LOCAL and GENERAL

Things have already begun to show signs of cheap rates for Domestic Day on page 8.

The next meeting of the W.M.S.

Church will be held at the gospel hall Tuesday, July 9th.

The Ladies' Aid Annual Garden picnic, which was announced for July 10th, has been postponed until August 1st.

Plans for the erection of the Markdale Drill Hall are being advised for this week in The Standard.

Just to hand—Another car of household flour, also bran and shorts and Victor Feed always in stock at J. E. Walker.

At the regular monthly meeting of Markdale Council on Monday evening, the business consisted in the passing of a list of accounts.

Mr. T. C. Campbell, a pioneer of the place and who is 80 years of age, is critically ill. His niece

Mr. N. McMartin, of Mimico, is visiting him.

Mr. J. E. Boates, chief of our Local Lodge, who is going West to re-organize a fraternal send-off at Markdale House Tuesday evening to the members of the brigade to see a real old farmers' club picnic in the old Scotch style.

A great day's reunion of Arterial Markdale Sisterhood

Association will be held at Methodist Church, Mark-dale, Saturday, June 27, sessions at 2.30 and 7.15 p.

Rev. Mr. W. attended last Sunday and an able practi-cian returning to the city of thanks and the service.

The Institute meeting on Saturday was of an interesting character, attended by the

own and surrounding Government

Miss Wood, of Toronto, were present and were listened to

Miss Constance

Waddington. The Institute have been discontinued since September.

Miss Mary Burnett, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Burnside, to Markdale, formerly

Markdale, took place quietly in Tuesday. The bride was dressed in blue and white, and was received a large handsome presents from town and elsewhere. Mr.

will reside in Sudley, the best wishes of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. W. attended a successful party on the King Edward last Friday evening attended by a large downstream and adjoining community of the church supper and a match between the amateur and a professional football team.

The social parties generally in evidenced a desire to enjoy themselves.

The band, also stirring select and the pastor of the church.

Mr. W. was sick with his illness in this annual gathering and the remarks were on the fact that he was too weak to attend the wedding.

He had a very large attendance of the late afternoon Tuesday last testifying to the deep sympathy of the deceased in the loss which they sustained. The service was at Christ Church which was at its most capacity, members of the C.O.F. to the number of 150, occupying the front pews.

The many and beautiful floral contributions showed the deep afection felt for him by his many friends and acquaintances. The star and the chalice were draped purple and black. The hymns were "On the Resurrection Morning," "A few more years shall roll," and "Never My God, to the test." "We're also ready," Matt.

24, H., and spoke of the necessity of always being prepared for death and what that preparation involved. A short service was held at the house previous to leaving for the church.

Death of Henry Bonnell

Welland county council will construct twenty-five miles of good roads this year.
