FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

Adams — Wilson—The Toronto Star of the 18th inst. reported the following marriage: "A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. R. Elliott, 199 Jarvis street, when Miss Thomasina Wilson was united in marriage to Mr. Emerson Adams, the Rev. John McNeill officiating. The bride was attired in an embroidered net over silk and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, wearing the gift of the groom, a pearl necklace. The bridesmaid, Miss Bertha Elliott, wore a white embroidery gown with satin trimming, also carrying a shower bouquet of pink roses. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl broach, and to the best man, Mr. James Hamilton, a pearl tie pin. After the dejeuner the happy couple left for Buffalo and other points, the bride travelling in a smartly tailored suit of blue whipcord and hat with plumes." Auld Lang Syne

25 YEARS AGO

Items of General Interest from The Standard Fyles of June 21, 1888.

Flesherton is to have a bank shortly.

Clarksburg is to have a switch from the railway at Thornbury this summer.

Born—In Artemesia, on the 12th June, 1888, to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Irving, twin girls.

A man attending Chatsworth Division Court was committed ten days to jail for impudence.

Anderson's shingle factory at Holland Centre was burned on Monday night about ten o'clock.

Every business house in Chesley save one was burned out by a great fire which broke out there on June 9th, 1888. It was a total sweep.

Married — Erskine—Turner —On the 6th June, 1888, at the residence of Mr. Alex. Erskine, 9th line, Euphrasia, Mr. Robt. Scott Erskine to Miss Minnie M. Turner, all of Euphrasia.

Mr. Robert Oliver has probably the most extensive farm in South Grey, he having a farm of 760 acres in Artemesia which is splendidly stocked. He has no less than thirty milch cows and all other stock in proportion.

The following is the final draft for Markdale District at the last meeting of Guelph Conference: Markdale, George Buggin; Flesherton, J. W. Shilton; Dundalk, W.H. Moss; Eugenia, H. Watts; Priceville, W. Ottewell; Holland Centre, G. Hartley; Walters Falls, J. W. Sanderson; Euphrasia, R. J. Hosking.

Markdale can boast of bus service second to none on the line; a fine team, handsome, substantial and comfortable omnibus, and courteous, accommodating driver always on time. Mr. Marsh, of the Markdale House, is entitled to much credit for this state of affairs, while Mark Creasor, the driver, comes in for a due share of commendation.

Two Cows Killed.

Two cows were instantly killed at Kemble on Saturday in a most peculiar manner. The animals which were the property of Messrs. Victor and Allen Vanstone were on the roadside and got into a field on Mr. John Crampton's farm. They became frightened at a dog and started back to the road. In jumping the fence one cow fell and broke her neck. The other cow coming immediately after, got its front feet and head caught in the wire fence and choked to death. The two dead animals were found lying one on top of the other a few minutes later. They were valuable animals and the loss will be quite an item.

Why is it that a man who is always helping his wife at home during his spare time is regarded by his fool friends as being in the henpecked class?

Little "Buster" Radley had a narrow escape from drowning on Monday afternoon. In an attempt to catch his kitten, he followed it under the veranda and eventually found himself in an old well, partially filled with broken rubbish, and in which was considerable water. The cries of the child attracted the attention of some of the neighbors and soon a search was being made. Great difficulty was experienced in getting him out of such close confines, and a number of cuts were received by those assisting. Medical aid was summoned, but the child was found to be little the worse, except for a few nasty scratches.
