BY STAFF REPORTERS

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)
The news was received here today (Monday) of the death at Toronto of Mr. Edward Whitten, who moved his family from here to the city in October last. He was then in poor health and typhoid developed from which he failed to rally. The remains will be brought in for burial on Tuesday. His widow, one son and two daughters survive; also three brothers, John and Robert, of Toronto and Thomas, near Markdale. Mr. Whitten resided here for many years and was an industrious and respected citizen.

The Methodist Sunday School Anniversary on New Year's evening was again very successful. After the usual tea the auditorium of the church was packed to the doors and a free-will offering given amounting to over $60.00. The programme was varied and of the usual interest. Many of the little tots were very pleasing in their parts. The pastor presided.

Mr. Fred Ryder, a former resident of this place died on Friday last in the hospital in Toronto where he has been for several weeks under treatment for stomach and heart trouble. The remains were brought here on Saturday for interment in the public cemetery beside those of his wife who died eight years ago. The burial services of the Orange Order were conducted by the members of Proton Station lodge of which Mr. Ryder was an old member. He was 53 years of age and is survived by two sons living in Toronto.

TRAVERTON

(Special to The Standard.)
The Old Year died hard, the New Year was ushered in mid howling winds and storms tempestuous.

Owing to Christmas feasting and the presence of kindred, our last week's budget failed to materialize, so several interesting items were neglected.

Misses Flo and Mabel Hunt arrived at the cosy homestead from Manitoba just in time for family reunion at Christmas.

Mrs. Alf. Smith and her son, James, of Hamilton, have spent part of the holiday season at the home of Mr. E. W. Hunt.

Mr. John Meagher was re-elected Trustee in Sep. S.S. No. 7, and Mr. Tom Timmins had the honor of being elected in No. 5.

Mrs. Ed. Embury, of Toronto, spent over the week-end at the home of her brother, Mr. W. J. Cook.

Master Vincent Morrison, student, is home from Toronto for the holiday season. He leaves on Monday next for St. Michael's College.

Miss Myrtle McClellin and her grandma are spending a week visiting kindred in Durham.

Mr. Frank Meagher sold a fine young horse in Markdale last week at a fancy price.

One of the items that should have appeared last week was the success of the Sunday School Christmas Tree held in the Baptist Church on the 10th con. a few days before Christmas. The church was tastefully decorated, the program was a varied and interesting one, and the tree was a beauty. Too much credit cannot be given Supt. Mr. Wm. Beaton and his wife; Miss Sarah Flora McArthur; Mr. Angus McIntosh, and several others who so ably assisted. The boys and girls were well remembered by generous Santa Claus.

Zionites held their festival on the Friday eve before Christmas. As the snow disappeared that afternoon, the crowd was not so large as usual, but the program was of the highest order. Mrs. J. Lova had the children trained to a remarkable degree of proficiency and the young folk excelled their best records heretofore in music and dialogue.

For the past six months Messrs. Alex. and Will Anderson with their wives and families have been visiting at the home of their boyhood. They left for their home in Montana on Tuesday of last week, bearing with them many pleasant memories. Mrs. Wm. Anderson sr. accompanied them as far as Toronto where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wellwood.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch for the first symptom, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.

Walters Falls
(Special to The Standard.)

Dr. McCullough and Messer Harry went down to the former's home at Georgetown for Xmas.

Mr. W. J. McGuire spent Xmas with friends in Toronto.

Mr. Cameron, teacher, is spending the holiday season at his home in Vachell.

Mr. D. Brown went to Welland for Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lemon entertained a number of friends on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Watson spent a couple of days in Owen Sound last week.

Christmas and New Year's services were conducted in all the churches here, and the congregations were unusually large.

The Concert and Xmas Tree held in the C.O.O.F. hall by the Sunday School of St. Philip's Church on Thursday, Dec. 21st, was a splendid success. There was a good attendance and the programme was very much enjoyed by all present. Two Ninas. Trees were laden with beautiful gifts and things for the children, Rev. Mr. Ryan acting as chairman.

Mr. Cameron, teacher, gave a splendid concert at the closing of school. A number of young people and also the parents of the children were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The Methodist Church and Sunday School gave a splendid concert in the C.O.O.F. hall on Xmas night, instead of the usual tea-meeting and concert, and their expectations were far exceeded by the results. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and standing room was hardly available for the late-comers. There was an excellent program of local talent, assisted by the Massie choir, who rendered a number of beautiful selections, and also a couple of quartettes which were appreciated. The success of the concert is mainly due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. (Rev.) A. P. Stanley, who was an incessant worker and trained the children and prepared the program in an able manner. After all expenses were paid seventy dollars was cleared which shows the fine proceeds of the evening. Rev. A. P. Stanley was chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Carney entertained a number of young people on New Year's night, and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Miss George Bonnell left on Monday morning for Owen Sound to take a course in the Business College.

Toronto building permits for 1911 amounted to over twenty-three million dollars, while its population increased thirty three thousand. The Queen city is growing some.

Berkeley
(Special to The Standard.)
A happy New Year to the Standard and all its readers.

Mr. Alex. McTaggart's son, Jimmie, met with a serious accident last week which might have proved fatal. A revolver with which he was playing and in which a bullet had been left by mistake went off. The bullet penetrated his neck between the wind-pipe and the jugular vein but without serious injury and under the doctor's care Jimmie will soon be out again.

Mr. William Bolt is in the hospital in Toronto at present undergoing an operation for his eye sight. We hope the operation will prove successful and that his sight will be perfectly restored.

Mr. Carey Treadgold and son, George, have removed from our midst to London. Mr. J. Wright has returned from the west and now occupies the house vacated by Mr. Treadgold.

We are sorry to learn of Miss Lackey's resignation as teacher of No. 70 school. Miss M. McCadden, of Markdale suburbs, has been engaged to teach the school for the coming year.

Mr. Harry David is on the sick list at present but we hope to see him out soon again.

Miss Amy Gillespie is home from Blantyre for the holidays.

Miss Mary and Isaac Elder returned from the west last week.

Two brothers also survive, Robert in Mono and Joshua at Meafors.—Herald.

Weir Won in Glenelg.

By a good safe majority of 88 Mr. William Weir was elected Reeve of Glenelg on Monday. Thos. Nichol, J. A. McMillan, Jps. Young and Robert Lindsay were elected to the council board. Our Traverton correspondent gives the following particulars of the election: Despite the storm and bad roads a big vote was polled all over the Township of Glenelg on Monday. Mr. McNally made a splendid run for the reeve-ship, but the rate-payers considered the deputy-reeve was entitled to promotion. Glenelg has lost an able devoted official in losing John McNally. Mr. T. Nichol again heads the poll. His popularity never fails. Mr. J. A. McMillan, "The old war-horse" comes a close second. "His thirty-four years since he was first elected and has been only two or three years out of office in all that time. Messrs. Joseph Young and Robt. Lindsay are new men, but their reputations were such that the electors placed them in office with only a vote betwixt them.—Mr. George Peart was late in getting into the contest, but made a magnificent run, dropping out by a bare half-dozen votes. Another year he will make an easy winner.
