

Bench-Tailored Worsted Suits

At Popular Prices.

IT is a primal, basic fact on all construction work—a finished product can be no better than its raw materials. This is equally true, whether you build railroads or clothes.

Our Bench-tailored Worsted Suits are better because they have a better beginning, and they continue to grow better through every process of making down to the last stitch in the button holes. This week we are giving special value in bench-tailored Worsted Suits at ### $12 and $15.

Come in and see them before you buy.

Of course we can also show you the cheaper lines at $6.00, $7.50 and $9.00.

Summer Hats.

Our stock of Summer Hats is now at its best. We are offering a fine selection of Panamas, Boaters, Snap Brim and Javas at prices ranging from 50c to $5.00.

Tan Patent Shoes

Have you seen the latest novelty in MENS' FOOTWEAR? It is the Tan Patent Shoe, and as usual we are the first to show it. We will be pleased to show it to you. We are carrying a great assortment in Tan Oxfords at $3.25 and $4.50.

Hawken--Taylor.

The residence of Mrs. W. Taylor, "Fairfield Farm," was the scene of a pretty wedding at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, June 14th, when her youngest daughter, Rose, became the bride of Mr. W. A. Hawken, of Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jos. Young, Markdale. Mrs. Dr. Brown played the wedding march, to the strains of which the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Frank, entered the parlor and looked very pretty in a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The young couple were unattended. After the ceremony the guests, about one hundred and fifty, extended hearty congratulations to the bride and groom, a very highly esteemed young couple. A dainty wedding supper was served and an enjoyable evening was spent by the company. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawken have settled in their new home in Flesherton. A large number of friends, with whom we join, wish them happiness and prosperity.

Hainer--Young.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Young, Berkeley, on Wednesday, June 21st, when their daughter, Charlotte L., became the bride of Mr. Fred Hainer, a prosperous young farmer, of that vicinity. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. M. Phalen, Presbyterian pastor, of Markdale, in the presence of a large company of invited guests. The bride was prettily attired in a white silk dress with a bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a handsome bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her friend, Miss Fern Watson, of Markdale, who wore pink silk and carried pink carnations. Mr. Thos. Young, brother of the bride, ably supported the groom. The gifts to the bride were numerous and costly, an evidence of her great popularity in the neighborhood. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and chain, and the bridesmaid a gold watch job. After the wedding congratulations were showered on the young couple, and all sat down to a choice dejeuner, which was heartily partaken of. Mr. and Mrs. Hainer left on a honeymoon trip to Sault Ste. Marie. They have the very best wishes of all for a long and happy wedded life.

Markdale 4, Hanover 3.

On Coronation Day the lacrosse hopefuls of Germantown (Hanover) gave the local twelve a run for their money in the Championship match on King Edward Park.

The home team started off strong, and succeeded in netting the rubber twice during the first quarter, while the visitors were unable to do a single trick. The second quarter was a contest, the locals had overshot themselves in the first quarter and began to show signs of lack of condition. However, they fought hard and managed to prevent the opponents from scoring and at half time the game stood 2-0 in their favor.

The third quarter was purely in the hands of the visitors and while the locals scored one the visitors scored two and apparently had the whip end, when the whistle blew. The fourth quarter was very exciting. The locals were desperate in their efforts to retain their point of vantage but Hanover scored again, making the total 3 all. This served merely as a southern breeze to the home brews and once more taking the bit in their teeth they broke away and landed a goal in their opponents' nets and thus the game ended 3-4 in favor of Markdale.

During the last quarter an accident occurred which was one of the regrettable features of the struggle. Wendorf, of Hanover, was struck on the head by one of his own team and was carried off the field in an unconscious condition. We understand that he is still in a precarious state.
