FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

Nixon—Paul—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bentham was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, February 18th, when the latter's sister, Miss Gertie Paul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Paul, of Eugenia, was joined in marriage with Mr. William Nixon, of Ogema, Sask., formerly of Lucknow, Ont. Rev. H. E. Wellwood, B.A., B.D., performed the ceremony, which took place beneath an artistic evergreen arch. The groom's sister, Miss Minnie Nixon, played the wedding march, and during the signing of the register sang "O Perfect Love." The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a very pretty gown of cream silk trimmed with allover lace and silver bead fringe, and carried white roses. Her travelling costume was brown cloth with stylish white beaver hat trimmed with white ostrich bandeau and pink roses. A choice wedding supper was served and later the young couple left on the evening train for Lucknow and other points before leaving for their new home in the West.

Dundalk and Flesherton hockey teams played here on Friday evening last and had a good game. The score was a tie, 6—6. Mr. McWilliams, of Dundalk, was the referee and a good crowd accompanied the visitors.

Born—At Lucknow, on Friday, February 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tate, a son.

OWEN SOUND

Rev. Dr. Caldwell and Mrs. Caldwell entertained members of the Ladies' Aid and their husbands at their last meeting on Friday, Feb. 14th, at 4.30 p.m. in the parsonage. After the business meeting, when it was found that all debts and liabilities incurred in the recent renovation of the church were met and a small surplus on hand general thankfulness was expressed. At the close of the business meeting when the husbands came and all had supper, the evening was spent in conversation, games and innocent amusements and was most heartily enjoyed by all. — Owen Sound Times.

Your Hair Needs Parisian Sage

Use It As a Dressing—Banish Dandruff—Stop Falling Hair and Scalp Itch.

PARISIAN Sage, the delightful and invigorating hair tonic, is a true hair nourisher. It penetrates into the scalp, gets to the roots of the hair, kills the dandruff germs, and supplies the hair with just the kind of nourishment it needs to make it grow abundantly.

Since its introduction into Canada, PARISIAN Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons:

It does not contain poisonous sugar of lead, nitrate of silder or sulphur or any injurious ingredient.

It cures dandruff in two weeks by killing the dandruff germ.

It stops falling hair.

It promptly stops itching of the scalp.

It makes the hair soft, glossy and luxuriant.

It gives life and beauty to the hair.

It is not sticky or greasy.

It is the daintiest perfumed hair tonic made.

It is the best, the most pleasant and invigorating hair dressing made.

Made only in Canada by the R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. The price is only 50 cents at drug stores and counters where toilet goods are sold.

W. Turner & Co. guarantee it.

5000 Facts About Canada

The public will welcome the 1913 Edition of "5000 FACTS ABOUT CANADA," compiled by Frank Yeigh, the acknowledged authority on things Canadian and the author of "Through the Heart of Canada." Ten thousand copies are now sold annually which go their way all over Canada and the Empire, indeed the world.

"The Facts booklet is crammed full of information as a storage of meat," is the happy phrase the way an English Journal puts it, and the new issue, which includes many new features and improvements such as a colored map of the Dominion, presents a striking story of the wonderful advance Canada in a single year. We now talk in billions.

The booklet is issued at 25 cents a copy by the Canadian Facts Pub. Co., 588 Huron Street, Toronto, and is sold by all the leading newsdealers.
