Thornbury's First Jury Case

What is supposed to be the first jury to sit on a case in Thornbury was the one which decided the case between Gerald Wallace of the Kimberley and Herbert Reid of Epping.

Reduce Your "Feed" Bills by using Caldwell's Molasses Meal. The quantity an animal eats counts for very little - it's the amount it digests which tells in class and value.

The Discovery of Eugenia Falls

A writer in last week's Flesher-ton Advance gives the following interesting and racy account of the discovery of Eugenia Falls.

There is a man sitting on the bank, fishing rod in hand, his grip lying beside him. Tradition says he was the first white man that fished and hunted along the river in these parts.

Dear old Falls. As a child we looked on it with wide-eyed wonder and awe. Later, in the gladder days of youth it was a scene of our life, its first memory picture is as fresh as ever.

Our usual January thaw has come, and gone again, and the Sauguen river feels the effect of it. Mr. John Aldcorn, of Swinton Park, unfolded a jar of corn here week before last.

Inaugural Meeting of Euphrasia Council

The members elected to serve on the Euphrasia Council Board for the year 1913 are: J. T. Miller, Reeve; J. M. Davis, Deputy-Reeve; G. Hutchinson; J. Cook and Joe Mahoney, Councillors.
