Fisher—Blackburn—The residence Mr. and Mrs. John Blackburn was the scene of a pretty wedding at six o'clock on Wednesday evening, April 16th, when their only daughter, Violet May, became the bride of Mr. Thos. J. Fisher, of this village, only son of Mr. Jas. Fisher, fourth line, Artemesia. The ceremony, which took place beneath a prettily decorated arch; was performed by Rev. G. S. Milligan, M.A., pastor of Chalmers' Church here. Miss Edna Fisher, sister of the groom, played the wedding march, to the strains of which the bride, leaning on . the arm of her father, entered the parlor and looked very pretty in a dainty gown of cream embroidered net over silk. The bride's going away costume was a pea green cloth with hat to match. The young couple were unattended. After the ceremony, the guests, about fifty in number, extended hearty congratulations to the bride and groom, a very highly esteemed young couple. A dainty vedding supper was served and an enjoyable evening was spent by the company. The bride was the recipient of a large number of peautiful wedding presents, the gift of the groom being a silver ervice. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher ave settled in their new home nere, occupying the residence on Sydenham street, owned by Mr. Trimble, A large circle of friends with whom we join, wish them appiness and prosperity.
