

after all— It is Quality that Counts

During the past few weeks of Slaughter Sales, the people of Markdale have had a great opportunity to choose between my exclusive high-class clothes tailored up to a standard and those of the other kind made down to a price. Never before have I been so well satisfied with the foundation of "quality" on which I build this business. My ideal has always been high-class goods at a fair price—fair to the buyer, fair to the seller.

To-day that policy is giving its best results: While others are driven to questionable methods to unload their "cheap" clothing, my hand-tailored garments for men stand out in a class by themselves and sell at 100 cents on the dollar, and the customer knows they are worth the money.

At present I am showing a beautiful range of two and three-piece Summer Suits cut in a smart two-button model (same as illustration) made from "Hewson Homespun" in grey, brown, leather mixtures, prices $10, $12, $15, $18. See these exclusive lines before you buy.

Reply to Mr. Knott.

Editor Standard.—Permit us, in self defence, to make some explanations re Mr. Knott's ungentlemanly and untruthful insinuations and charges in last week's issue of The Standard. Before rushing into print in order to try to injure the character or reputation of even a rival in business we think the least a man could do would be to ascertain whether or not there is any truth in the assertions he is about to make.

The facts are, Mr. James McNeil, of Owen Sound, District Manager for the Singer people, came to our store making a friendly call. During his stay among other things he talked Singer Sewing Machine interests, intimating that Mr. Knott was all right as a man but that he was not doing the amount of business that he should get from Markdale district, stating that he believed we would give him a hundred per cent. more business than Knott was doing, and that it was business he was after. During the conversation a change of agent was agreed upon. We did not say the Singer was the best machine on the market, but did say it was a good seller. If the agent was possessed of real merit on a par with the Singer Machine, the business would doubtless have been more satisfactory to the district agent.

OWEN SOUND

The many friends of Judge Widdifield who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the G. & M. Hospital on Tuesday will be pleased to hear that he is making good progress towards recovery. The police are on the trail of an alleged agent of the white slave traffic who has been in town during the past week, offering all kinds of inducements to girls and young women to go to London. The process offered employment of various kinds to several local girls, but it was not until the woman was closely questioned by a girl who became suspicious of her character, that anything was known of her operations. A prominent business man heard of the facts and Miss Notter, deaconess, was at once informed of the case. Not till the balmy wings of leafy June again sigh through the trees will Joe Logan have a chance to mingle in Owen Sound society. Joe is an all-round bad un, with an over-weening fondness for picking up anything that doesn't happen to be nailed down or closely watched. A couple of weeks ago he picked up Mr. J. J. Gilchrist's bicycle, and after a short search the police caught him. The Police Magistrate was puzzled to know what to do with him, for punishment seems to do him no good. After thinking over the case for a week, His Worship decided that it would be advisable to keep Joe out of mischief for a while anyway, and sentenced him to one year in Central Prison.

SHELBURNE

Good Progress—Geo. Leitch, who is in charge of the work of building St. Paul's Church, Shelburne, is making good progress. The excavation for the basement is about finished. Chas. Reburn, of Shelburne, has the contract of the stonework. The contract of the brick work has been let to W. Robinson, of Hillsburg. The brick will be supplied by the Owen Sound Brick Company. The John Harrison Co., of Owen Sound, will furnish all the dressed material for the building.

DUNDALK

Mr. McLean, sr., of Priceville, who visited over Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. T. D. Wright, went to Toronto, Monday, to have one of his eyes removed, which has been giving him serious trouble. The funeral of the late Mrs. Samuel Cornett, whose sudden death was a shock to the community, took place on Thursday afternoon. Service was held in the Methodist church, and the large edifice was crowded with friends and sympathizers. Rev. Herbert Lep, the pastor, preached an appropriate and impressive sermon. The sadness of the occasion was very evident in the large audience present. Interment was made at Maple Grove cemetery.—Herald.

Council Should Take Action

Editor Standard:—Dear Sir,—About six weeks ago, I in company with the other merchants of Markdale, invited the merchants and business men to sign a petition for the closing of the stores and business places at ten o'clock on Saturday nights, with the exception of the months of July, August and September, when the closing hour was to be eleven o'clock.

This petition, by all the merchants of the town, was presented to the council, and since then nothing has been done. It is in the power of the Council, by law, though why they should decline to do so when the merchants have, through us, presented the petition, I do not know. No less than four of the businessmen of the town have lately asked me why the by-law has not yet been put through, as they are anxious to see this done. I sincerely trust that the matter will be given the prompt attention of the Council and receive the consideration which it deserves. LINDSAY McILLAN, Christ Church Rectory, Markdale.

Wedding Bells.

LOCKES-BOYD

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd, Temple Hill, was the scene of festive gaiety on Wednesday, June 11th, when their daughter, Fanny, was married to Mr. James Lockes, of St. Vincent. The young couple were unattended except for little Reta Boyd, niece of the bride, who made a charming flower girl. The bride and her attendant carried bouquets of fernations. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock by Rev. R. M. Phalen, of Markdale, under a green arbor flecked with pinks and snowballs erected on the lawn. The bride took her place leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march. She looked lovely in her dress of embroidered crepe with point lace trimmings. She wore a bridal veil interwoven with maiden hair fern. The presents were varied and beautiful. Mr. Kentnar was present to catch the beauty of the scene with his deft camera. The wedding spread was chaste and recherche and served with admirable taste. About one hundred and fifty guests were present.

DURANT-ELLIOTT

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Jack Elliott, Strongfield, Sask., on Wednesday evening, June 11th, when his sister, Miss Lulu F. Elliott, daughter of the late John and Mrs. Elliott, was united in marriage to Mr. R. Manford Durant, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Durant, of Harrison, Ont., by the Rev. H. Buckle, of Outlook. The bride was prettily dressed in white voile trimmed with silk applique and lace. After congratulations had been offered and refreshments served the happy couple left on the night train, amid showers of rice, for Banff where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a suit of grey worsted with hat to match. On their return they will reside at LaBerge, Sask.—Strongfield News.

KILPATRICK-SYMES

A pretty June wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. E. Symes, Woolfrey avenue, Toronto; (formerly of Markdale), when her youngest daughter, Anna Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Alvin Ernest Kilpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kilpatrick, Withrow avenue, Rev. Richard Hobbs officiating. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Montgomery, to the strains of Wagner's wedding march, played by Miss Olive Waldern, niece of the groom. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Symes, was beautifully gowned in ivory satin, with pearl trimmings and her veil a family heirloom. She carried a shower bouquet of cream roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was also prettily gowned in pink silk voile and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Norman Kilpatrick. The many beautiful presents received showed the esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their many friends.

STOREY-REID

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Reid, Heathcote, was the scene of a very pleasing event on June 11th when their second daughter, Olive Mabel, was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh Storey, of Saskatchewan, Sask., son of Mr. Walter Storey, of St. Vincent, in the presence of about seventy immediate relatives. The marriage ceremony, performed under an arch of evergreens with white flowers from which hung a large white bell, was conducted by Rev. H.E.W. Kemp, of Heathcote, at 5 o'clock. The wedding march was played by Miss Leona Reid, sister of the bride. The bride who was unattended, was given away by her father and wore a becoming gown of white silk crepe de chine trimmed with cream silk and shadow lace and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. After the usual congratulations, all partook of a dainty repast served in the dining room decorated with pink and white. The high esteem in which the young couple are held was evident from the many useful and valuable presents they received. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome sum of money. The happy couple leave on Monday for Saskatchewan where they will reside. The bride's travelling costume was a suit of navy blue whipcord and white Panama hat.
