DONDAK

A carload of calves numbering about 150 shipped in from Toronto by Messrs. Irwin and Spratt were picked up quickly by the farmers here last week.

Strained relations between Reeve Bell and Constable Maxwell was the cause of a special meeting of the Village Council this (Wednesday) morning. The outcome of the meeting was the dismissal of the constable to take effect next month.

A plan is being talked of in the village to procure a portion of the Bell property for a public park. This is a move which we feel sure will meet with the approval of the citizens generally. Let us have a small park while it may be procured.

Constable Maxwell took possession of a case of liquor from Tuesday afternoon's express from the north, and deposited it in the vault in the town hall. High Constable Cook, of Ceylon, assumed control and he laid a charge before Police Magistrate McGregor and evidence in the matter will be heard this (Thursday) p.m. at two o'clock, in the town hall.

On Wednesday morning Mr. John Gilmore took a walk down the railway track and evidently took a weak spell. When he did not return home at noon hour for his dinner his daughter went to his confectionery shop, on Proton st., but found the place locked and no indication that he had been there at all that morning. Searchers immediately started out and found him about two o'clock in the afternoon in an outbuilding, immediately south of the village. The searchers' attention was directed by calls for help. Evidently he had got a fall as his arm had been bleeding. Dr. McWilliam was called and is attending the patient.—Herald.

DURHAM

The bus and dray business is soon to pass into new hands, or rather old hands, Mr. John Whitaker, a former proprietor, who has returned after a year in the west, having repurchased the business from Mr. D. Doherty.

Mr. W. A. Campbell left on Monday morning to take charge of a school near Dundalk. He has just completed writing off examinations in English and Physics which if he is successful will entitle him to drop two years in his university degree course.

Nothing but a heavy rain which was falling at the time prevented a large conflagration last Wednesday morning. The fire brigade, the brigade and citizens about 5,15 a.m. and in a few minutes "quite" a number of citizens had gathered beside Robt. Ewen's livery barn, which was then in flames. The rain checked the rapidity of the blaze but the stable was doomed and a bucket brigade extending onto the roof saved Robt. Burnett's stable in close proximity. Mrs. Burnett first noticed the fire and had it been a dry, windy morning, their residence and the Baptist Church nearby would probably have been wiped out as well. The Fire Brigade turned on the hose in 25 or 30 minutes and soon quieted the blaze. When the fire was in its incipient stage Mr. Limlin had removed a stallion and another horse and vehicles were also pulled out, so the only contents destroyed are some robes, harness, and a small quantity of hay and oats. The cause is unknown, but supposedly was accidentally started by someone in the loft, as the blaze was first seen there on East side. The stable was owned by Mrs. Warner and carried an insurance of $125—Review.

OWEN SOUND

Next week will witness a change in the management of the Seldon House, when Mr. W. F. Oldham, the present manager, will leave for Michigan, and Mr. George Eberle will take charge.

Lightning struck the engine room of the Doric Cement works in the electrical storm of Wednesday morning and damage to the extent of about one thousand dollars was done before the blaze was quenched by the fire brigade.

Mr. J. J. Pratt returned Tuesday from a trip to Copper Cliff and North Bay, where he was arranging matters in connection with his contemplated removal to the latter town. He expects to commence business at North Bay about May 1st, and will also resume the management of his newspaper, at Copper Cliff.

Some improvements (?) are being made this week in the Town Hall building; the Police Officers' front room is being cleaned, and a window has been put over the door leading into the arcade. Too bad to waste time and money on the old barn! Why doesn't the council take up the matter of providing a decent municipal building?

With eight miles of available shore line for docks and wharves, and the best sheltered, largest and most accessible harbor on the lakes as well as 14,000 population and about 35 or 40 thriving industries, the town council ought to be able to place proper inducements before some steamship company to provide Owen Sound with a regular freight and passenger service with the upper lakes.

another election. We have had our full share of elections this last few years, but such occasions as the present one must be met whether we like it or not. Mr. MacKay's resignation has necessitated another election and, from all appearances it will not be long delayed.

One of the swans in Harrison Park was caught by a dog a few days ago and badly hurt. Fortunately the dog was scared off before he managed to kill the bird, which is expected to recover. One effect of the affair is that the Parks Board has decided that in future no dogs shall be allowed in the park.

Between two and three hundred dollars damage was done to Dr. A. E. Little's dental offices, Second Avenue East, by fire which occurred shortly after midnight Friday. The blaze started in a corner of the laboratory, where there was a box containing a lot of waste paper, and it is thought to have been caused by a spark from a match thrown into the box.

In this way the mail delivery system will become a post office on wheels, and will add much to the increasing convenience of rural life.

Patrons of rural industry will be supplied with blank applications for money orders and postal notes, to be used as occasion arises. The patron will prepare the application and hand it, together with the purchase money, to the courier, who will give a receipt therefor, and will purchase the money order or postal note at the distributing office and deliver it to the box holder on his next trip, or the courier may be intrusted with the open letter in which to enclose the money order or postal note and thus save time.

In the case of registered letters for box holders, the postmaster of the distributing office will notify the box holder of the arrival of the registered article and the box holder will be required to give the courier an order on the postmaster to deliver the article to the courier, and the box holder will be expected to meet the courier on his next trip and give a receipt on delivery of the article.
