Lindsay

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

A despatch from Lindsay The large mill belonging to the Baker Lumber Company was totally destroyed by fife late Saturday night. The blaze was first noticed by the nightwatchman, who sent in the alarm, which promptly responded to by the firemen. Before the latter arrived the fire had made great headway and their efforts failed to save the building. Besides the building and machinery, 10 or 12 thousand pieces of barrel headings were consumed. The mill, when in operation, employs seventy workmen, and was one of Lindsay's most successful industries. The loss is estimated at about $20,000; insurance about $9,000. The mill will likely be rebuilt during the coming winter.

A NEW LABOR PAPER.

The appearance of a new labor paper in Tordnto is an event of importance, no. so much for the immediate effect it will have in politics or in labor affairs, but because of the potentialities for the future. The editor-in-chief is Mr. James Simpson, formerly a typesetter, more recently for many years city hall reporter for one of the local dailies, and always an active labor lagitator, as well as temperance lecturer and Methodist local preacher. He was also a member of the Board of Education for some years and was a member of production being therefore 20

It does not not be doubt, will be to get into provincial and Dominion politics. The establishment of the paper foreshadows the first serious attempt to launch a real labor party in Canndian politics.

IN BOND STREET CHURCH.

In my letter last week some reference was male to the down town problem confronting Toronto churches, and the disposition shown in some quarters to shark it and in others to meet it. The solemn fact is that of the 50,000 persons living south of College street, only a small fraction has been reached by the churches; but in preaching and in works it is undoubtedly the fact that some of the churches in down town Toronto are out of sympathy with the masses whom they are supposed to serve.

The church perhaps most popular in many ways with the crown is Bond Street Congregational, whose destinies are presided over by Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, who came here several years ago from Buffalo. His methods are much less sen presided over by Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, who came here several years ago from Buffalo. His methods are much less sensition. His methods are much less sensitions than those employed in this pulpit twenty years ago by the late Dr. Wild but he contrives to make his services in cresting, and he always draws full honders. He is a man of considerable personality, a fluent speaker and embellishes his sermons with frequent references to the affairs of the hout. Some might call some of his addresses lectures trather than sermons, meaning that there is less of spirituality about them this is usual. Bond street church is sometimes compared to a business, of which the preacher is the general manager. Bearing out the analogy, he has there an office which he occupies several hours a day. And yet Bond street has no empty pews, and that is one point gained.
