Hess Panacea. For sale at Turner's Drug Store.

F. T. Hill & Co., Markdale

Important Announcement to the Public!

We wish to inform the general public, customers and friends that the General Business carried on by F. T. Hill & Co. will on and after March 1st be conducted under the firm name of HILL BROS. and the management in charge will be Messrs. W. Hill, W. H. Hill and F. T. Hill. Messrs W. Hill and W. H. Hill will look after the store, and Mr. F. T. Hill in charge of the Grain, Produce, Seed and Financial end of the business. We hope in this way to be able to give the general shopping and business public a service not to be excelled by any large up-to-date firm in the county, and by continuing to do business along broad liberal lines and straightforward dealing we hope to add many new customers to this already extensive business.

Mr. F. T. Hill wishes to thank the general public for their general patronage in the past, and as he hopes to continue with the new firm he promises them the same fair and liberal consideration for the future that has been the great stepping-stone to the success of this business in the past, and under the new management a still better service which facilitates to the advantage of all. An old and established firm with young blood and ambitious ideas should prove to be an advantage, not only to the people who come shopping to do but also to the making of Markdale as a bigger market centre for the marketing of all lines and products of the farm at the highest market prices obtainable. When in Markdale we extend you an invitation to make your headquarters at this store we are, Yours Truly to Serve,

HILL BROS.

N.B.—In conclusion we wish to say that all accounts due F. T. Hill & Co. which have been contracted in the last year will be taken over by the new firm, HILL BROS., but all accounts that are over one year old will have to be settled and paid to MR. SOLOMON HILL, who wishes to get all his business affairs straightened up. The prompt attention of all customers having overdue accounts will oblige. SOLOMON HILL.

VICTORIA CORNERS.

We are sorry to learn that Rev. Mr. Howey will not be able to take up his work here for some time owing to poor health.

Rev. Ryerson Young, of Chatsworth, conducted the sacramental services in the Methodist Church at Inistogus last Sunday.

Mr. Joseph Strain has returned to Toronto, there to join his sister, Miss C. Strain.

Mr. Hugh Warner, of Hamilton, has purchased Mr. Ab. Stinson's farm for the sum of $6,000, and will take possession about the middle of March. Mr. Stinson has purchased Mr. Acheson's farm of 50 acres beside Mr. J. Best.

Mr. John Wright, of Proton Stn., had a sale of all his stock and implements and household effects on Friday, the 10th. Mr. Acheson, who has purchased Mr. Wright's farm, will move in this week. We will miss Mr. and Mrs. Acheson and family from our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Heard and family visited at Mr. James Fisher's last week.

TRAVERSTON

John O. Greenwood, wife and family were guests of Dornoch relatives the first of the week. He has recently sold three horses and bought other three. Has a nice team of black 3-year-olds now.

Mr. Will Lawrence and his mother, of Durham suburbs, were visitors at the Cook homestead one day lately.

A bunch of our farmers attended the Stock Judging Course in Markdale on Monday and Tuesday. Most farmers are better acquainted with the bad points of a horse or cow than with the good ones.

James Hastie turned out a very fine sleigh on Monday; but we're too modest to tell what chap took it home.

Mr. Ed. Meagher left last week for his home in Gilbert Plains, Man.

Mr. Colin McArthur is known far and wide as a master mason and a hustler at that. And he has about as much skill and cleverness in handling the carpenter's tools as in masonry. This winter he has taken out the wood mater-

BERKELEY.

Mr. William Sargent is able to be out again.

Mr. James Gillespie spent Friday night in Markdale.

Miss Annie Colwill has returned to her home in Williamsford.

Miss Smith, of Markdale, was the guest of Mrs. S. Martin on Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Abbott and son, Fred, of Toronto, attended the funeral of the latter's uncle, Wm. Henry Abbott, last week.

We are pleased to see Samuel Bolt able to be on duty again after being indisposed.

A sad accident occurred last Saturday morning to Carman Caswell, when he had his leg badly fractured while skidding logs for Mitchell Bros. in their bush near here.

Carman was driving the team pulling a long skid which bound against a stump, the tongs slipping let it fly back, striking his leg below the knee, causing a clear break of the bone. Dr. Ego dressed the wound, assisted by Dr. Brown, and he is progressing favorably. We hope for his speedy recovery.

The remains of the late William Henry Abbott were laid at rest in the Methodist cemetery at Berkley, last Tuesday, Feb. 9th. He was brought up on the farm a mile west of Berkeley, where he resided until a few months ago. He had been a sufferer but kept up cheerfully to the last. The large assembly which followed his remains to their last resting place showed a high esteem in which he was held. One sister, Mrs. John McEwen, of Markdale, survives. Her sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones in their hour of affliction.
