

THE WHITE LADY; OR, WHAT THE THURSDAY SAID.

He was a quiet little fellow, and I was glad of his company. We shared our copper pennies while they lasted, and when they were gone, we went to bed for a day or two, and then stepped in the streets by night. Sometimes we got a box of "songs" by the door, and carried them to the boys who were passing. But bread was dear, and I was sure that we would starve before we had time to get to bed.

I could not go to work. My body was weak, and my mind was troubled. I had no money to buy food, and I was sure that I would starve before I could get to bed.

When I awoke in the morning, I found myself alone. I had no money to buy food, and I was sure that I would starve before I could get to bed.

God bless you! Thank you for the bread. I have had a good meal, and I am well.

PS. If you can't hold out, try the medicine.

The worst of all the instructors was an English corporal named Bates. I remember him from his days in the army, and he was a man who had seen many a hard day's work. He was a man who had seen many a hard day's work, and he was a man who had seen many a hard day's work.

DAINTY DISHES

Much of the pleasure of life is lost in the worry of preparing meals. Borzell in the hands of a resourceful woman solves the problem. Borzell stirred simply into hot water and flavored to taste, making an excellent lentil soup. Meats reheated have their original flavor restored and enhanced by a little Borzell. Borzell Sandwiches are in constant demand by old and young, especially by children. Borzell Tea-hot or cold—can be served at any time with crackers, and as a last-minute runner. Borzell is unequalled.

Nut and Vegetable Pie.—One cup fresh lima beans (the dry ones will do), one cup almonds and peanuts mixed, one cup thin white sauce, two hard-boiled eggs, two or three small onions sliced, six medium-sized potatoes, seasoning of salt and pepper. Wash one-half of the potatoes, cook the beans and potatoes and blanch the nuts. Place a layer of beans in the bottom of the baking dish, then a layer of diced potatoes. Repeat until the materials have been used. Pour over all the white sauce. Cover the top with the mashed potato, brush over with egg and milk and bake for thirty minutes in a hot oven.

Apple Meringue Pie.—Choose ripe, juicy apples; pare and cook until tender; season with nutmeg and lemon; sweeten to taste; press through a sieve and fill nicely baked shell with the mixture. Cover with a meringue made by beating a stiff froth of two or three egg whites and adding a tablespoon of powdered sugar to each white. Bake in a moderate oven until meringue is firm.

Cheese Souffle.—Two tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour, one-half cup milk, one-half teaspoon salt, a dash of paprika, three-quarters cup grated cheese and three eggs. Make a white sauce of the butter, flour and milk in a double boiler, add seasonings and grate the cheese into it. Beat the egg whites and add to the mixture. Bake in a moderate oven until firm. Serve with a crisp salad.

Stuffed Tomato Salad.—Choose small tomatoes, remove the skins and pulp. Fill with either diced cucumber and onion or with cabbage and green pepper salad. Serve on fresh nasturtium leaves, using bouquets for garnish.

Frozen Pudding.—One quart milk, four eggs, three-quarters cup sugar, one-quarter pound each of nuts, figs and raisins. Make a soft custard of the milk, eggs and sugar. When cool, freeze, adding the fruits when half frozen.

Short-Cooked Egg and Noodle Soup.—Boil eggs until tender. Arrange alternating layers of noodles and sliced eggs in buttered baking dish, covering each layer with thin white sauce. May be a layer of mushrooms in the middle. Cover the top with buttered crumbs and grated cheese. Bake until very hot.
