

The Standard, Mr. J. Sewell and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cook, of Boston, are the home of her son, William Haskett, of Toronto, at the present time.

Acherson of Tobermory, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Nunner, of last week with their son, Mr. R. Wiley, has his estate, Buntington, Elliott farm, way to attend the ladies Auxiliary. Mrs. Rodham had experience which they repeated for some driving a spirituous drink right at becoming unmanageable around on the buggy, throwing Mrs. Mrs. Bush was the fence while on Mrs. Rodham's hand and took them back to their home. Rodham has had most of his driving experience with Mr. Wiley, who is a friend of the family.

Mr. R. Wiley has his estate, Buntington, Elliott farm, way to attend the ladies Auxiliary. Mrs. Rodham had experience which they repeated for some driving a spirituous drink right at becoming unmanageable around on the buggy, throwing Mrs. Mrs. Bush was the fence while on Mrs. Rodham's hand and took them back to their home. Rodham has had most of his driving experience with Mr. Wiley, who is a friend of the family.

KLYN

Mr. J. S.

Mr. J. S.