Markdale Agricultural Society

2023 a magnificent day for their first year's Friday last—and we learn the Friday was one of the best in the history of the Society. During the day "Minnie" Bell, who is in the rear for all, coming the night heats. Mr. H. C. Duff, Agricultural Representative of Markdale, had a tent on the grounds and was kept busy distributing leaflets and imparting information to the farmers.

Rev. Mr. Stanley, of Walters Falls, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Church on Sunday last in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Young, who was attending a convocation in Toronto. Mr. Stanley is indeed a very able exponent of the Truth and delivered two excellent addresses which were greatly appreciated and impressed the large congregations present. Markdale Methodists will be glad of another opportunity of hearing Rev. Mr. Stanley.

A meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. L. McFarland on Saturday afternoon. A large representation of ladies from the Walters Falls branch was present and conducted the meeting. Excellent papers were given by Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. Proud and Mrs. Ward, also a reading by Miss Sutherland and a short and enthusiastic address by the President, Mrs. Wilson. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

The trial of Earl Wilson and Fred Ballard, the former for displaying obscene pictures and the latter for manufacturing same, came off in Owen Sound on Monday before His Honor Judge Withfield, Crown Attorney Armstrong presenting, and Mr. J.H. Wallace, of Lucas, Raney & Wallace, for the defendants. The Judge was disposed to take a very lenient view of the case. Wilson and Ballard was given five years with suspended sentence.

Matthews, the baker, has got comfortably settled in his new quarters opposite the old Standard block.

McFarland & Co. are making a good showing of Men's College Ulster Overcoats this week. See the special one at $8.10.

Death of Mrs. W. K. Flesher.

At the advanced age of eighty-six years, and eight months, and being the gratification of her expressed desire during her last illness that the Lord of Life would take her to rest before the storms of another winter would sweep over the land, Mrs. William K. Flesher passed peacefully away on Saturday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, Dr. T. S. Sproule, M. P. Mrs. Flesher's long Christian, being a member of the Flesherton Methodist Church during the years of her long residence there. Her sweetness, simplicity and sympathy won every heart that ever communed with her. One sister, at the age of ninety-one, still resides in England. To Mr. and Mrs. Flesher were born three boys and three girls, of whom the following survive: Mrs. J. W. Ansley, of St. Catherine's; Mrs. T. S. Sproule, Markdale; John Flesher, of New Zealand; and an adopted daughter, Ida, now Mrs. Abram, of England.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Flesherton cemetery, Rev. Jos. Young conducting a short service at the house before the funeral cortege took its departure. The pall bearers were: Messrs. W. J. Bellamy, W. G. Pickell, Wm. Flesher, John Beard, Thos. Clayton and R. J. Sproule.

We may conclude our notice of the illustrious life with a reproduction of the following sentiments shaped into poetic form by Mary F. Butts, of Johnston, Vermont:

Enter within the Feeth, thou art weary one;
Shut fast the door against the world's control,
There thou wilt find the peace God promised thee,
There thou wilt meet the Bridegroom of the soul.

'Tis but a step from grief and discontent
To that still region where the Heavenly Guest
Still calls in tender accents as of old,
"Come unto Me, and I will give thee rest."

Winlaw--Matheson.

The marriage of Miss Alicia Matheson, daughter of Mrs. Donald Matheson, to Mr. Nelson Winlaw, of Nelson, B. C., took place very quietly on Tuesday the 10th inst., at the home of the bride's mother at Massie, Ont.

There are 356 boys and 133 girls in attendance at the O. A. C. and Macdonald Institute, Guelph, the largest in the history of the Institution.

On Thanksgiving evening, Oct. 30, the Literary Committee of the Methodist Epworth League will present the "Trial Scene of the Merchant of Venice." Music will be interspersed and refreshments served. Admission 10c. Everybody welcome.

Assistant Appointed.

Mr. C. A. Galbraith, a graduate of Ontario College of Agriculture, has been appointed Assistant Director of the Grey County Agricultural Department. Mr. Galbraith spent the early part of his life on the home farm in Halton County, and since then has had an opportunity of doing special work on weeds, insects, and plant diseases. His training will prove exceedingly valuable in the work that the Department purposes carrying out during the coming winter. The Government has already seen fit to appoint an assistant in the office here to show that they recognize the importance of the work and the large agricultural section to be served by the branch here.

Very quiet wedding took place at "Ingleham" on Wednesday of Oct. 11th, when Edna, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Beattie, was in marriage to Mr. Grover Willis, of Vancouver, B. C. A few of the immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. J. Wilson, B.A., B.D., of Flesherton, a former pastor of the Methodist Church. The bride looked very charming in a gown of white ivory satin with white and lace drapings, which was away by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Dell, and Miss Lohita, sister of the bride, played the Wedding March. The gifts to the bride were handsome and numerous, and the groom being a cameo on a gold chain, and to the bridesmaid a pearl ring.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis left on the afternoon train for points in Western Ontario, returning to Vancouver on Saturday. On Monday they left for Vancouver, and wish of a large circle of friends follow them to their new home.

It is said to be a small but they are a big price. Walker has as fine a lot as could wish for, two of which were left at the Standard on Friday last which weighed 23 lbs. These were some medium sized ones.
