LONDONERS GO HATLESS.

I wonder whether the hat as an indispensable article of dress will some day go out of fashion altogether? For some years past quite a number of every-day children have been taking their walks abroad in the parks...

THE FARMER'S WIFE.
(Katherine A. Clarke.)

I like to rise up early
And get the washing done,
When the sun is shining bright
And the dew is in the clover.

THE MICROBE OF SPRING.

Spring is interesting to others besides poets and lovers. Scientific men have been studying its way and its power, and they do not veil it as it is due to something widely different from the warming rays of the sun.

PRICES IN GERMANY.

Since 1900 the price of bread has risen 11 per cent, in Germany, the price of beef 13 per cent, and pork 33 per cent. In Essen, by the figures of the Krupp Corporation, the price of flour in 1900 was 30 per cent, of black bread had risen 20 per cent, potatoes, 20 per cent, and 54 per cent, and bacon 30 per cent.—Bakers' Weekly.

THE DOERS OF THE LITTLE.

The great "phone-line" of human life is a bearing, earnest, unselfish, uncomplaining, who will do the useful little things. The admirals and the brigadiers come first, but the doers of the little are the men who will do the work in the end.

STORY OF SCOTCH THRIFT.

It was in the smoking compartment, and he turned to the man on his right with the question, "Have you a match?" The reply was a regretful negative.

THE LESSON OF THE TREE.

Throughout the long and brilliant summer it was majestic in beauty, content with foliage, and every branch was rich with fruit.

Minard's Liniment used by Physicians

Pigeon's Long Flight for its Mate. "He remembers his old, racing days, when he was in the habit of flying about in the open air, and it was not until he had seen his mate in the air that he realized the value of his wings."

Minard's Liniment used by Physicians

I cured a horse of the mange with MINARD'S LINIMENT. CHRISTOPHER SAUNDERS, Dalhousie.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

"Spanking does not cure children of bad habits. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. A. Summers, box 75, a Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother but one extra home remedy, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your child troubles you in this way. Don't blame the child, for all children are alike. It is the mother who should be blamed. This treatment also cures adult constipation by the use of the same medicine."

THE CHURCH.

The church exists for the community, and it is the duty of the church to be in the front of the community, not behind it.
