ROCKYN

(Special to The Standard.) (Too late for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clugston invited about thirty of their friends in on Tuesday evening, April 2, it being the fourth anniversary of their marriage. The guests took advantage of the occasion to give them a granite and tin shower. Mrs. Clugston was also presented with a beautiful bouquet of carnations by little Miss Annie Patton. A jolly evening was spent.

Mrs. Thos. Lankires entertained on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Prentice, who has resigned her position as teacher of the Fairmount school.

Mr. Emerson Ward left on Tuesday for the West. Our best wishes follow him.

(This Week's Items)

Rev. Mr. Beveridge has returned from a short visit with his mother in Toronto.

Mr. Howard Hopkins spent the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hopkins.

Miss Lillie Abercrombie has taken a position as clerk in Mr. Yeadell's store and Miss Bertha Boyd is similarly employed by Mr. N. L. Curry.

Mrs. Henry Thomson and children, who have been critically ill, have taken a decided change for the better.

Miss Eleanor Wilson, who has resided in the village during the winter, has gone to Griersville for the summer. Our school is without a teacher. Surely something ought to be done to remedy this state of affairs. The deficiency in teachers appears to be on the increase.

VANDELEUR

(Special to The Standard.)

The sweet singers of the pond are here again.

The residence of Mr. Samuel Bowles was struck by lightning but not seriously damaged during the rather severe electric storm which passed over this vicinity last Sunday evening.

Miss Cora Hutchinson, who is attending High School in Markdale spent the holidays at her home here.

Mr. Thomas Shannon, of Melanethon is visiting his brother, George, of this place.

Miss Rose Gilbert is spending a few days with friends in Markdale.

The Misses Flossie Thurston and Irene Gaudin, of Flesherton, visited with Miss Tillie Buchanan recently.

Mr. Will Hutchinson was the first to commence plowing operations in this neighborhood.

A number of gentlemen members of the S. O. T. treated the Division to caudies at their meeting last Friday evening, which was very much appreciated.

Councillor Graham has been busy during the past week repairing the roads which were damaged by the floods of a week ago.

School reopened after the holidays on Tuesday of this week.

KIMBERLEY

(Special to The Standard.)

Beautiful spring weather. The Beaver river is on its annual rampage.

Mrs. Eber Smith is holidaying with friends in Toronto.

Principal Johnson of our Continuation School spent Easter vacation at his parental home at Listowel.

Messrs. J. E. and Will G. Hammond, Messrs. Chas. E. Stuart, Parry Sound; Victor Ellis, Hamilton; and Misses Eva McGee, Cherry Grove; Della Abercrombie, Heathcote and May Hutchinson, of Markdale, spent Easter vacation at their respective parental homes here.

R. R. Fawcett spent a few days in Collingwood.

Born—On April 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hill, a daughter.

The Grey Co. Dep't. of Agriculture have leased Mr. W. T. Ellis' apple orchard for demonstration purposes.

Mr. Albert Ellis returned home on Saturday from Parry Sound District, where he has spent the past 5 or 6 months lumbering.

Quite a large number of young people of both sexes journeyed over to Mr. Henry Cargo's sugar bush on Friday night of last week, where they boiled down a considerable amount of sap into taffy, after which it was hastily devoured by the hungry multitude. The singing of the National Anthem about midnight concluded a very pleasant evening spent before the camp fire among the sugar maples. No, the sap was not stolen, but was previously purchased from Mr. Cargo.

A number of leek festivals were held in our burg during the past week.

The regular monthly meeting of the local branch of the O. W. I. will be held in the Public Hall on Thursday afternoon, April 25, at 2.30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

PRINTING IN CHINA.

Often No Presses Are Used, a Pair of Brushes Doing the Work.

The Chinese assert that the art of printing was discovered in China about fifty years before the Christian era. Until the discovery of the art of papermaking, A. D. 95, they printed on silk or cloth cut in the form of leaves. The method employed to this day by many native Chinese printers is as follows:

No printing press is used. The delicate nature of the Chinese paper would not admit of it. When the blocks are engraved, the paper cut and the ink ready one man with his brush will print a large number of sheets in a day.

The block to be printed must be placed perfectly level and secured firmly. The printer has two brushes, one of them stiffer than the other, which he can hold in his hand and use at either end.

He dips it into the ink and rubs the block with it, taking care not to moisten it too much or leave it too dry. If it were wetted too much the characters would be blurred; if too little, they would not print. When once the block is got into the proper condition he can print three or four impressions without dipping his brush into the ink again.

The second brush is used to rub over the paper with a small degree of pressure, that it may take the impression. This it does easily, for, not being sized with alum, it receives the ink the instant it comes in contact with it. It is only necessary that the brush should be passed over every part of the sheet with a greater or smaller degree of pressure and repeated in proportion as the printer finds there is more or less ink upon the block.—Harper's Weekly.

MIXED RELATIONS.

A Family Problem a Lawyer Did Not Care to Tackle.

A lawyer received a call from a new client, a man bent upon recovering a sum of money advanced upon a note and not repaid.

"Who is the debtor?" asked the lawyer.

"Oh, she's a relative of mine."

"How nearly related?"

"Very nearly."

"But, my dear sir," persisted the lawyer, "you must be more explicit."

"Well, she may be my mother-in-law."

"May be? Then you are likely to marry her daughter?"

"I've already married the daughter."

"Then, of course, the defendant is your mother-in-law."

"Perhaps you'd better hear the whole story," returned the client.

"You see, a year ago we lived together, my son and I. Across the way lived the Widow Foster and her daughter Mary. I married Mary, and my son married the widow. Now perhaps you can tell me whether my son's wife is my mother-in-law or my daughter-in-law."

The lawyer did not answer. The problem was unfamiliar. He was not ready.

"I don't think I can take your case," he said. "It presents too many complications."

"Very well," returned the man, taking his hat despondently. "But there's one thing I forgot. Since our double wedding a child has been born to each of us. What relation are those two children to each other?"

Bagpipes. Bagpipes, mentioned in Jeremiah xlviii, 3d. "Mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, like pipes for the men of Kir-hers," and elsewhere in Scripture were used also by the early Egyptians. Both Greeks and Romans knew the instrument, for a coin of Nero shows upon one side the tibia utricularis, a bag with two reeds and nine pipes. Procopius also, who wrote about 550 A. D., asserts that Roman soldiers sometimes marched to the sound of the bagpipes, and it is not impossible that they introduced them into the British islands. The earliest, more modern reference to them is in an Irish MS. of 1150, and an Irish illuminated MS. of 1390 depicts a pig playing on the bagpipes. The Scottish highlanders were the first and only people to use the great war pipe, as the highland regiments still do.

Supply on the Way. Rufus Grogan is one of the managers of the biggest store in his town. The slogan of the store is, "We Sell Everything."

When Rufus is asked for anything the store doesn't happen to have on hand he always says, "We are out of that just now, but we have a carload coming." And "Rufus' carload" is a local joke.

"Rufus" asked a customer one day, "do you know where I can get a tired girl?"

"Well," said Rufus, "we haven't any now, but we have a carload coming."—Saturday Evening Post.

Justly Impatient. In a Newark factory two workmen were shouting at each other up and down an elevator shaft.

"Hard on," cried one. "Can ye na understand th' English language? I'm tellin' ye to hand on, ye loon!"—Newark News.

Nothing Wasted. The Customer—Aren't you wasting a good deal of that steak in trimming it? The Butcher—No, ma'am. I weighed it first.—London Sketch.
