FLESHERTON

The "Hard Times" social given in the town hall on Wednesday evening, last was a great success. The hall was crowded and at the small entrance fee of 15 cents, $33 were realized. Principal Holland was called to the chair, and a very pleasing program was rendered, after which refreshments were served and a jolly social time was spent. Hard times were well represented in many of the unique costumes worn.

The high school literary society had a very interesting time in the school on Friday afternoon last, when a nice parliament was conducted with pleasing success. About twenty took part and some excellent attempts at oratory were made. Woman Suffrage was the measure debated by the Prime Minister, Mr. Winslow Kernahan. Mr. Ed. Loucks was leader of the opposition. Principal White was speaker and Mr. Brown, Governor General, the bill carried, and Woman Suffrage is safe.

The long delayed and much needed fire protection for the village has come and affords relief to the anxiety of the citizens. The new gasoline engine on a truck was tested a few evenings ago and worked splendidly, throwing a good stream of water over thirty feet and greater force can be got with smaller nozzle. A volunteer brigade is yet to be formed.

The plating mill and sash and door factory here, belonging to W.K. Flesher, estate has been purchased by Mr. L. A. Blakely, who proposes making considerable improvements to the plant and will also run a cheaper therewith.

Mr. W. J. Chard has bought Mr. Jos. Gamey's fine farm near Maxwell to which he will move in a few months. Mr. Chard has sold his 50-acre farm on the 4th line to Mr. Jos. Shier. Mr. W. Russell will move from the McKee farm on the 4th line to Mr. E. McCallum's farm in Osprey, and Mr. Robert McKee will return from Collingwood to again occupy the old homestead.

While engaged at carpenter work last week Mr. John Bellamy met with a fall which gave him a severe shock and injuries which laid him up for a few days.

Born - At Meyburn, Sask., on November 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morley, a son.

Mrs. W. S. Christie, now residing with her daughter at Hawkesville, celebrated her 29th birthday on Monday, the 25th inst., and her old friends are wish her many returns.

A few friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy on Wednesday evening last when their granddaughter, Florence Elizabeth, born to Mr. and Mrs. George Best, received the rite of baptism by their pastor, Rev. H. E. Whitford.

Rev. W. C. Parkin, of the West back line, entertained a few of her friends at a fowl supper on Friday evening last. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Munshag attended the annual event.

The Methodist choir and pastor went to Salem church, Proton, on Monday evening to assist at the anniversary entertainment.

Though not sufficient snow for good sleighing, sleighs and cutters were out on Monday, the first this season.

We have received word of the death of Mrs. Laura A. Harnden, wife of the late C.W. Harnden, who died suddenly at Fort Saskatchewan on the 9th inst., from paralytic stroke. The deceased, who was a very highly esteemed lady, is survived by three daughters and one son, viz: Mrs. R.N. Henderson, Winnipeg; Mrs. Cameron, Bramford; Mrs. Gordon, Peterborough; and Dr. H. R. Harnden, Fort Saskatchewan. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Cameron, who formerly resided here, have the sincere sympathy of their old friends in their bereavement.

Rev. Dr. Stewart, of Clinton, preached in the Presbyterian church the past three Sabbaths. Good supply is expected for next Sunday, when Communion service will be held.

Thompson-McNeill-Married, at 16 Dingleway, Toronto, on Friday, November 15th by Rev. J. A. Miller, B.A., of Riverdale Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Kathleen McNeill of Parry Sound, to Mr. Robert S. Thompson, jeweller, of Powasson. The groom is a Flesherston boy, and we join his friends here in hearty congratulations.

Mrs. Graham, who was on an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Badgerow, 4th line, left for her home at Blind River last week.

Mr. G. A. Watson has returned from the West, where he spent a few weeks engineer of a threshing outfit.

Mr. Roy Thistlewaite and Alie Best have returned from a few weeks' sojourn at Brighton.
