FAMOUS PEARLS OF HISTORY.

Largest Is Two Inches Long and Is Worth $60,000.

The pearl is the only gem needing not the hand of man to bring to perfection, and history affords ample evidence of the intense fascination it has always exercised among the people of every age.

Indian mythology often speaks of the pearl, Vishnu, who is said to have caused it to be drawn from the ocean for his daughter Pandana.

It is known that the beauty of the natural pearl sometimes proves evanescent. To retain its shimmering splendor it needs air and light.

When it comes to determining the real merit of a medicine, so weight of evidence is more convincing than the credentialed statements of some reliable and well-known person who has been cured.

Telegraphs and Photographs. A small metal point passing over the uneven surface of the plate caused a variation of the electric current, which makes possible the transmission of a telegraph message.

Great Total for Last Year, But Worse Expected in Britain. What Great Britain is coming to in an industrial sense can be gauged dimly from a study of some staggering figures concerning the loss of time that resulted from labor disputes in the year just ended.

Up to the beginning of 1912 the record for loss of time in the course of a single year in Great Britain as a result of strikes was about 10,000,000 days, and this total was generally regarded as an alarming one.
