

BECAME KING OF ARAUCANIA

HE WAS ONLY THE SON OF A FRENCH BUTCHER.

Humor and Tragedy Are Both Found in This Little Tale.

I had been talking to a Frenchman of the adventurous Britshers who get up and go out into the world to spread the influence of the old country, writes John N. Raphael in the London Express. We had been talking about Rhodes and others of this kind. We had talked of the hundred unknown men of Britain who are at the present moment in bold corners of the world helping foreign potentates to rule their domains, and indirectly winning new colonies for Britain. "I never thought you Frenchmen do very much of that sort of thing," I said. "But the Frenchmen are brave and good," said my friend, "but the anti-Socialists do not encourage us to be good."

"Marguerite Tounens, princess no longer, went to live in Denmark to be near the grave of her husband. Her money gave out, her poor father could help her no longer, the world forgot all about her, and most people thought that she was dead. And a few days ago, in the Rygås Hospital, died a handsome old woman of 60, a French woman with a Spanish name, who had given French lessons for 30 years to King Orelie, her husband. Marguerite Tounens did not. I had never heard of her, and now Frenchmen may remember the name, though it was the name of a Frenchman who was not less than 50 years ago."

HOW TO READ CHARACTER.

Look of a Woman's Mouth to See What She Really Is.

Kings, Presidents, and other men in power have made the first visit to Europe by King of Norway. The King mentioned is the Queen will attend the royal yacht, which will be in the winter visits made with the King of Norway.

It is anxious to make it known he wishes to be in Southern Europe to be posted autumn a short time may be a the Czar of Russia in

King of Philippe I.

"Oh, he has a very real man," my friend said. "His kingdom was a very real kingdom, and might have been France if we had understood instead of laughing."

"Antoine Tounens was the son of a Frenchman. He was a swindler, and as his father gave him a good education, he became clever and did pretty well. But the life of adventure was in his blood, and he could not remain at home. First he went to Paris, then to America, then to Brazil, then to Argentina, then to Patagonia, then to Chile, then to Peru, adventure followed him, first, then, the unexplored wildness across the ocean. And in Chile he and a few friends established their legal studies and little money they possessed to begin adventure.

The other hand, the larger mouth with full, well-proportioned lips, which when closed, form almost a horizontal line, with the corners neither elevated nor depressed, is the indication of truthfulness, loyalty, firmness and justice. This is the mouth for a man to tie to.

On the other hand, the smaller mouth with full, well-proportioned lips, which when closed, form almost a horizontal line, with the corners neither elevated nor depressed, is the indication of truthfulness, loyalty, firmness and justice. This is the mouth for a man to tie to.

The concealed mouth has a short upper lip. When you see such a mouth you may make up your mind that the surest way to gain the good will of its possessor is to flatter her.

The gossamer mouth is wide, with downward curves at the corners.

It is found on the face of persons who tell you disagreeable things about your common acquaintances, as well as of your immediate family. Women with gossiping lips will neglect every duty in life for the sake of setting out with a fresh budget of scandal.

SALLOW FACES.

Often Caused By Tea and Coffee Drinking.

How many persons realize that tea and coffee so disturb digestion that they produce a mucky, yellow complexion?

A ten days' trial of Postum has proven a means, in thousands of cases, of clearing up a bad complexion.

A Washn. young lady tells her experience:

"All of us—father, mother, sister and brother—had used tea and coffee for many years until finally we all had stomach trouble more or less."

"We all were sallow and troubled with pimples, breath bad, disagreeable taste in the mouth, and all of us simply so many bundles of nerves."

"We addressed him as a general. The son of a Frenchman was very little fightful, and made an offer. He was to meet matters over. It was a very clever, sharp-witted, thinking of a bet, there was no need to march across the Aracuanian army. He persuaded himself, drew up a contract as a lawyer, you to become his king.

Antoine Tounens soon showed he was worth, and he was the greatest. Being a Frenchman with an English name, he persuaded himself, was big enough to become a king, he drew up a contract as a lawyer, you to become his king.

A ten days' trial of Postum has proven a means, in thousands of cases, of clearing up a bad complexion.

A Washn. young lady tells her experience:

"All of us—father, mother, sister and brother—had used tea and coffee for many years until finally we all had stomach trouble more or less."

"We all were sallow and troubled with pimples, breath bad, disagreeable taste in the mouth, and all of us simply so many bundles of nerves."

"We didn't realize that tea and coffee caused the trouble until one day we ran out of coffee and went to borrow some from a neighbor. She gave us some Postum and told us to try that."

"Although we started to make it, we all felt sure we would be sick if we missed our strong coffee, but we tried Postum and were surprised to find it delicious."

"We read the statements on the pck., got more and in a month and a half you wouldn't have known us. We all were able to digest our food without any trouble, each one's skin became clear, tongues cleaned off, and nerves in fine condition. We never use anything now but Postum. There is nothing like it. Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont."

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Read to Wellville," in pkgs.

"Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

WHY THEY WENT.

As the Sunday School teacher entered her class room, she saw leaving in great haste a little girl and her still smaller brother.

"Why, Mary, you aren't going away?" she exclaimed in surprise.

"Pleathe, Mith Anne, we've got to go," was the distressed reply.

"Jimmy 'th swallowed hith collection."

WISE.

"What happens when you put the dollar before the man?" bawled the candidate.

"The man goes after it," answered an old farmer in the crowd.

experience for the formation of the brilliant court of Araucanians, which was

HER FATHER'S AMBITION.

"One day, in Germany, she was out yachting with some friends when a sudden gust of wind swept her overboard. A young Danish lieutenant rescued her. He was poor, but good-looking. He won the heart of Princess Marguerite and married her against her father's wish. King Orelie, her father, had hoped that she would marry a young German prince, and was very angry. But his hands were full of state matters at that time, and he did not order the princess back to Araucanians. She was unhappy in her marriage.

"I do not know the details, but I know that one day in her presence her husband drew a pistol and blew out his brains. His body was sent home to Denmark. A few weeks afterwards news came across the ocean of the end of Araucanians, and Europe, which knew less about the details of the distant kingdom or of King Orelie's hopes and ambitions even than I do, was very much annoyed.

"Marguerite Tounens, princess no longer, went to live in Denmark to be near the grave of her husband. Her money gave out, her poor father could help her no longer, the world forgot all about her, and most people thought that she was dead. And a few days ago, in the Rygås Hospital, died a handsome old woman of 60, a French woman with a Spanish name, who had given French lessons for 30 years to King Orelie, her husband. Marguerite Tounens did not. I had never heard of her, and now Frenchmen may remember the name, though it was the name of a Frenchman who was not less than 50 years ago."

HOW TO READ CHARACTER.

Look of a Woman's Mouth to See What She Really Is.

Kings, Presidents, and other men in power have made the first visit to Europe by King of Norway. The King mentioned is the Queen will attend the royal yacht, which will be in the winter visits made with the King of Norway.

It is anxious to make it known he wishes to be in Southern Europe to be posted autumn a short time may be a the Czar of Russia in

King of Philippe I.

"Oh, he has a very real man," my friend said. "His kingdom was a very real kingdom, and might have been France if we had understood instead of laughing."

"Antoine Tounens was the son of a Frenchman. He was a swindler, and as his father gave him a good education, he became clever and did pretty well. But the life of adventure was in his blood, and he could not remain at home. First he went to Paris, then to America, then to Brazil, then to Argentina, then to Chile, then to Peru, adventure followed him, first, then, the unexplored wildness across the ocean. And in Chile he and a few friends established their legal studies and little money they possessed to begin adventure.

On the other hand, the larger mouth with full, well-proportioned lips, which when closed, form almost a horizontal line, with the corners neither elevated nor depressed, is the indication of truthfulness, loyalty, firmness and justice. This is the mouth for a man to tie to.

The concealed mouth has a short upper lip. When you see such a mouth you may make up your mind that the surest way to gain the good will of its possessor is to flatter her.

The gossamer mouth is wide, with downward curves at the corners.

It is found on the face of persons who tell you disagreeable things about your common acquaintances, as well as of your immediate family. Women with gossiping lips will neglect every duty in life for the sake of setting out with a fresh budget of scandal.

SALLOW FACES.

Often Caused By Tea and Coffee Drinking.

How many persons realize that tea and coffee so disturb digestion that they produce a mucky, yellow complexion?

A ten days' trial of Postum has proven a means, in thousands of cases, of clearing up a bad complexion.

A Washn. young lady tells her experience:

"All of us—father, mother, sister and brother—had used tea and coffee for many years until finally we all had stomach trouble more or less."

"We all were sallow and troubled with pimples, breath bad, disagreeable taste in the mouth, and all of us simply so many bundles of nerves."

"We addressed him as a general. The son of a Frenchman was very little fightful, and made an offer. He was to meet matters over. It was a very clever, sharp-witted, thinking of a bet, there was no need to march across the Aracuanian army. He persuaded himself, was big enough to become a king, he drew up a contract as a lawyer, you to become his king.

Antoine Tounens soon showed he was worth, and he was the greatest. Being a Frenchman with an English name, he persuaded himself, was big enough to become a king, he drew up a contract as a lawyer, you to become his king.

A ten days' trial of Postum has proven a means, in thousands of cases, of clearing up a bad complexion.

A Washn. young lady tells her experience:

"All of us—father, mother, sister and brother—had used tea and coffee for many years until finally we all had stomach trouble more or less."

"We all were sallow and troubled with pimples, breath bad, disagreeable taste in the mouth, and all of us simply so many bundles of nerves."

"We didn't realize that tea and coffee caused the trouble until one day we ran out of coffee and went to borrow some from a neighbor. She gave us some Postum and told us to try that."

"Although we started to make it, we all felt sure we would be sick if we missed our strong coffee, but we tried Postum and were surprised to find it delicious."

"We read the statements on the pck., got more and in a month and a half you wouldn't have known us. We all were able to digest our food without any trouble, each one's skin became clear, tongues cleaned off, and nerves in fine condition. We never use anything now but Postum. There is nothing like it. Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont."

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Read to Wellville," in pkgs.

"Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

WHY THEY WENT.

As the Sunday School teacher entered her class room, she saw leaving in great haste a little girl and her still smaller brother.

"Why, Mary, you aren't going away?" she exclaimed in surprise.

"Pleathe, Mith Anne, we've got to go," was the distressed reply.

"Jimmy 'th swallowed hith collection."

WISE.

"What happens when you put the dollar before the man?" bawled the candidate.

"The man goes after it," answered an old farmer in the crowd.

experience

for the formation

of

the brilliant

court

of Araucanians,

which was such a

as

the

was

the

was